A Settler.

I entered a log school-house once, where a 'Debatin' Society' was holding forth upon a question 'If a man saw his wife and mother in the water drowning, which should he help out first!' The question was considered with animation upon both sides for a while, when a 'backwardness' began to manifest itself. The president desired debaters, 'if they had anything to say, to continue on.' After a pause, a peaked-looking man in the back part of the house got up and said, with considerable confidence and embarrasment: 'Mr. President: I think if a man saw his mother and wife in the water drowning, he ought to help his mother out first: because, you see, if his wife did get drowned, he could get another one, but he couldn't get another mother, not easy!' other one, but he couldn't get another mother, not easy!'
'This settled the question and the ver-dict was given 'accordingly.'

Proper Cultivation of Land.

Proper Cultivation of Land.

There is one fact which cannot be too deeply impressed upon the farming community. It is that it costs as much labor to cultivate a piece of land which brings about half a crop as it does one bringing a full yield. Whenever finances will permit, therefore, money should be spent freely to improve the land, in the purchase of suitable fertilizers. It is far better than stowing money away at 6 per cent. and learning the farm to suffer. Farmers will be poorly paid for their labor, as long as they do not put their land in a condition to bring good crops. The latter effected and his fortune is made—slowly, compared with some speculative enterprises it is true—but surely. Better cultivate less land and cultivate it well, than merely skin a large amount. This skinning process is the greatest folly in the world. The land must be fed or it cannot produce well, and it wan's more feeding in many sections we might point out. We hope the farmers' market may continue good and furnish abundant "change," to buy fertilizers, which many farmers so much need.

Cure for Rose Bugs.—A subscriber wishes to know if any one can suggest a method of preventing the yearly incursions of the rose-bugs; and having heard considable complaint among our neighbors of faving their cucumbers, grapes and other fruit destroyed by these insects, I will suggest a remedy. Plant in the centre of your garden a few damask rose-bushes, and they will never light on anything else.—We have a large garden with almost every kind of fruit, vines, shrubberry, and flowers, with several kinds of roses, and in the centre we have four branches of damask rose-bushes, and I never saw in the whole garden a rose bug on anything but the damask rose. When they are in blossom I go into the garden once a day with a pan of hot water, and shake the bugs from these roses into the water, and get about a pint at one time; this I practice for a few days, and then they will disappear.—Culltivator. Raising of Fruits.

Raising of Fruits.

We have repeatedly called the attention of Farmers to the profit to be realized from the raising af fruit upon their farms, which can be done with comparatively little cost or labor, and than which nothing in the market finds a more ready sale, at such good prices. We have seen patches of cultivated ground in the country, upon which all kinds of trees have been suffered to grow, except fruit trees, when it was just as easy to have the places occupied by trees which would yield a crop which could always be sold to advantage.—Pottstown Ledger.

Drying Green Corn.—It is said to be altogether the best method for drying green corn, to take full-grown ears and in a stove, baker or oven, to roast them as if for eating. When cold, shell off the kernels and give them a few days drying, and bag away for winter use. A boiling of eight or twelve hours renders it a valuable ingredient for soups, or for eating with meats, and is a wholesome and nutritous food.

PLUM CAKE.—Make a cake of two cups of butter, two cups of molasses, two eggs, one cup of nilk or buttermilk, one teasyoonful of saleoretus, or volative salts (which is better;) a gill of brandy, and teaspoonful of esscence of lemon, and flour to make a stiff batter. Beat it well; then add one pound of currents, well washed and dried by the fire, and one or two quarters of citron. Bake in a quick oven.—This is a fine rich cake, easily made and not expensive.

Salting Butter.—Take of Sugar one part, saltpetre one part, and clean strong salt two parts, beat them well together, and put by the preparation fr use; of which take one ounce for every sixteen ounces of butter, and mix it thoroughly with the butter as soon as it is freed from the buttermilk. Butter salted in this manner, and put down in close tubs, with a little melted butter poured over the surface; will keep good for many years.

To double the crops of most farms, about all that is necessary is for our agriculturalists to sell off one half of their land, and with the proceeds buy manure for the other. The larger the farm, the less a man grows to the acre.

