

Splinters and Shavings.

A wager is a fool's argument. Belgium has recognised the independence of Liberia. No confidence can be placed in those who are in the habit of telling lies. Franklin's treaty with Sweden was consummated on the 3d of April, 1783. There are 5,800 idiots in the State of New York. A machine for dusting carpets is in operation at Louisville. What next. The pen of the tongue should be dipped in the ink of the heart. Alexander the Great, died on the 6th of April, 323 B. C. New potatoes, Cabbages, radishes &c., are now visible in Mobile. Plato, the Grecian, Philosopher, died on the 5th of April, 347 B. C. Have the courage to let your ignorance be known in order that you may learn. P. T. Barnum, Esq., the great showman, has been elected to the Connecticut Legislature from Bridgeport. President Harrison died on the 4th of April, 1841—Goldsmith died on the 4th of April, 1774. Praise prepares the way for offence, at the cessation. The desire of flattery is an appetite that grows by what it feeds on. The uniformed man is like a city with its walls broken down, defenceless, and exposed to the inroads of the enemy. The earthquake which recently shocked northern New York was also felt on the other side of Lake Ontario, in Canada. The officers attached to the Surveyor's Department of the Philadelphia Custom House have presented to William B. Norris, Esq., the Surveyor, a silver tea set, composed of six pieces as a tribute of regard. The nomination of Senator Borland, of Arkansas, by President Pierce, for Governor of the Territory of New Mexico, was confirmed by U. S. Senate on the 8th inst. In Pittsburg, on Tuesday, April 5th, the jury in the case of B. Matthes vs. the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, returned a verdict of $5500 for the plaintiff. Gen. Larimer, of Pittsburg, declines having his name used as the Whig Candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania. The lower house of the N. York Legislature has ordered to a third reading, the bill appropriating $5,000 for a monument to General Worth. Gen. Winfield Scott has purchased for his own private use the splendid residence of Chas. Partridge, New York city, where hereafter will be the Head Quarters of the U. S. Army. One great and kindling thought from a retired and obscure man, may live when theories have fallen and the memories of those who filled them obliterated, and, like an undying fire may illuminate, and quicken all future generations. The funeral of Mrs. Fillmore took place in Buffalo on Saturday, the 2d inst. Her remains were followed to their resting place at Forest Lawn by her family and a large procession of sorrowing friends. Col. James Baranesite, it is rumored, is to be appointed President Judge of the new Judicial District, composed of the counties of Centre, Clearfield and Clinton. If appointed, he will serve until the October election, when there will be a Judge elected. That man who is in the habit of traducing or constantly pointing out defects in the character of his neighbor, ought to be shunned by an honest community and kicked out of decent society. There are several of that sort in this community. Hon. Pierre Soale of Louisiana has been appointed Minister to Spain by President Pierce. Thos. H. Benton is spoken of in connection with the ministership at the Court of St. James, England; and Robert J. Walker with that of France. Lord Astley, before he charged at the battle of Engelhill, made this short prayer: "O Lord, thou knowest how busy I must be this day. If I forget thee, do not thou forget me." There was certainly, says Home, much longer prayers said in the Parliamentary army, but I doubt if there was so good a one. Hon. Thomas F. Marshall has not been murdered as was announced in a telegraphic despatch published in some of yesterday morning's papers. The Louisville papers state, however, that Gen. Thomas Marshall was shot in Lewis county, Ky., on Tuesday, by a man named Tyler one of his tenants. Hawthorne, the fiction writer, who wrote the Life of Gen. Pierce, when he was a candidate for President, has received the appointment of Consul at Liverpool, one of the most lucrative appointments in the gift of the President, being worth from thirty to forty thousand dollars a year. This is a good recompense for that production. The Political Guillotine, at Washington, already reeks with the blood of a thousand victims. Yet are not a tenth of the applicants supplied with places. There is no end to the number and the variety of the demands upon the appointing power. Among other petitions before the President is one from a waggish Freesoiler in the East, formerly a prominent Locofober, who has applied to Gen. Pierce for an appointment as agent to sell Uncle Tom's Cabin. CHURCH FOR THE DEAF AND DUMB.—Bishop Wainright and others have issued a circular, inviting donations to the amount of $30,000, for the erection of a church in New York city for the deaf and dumb. About one hundred such persons have been gathered into a congregation by the Rev. Thomas Gallaudet, who for five months past has preached to them on the Sabbath, in the University. A few of them have been organized into a church, under the sanction of the Provisional Bishop. THE LATE MRS. CASS.—The National Intelligence says of all the estimable ladies who have resided at the seat of government, with their husbands holding public stations, not one was more esteemed for goodness and sweetness than the amiable and gentle wife of Gen. Cass, or the memory of whose virtues will be more warmly and sincerely cherished by the survivors of the circle in which she was best known.

