MISSOURI AND THE WORLD'S FAIR.—The Missouri Legislature has appropriated $4,000 for the proper representation of that State at the New York World's Fair in May next. L. M. Kennett is the agent of the State.
COLEMAN.—"It has been my habit," says Coleman, "to write chiefly at night; and when I have grown heated with my subject it has so chilled my limbs, that I have gone to bed as if I had been sitting up to my knees in ice."
"The Black Swan," who now occupies a prominent position before the musical world, contemplates going to Europe in a short time. There will then be two celebrities from the United States, in Europe at once—the "Black Swan," and Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe.
Our townsman, Thomas Fisher, Esq., is erecting a very splendid Summer house in the yard adjoining his private dwelling. As far as the comforts of this life are concerned, Mr. Fisher's family have certainly no reason to complain. They can enjoy their otium cum dignitate.
WAKEFIELD.—Gilbert Wakfield tells us that he wrote his own Memoirs (a large octavo) in six or eight days. It costs him nothing, and what is very natural, is worth nothing. One might yawn stories of such books into existence; but who could be the wiser or the better?
PANTHERS.—The Elk County Advocate says, six full grown panthers were captured and killed, in the Eastern part of Elk county, a few weeks ago, by Erasmus Morey and Peter Smith. The largest measured thirteen feet from the tip of the nose to the end of the tail. Elk is a great county.
Capt. Dorris is putting up an end porch to his beautiful and comfortable dwelling. It will be the work of his own hands, and it will be neat, because the Capt. is a mechanical genius. Though a lover standing high in his profession, yet not unwilling to give the plane, or handle the mallet. His example is worthy of imitation.
NEW YORK CRYSTAL PALACE.—The New York Journal of Commerce states that in consequence of the unfavorable state of the weather during the past month and a temporary delay occasioned by a want of building materials, the Crystal Palace will not, probably, be ready for the reception of articles before the first of June.
THOMAS.—Thomas, an intense thinker would sit for hours against a hedge, composing with a low voice, taking the same pinch of snuff for half an hour together without being aware that it had long disappeared. When he quitted his apartment, after prolonging his studies there, a visible alteration was observed in his person, and the agitation of his recent thoughts was still traced in his air and manner.
It is stated in one of our exchanges that an immense Mass Meeting was held in Market Square, Cincinnati, on Tuesday night, to nominate an Independent ticket for City Officers to sustain the Common Schools, and oppose the encroachments of Roman Catholics in regard to them. All political lines were entirely laid aside and the candidates selected with the single view to the School question.
Great indignation was expressed at the attempts of foreign Ecclesiastics to interfere with the Common Schools.

ARRIVAL OF THE NIAGARA.

LIBERATION OF THE MADIAT FAMILY.
Protest of England against the Austrian Proceedings in Sardinia.
HALIFAX, N. S., March 30.
AFFAIRS IN ENGLAND.—The Parliamentary business is very unimportant.—Lord John Russell stated in the House that the Mexican Government had reduced the duty on printed calicoes and paper, and measures referring thereto would soon be submitted.
Mr. Mills drew the attention of government to the fact that the only winter route of British troops to Canada is through the United States, and asked if the Government intended to facilitate, by guarantee or otherwise, the completion of the Halifax and Quebec Railroad.
Mr. Peel, for the Government, was unable to state.
Lord John Russell spoke of Austrian proceedings towards Sardinia subjects in consequence of the Milan insurrection. The Sardinian Government had requested the British Government to interfere against sequestration, and Great Britain had written a strong letter to Vienna; but, in the meantime, the Austrian authorities had stated that it was their intention to remove sequestration from parties proving themselves innocent.
Lord John Russell also stated that the Government had received notice that the Grand Duke of Tuscany had liberated the Madiat family, and allowed them to leave Tuscany.

The government is understood to be extremely dissatisfied with the recent statements in the British parliament, to the effect that England would not expel the refugees. The Austrian government thinks it would be quite useless to prosecute Mazzini or Kossuth in England, as no jury would find them guilty.
The firm of Mectane, Lola & Co. of Vienna, has failed for 200,000 florins. Late accounts from Moldavia states that the reigning Prince had left Jessy, and that a governmental council had been formed.
The inhabitants of Milan have been relieved from the order to illuminate their houses at night, but on a signal of a cannon shot, from the Castle, the whole city, must be illuminated, the doors be closed, and the streets be deserted. The military are employed in strengthening the fortifications and gates. The state of siege is still rigidly enforced, and no officers go out without an escort. Der Lloyd states that the value of the confiscated property is fifty millions sterling. Lloyd states that the new Genoa steamship Company, with a capital of thirty millions, designed to open steam communication between the Mediterranean and American ports, was progressing, with a fair prospect of success.

South America.

Buenos Ayres dates are to February 2d. The civil war still raging—but accounts are rather disconnected. An attack on the City was looked for on the 3d, and full preparations had been made for resistance. The Times says, the foreign resident generally, the bulk of the Yankees excepted, wish well to the cause of the city.
Gore, the British Charge, had been expelled. Business at Buenos Ayres in January, was almost a blank, excepting for food and ammunitions. There was no price list published. Freights light. The stock of wool had accumulated, and there were but few hides and a small quantity of tallow in the market.