CELEBRATED GERMAN BUTTERS,
Prepared by

DR. C. M. JACKSON,

AT THE GERMAN MEDICINE STORE,
120 Arch Street, Philadelphia.
Their power over the above diseases is not exselled—if equalled—by any other preparation in he United States, as the cures attest, in many rases after skilful physicians had failed.
These Bitters are worthy the attention of invadid. Possessing great virues in the rectification of diseases of the Liver and lesser glands, exersising the most searching powers in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are withal,
safe, certain and pleasant.

READ AND BE CONVINCED.
From the "Boston Bee,"
The editor said, Dec. 22nd
Dr. Hoofkmat's Celebrated German Bitters for the cure of Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, is deservedly one of the most popular medicines of the day. These Bitters have been used by thonsands, and a friend
at our chow says he had himself received an effect
atal and pernanent cure of Liver Complaintfrom
the use of this remedy. We are convinced that,
in the use of these Bitters, the patient constantly gains strength and vigor—a fact worthy of great consideration. They are pleasant in tast and smell, and can be used by persons with the most delicate stomachs with safety, under any circumstances. We are speaking from experience, and to the afflicted we advise their use.
"Scort"s Werely," one of the best Literary papers published, said Aug. 25—
"Dr. Hooflann's German Bitters, manufactured by Dr. Jackson, are now recommended by some of the most prominent members of the fiendly as an article of much efficacy in cases of female weakness. As such is the case, we would advise all mothers to obtain a bottle, and thus save themselves much sickness. Persons of debilitated constitutions will find these Bitters advantageous to their health, as we know from experience the salutary effect they have upon weak systems."

The Hon. C. D. Hinkelm's, Mayor of the city

recommend used: A should, in fact, be in every family. No other medicine can produce such evidences of merit. Evidence upon evidence has been received (like the foregoing) from all sections of the Union, the also throy ayars, and the strongest testimony in its favor, is, that there is more of it used in the practice of the regular Physicians of Philadelphia, than all other nostrums combined, a fact that can easily be esablished, and fully proving that a scientific preparation will meet with their quiet approval when presented even in this form.

That this Medicine will cure Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, no one can doubt after using it as directed. It acts specifically upon the stomach and liver; it is preferable to calomel in all billous discesses—the effect is immediate. They can be administered to female or infant with safety and reliable benefit at any time.

Look well to the marks of the genuine
They have the written signature of C. M. JACKSON upon the wrapper, and his name blown in the bottle, without which they are spicious.

Birmingham Female Seminary.

The liberal patronage which this School has received in the past, encourages the proprietor and friends of female education, to expect by proper exertion to make it both a premanent and important Institution; and no pains will by spared to sustain its growing reputation.

Among other considerations which inspire hope as to its future success, the location is not unimportant. Three years actual experiment has developed a more philosophical, if not a truer reason for the existance of Birmingham than many which have been assigned—that it is the situation for a Female Seminary, surrounded as it is by most romantic senery—retired—healthful—easy of access and in itself a place where one might almost grow wise in the study of Nature alone unmocked by the works of Art.

OWEN & WM. BOAT, would respectfully announce to the public, that they are now
carrying on the COACH MAKING BUSINESS in all its various branches, at the old stand formerly occupied by Adams & Boat, a few doorwest of the Presbyterian church, where they are now manufacturing Buggies, Carriages, Bareauches, Rockaways, Dearborns, &c., in short any thing in the line of carriage making, of the very approved style.

thing in the line of carriage making, of the very best kind of material, and in the latest and most approved style.

They have on hand now several Buggies and Rockaways, finished in the latest style. They have a good assortment of Lumber, selected with a great deal of care, seasoned for use, and invite those who are desirous of purchasing vehicles to call and examine their work and materials, and judge for themselves, as they intend to make good work and warrant it to be so. All kinds of country produce taken in exchange for work. N. B.—OWEN BOAT returns his thanks to his friends and the public generally, for their very liberal patronage, and hopes, by strict attention to business, to merita continuance of the same, under the new firm. We have some second hand work which is of a good quality, which we will sell right. Give us a call. We will sell loyfor cash.