Death of Haynau.

Intelligence has been received from Vienna, Austria, of the death of General Haynau, famous for his alleged cruelties to the Hungarians in their late rebellion.—We copy the following sketch of him from the New York Mirror: "Julius Baron Von Haynau, field marshal in the Austrian service, was born at Cassel in 1876. He was a natural son of the Duke of Hesse by a goldsmith's daughter. In early life he was so notorious for his eccentricities, as to be considered on the verge of insanity. He was educated at Cassel, and entered the Austrian army as lieutenant in 1801. In the campaign of 1805 he distinguished himself so much as to be promoted to the rank of captain in one of the most notable regiments in the service. In 1813 he was elevated over his seniors to the rank of a major, and acquired new laurels in the campaigns of Italy during 1814-15 for his brilliant audacity and reckless bravery.—Little was heard of him during the peace which succeeded the downfall of Napoleon, until the revolutionary ferment of 1848.—In May, 1849, he was made commander-in-chief of the Austrian army in Hungary and Transylvania. He it was who led the Austrian army in that sanguinary conflict, which terminated in the utter defeat of the Hungarian cause. Georgey surrendered, and the disgraceful cruelties with which Haynau treated the captive Hungarians, both women and men, are fresh in every mind. Since his disgrace at the court of Vienna in 1850, he has spent his time in travelling over Europe. His visit to London, and the manner in which he was mobbed by the brewers of Barclay & Perkins' establishment, need not be repeated. Of late he has resided on his estate in Dalmatia. He died at Vienna, beneath the shadow of that despotic court which he served so faithfully in so mean a cause."

The Oath Administered to Vice President King.

Advice received at New York from Havana, dated March 29th, report that the oath of office was administered to Vice President King, on the 25th, at the estate of Ariadne. The ceremony was performed by Judge Sharkey, U. S. Consul at Havana, assisted by Hon. George W. Jones, U. S. Senator from Iowa, and in the presence of several American citizens. The party were entertained by M. Chautraud, the proprietor of the estate, with generous hospitality, and every facility was offered for the appropriate performance of the duty. The gentlemen present, twelve or fifteen in number, represent Mr. King to be in an exceedingly delicate state of health, and that he has not improved under the sugar-house treatment. Another account says Mr. King when sworn in was too feeble to stand without assistance, and was supported on the right by G. W. Jones, M. C., and on the left by T. M. Rodney, Esq., consul. The ceremony, although simple, was very sad and impressive, and will never be forgotten by any who were present. To see an old man, on the very verge of the grave, clothed with honors which he cared not for, and invested with authority which he could never exercise, was truly touching. It was only by persuasion that Mr. King would go through the ceremony, as he looked on it as an idle form, for he said he was conscious he could not live many weeks. After the ceremony was over, Mr. King conversed with the gentlemen present for a short time, and then retired to his couch.

THE NEW SILVER COIN.

—The first issue of silver coin under the late law of Congress was made on the 1st. The only difference is that the new issue has rays around the eagle and a spear head at each side of the date. The new coin makes a handsome appearance but is somewhat lighter than the old. All of the silver coins are now to be made of one purity—nine parts silver and one part alloy. The issue of three cent pieces now in circulation contains 75 parts silver and 25 parts alloy.

Creditors have better memories than debtors.

We have frequently heard the celebrated German Bitters, sold by Dr. C. M. Jackson, 120 Arch street Philadelphia, spoken of in terms of the highest commendation, and we honestly believe that it is one of the best medicines advertised for the complaints for which it is recommended. They are pleasant to the taste, and can be taken under any circumstances by the most delicate stomach. The press far and wide, have united in commending this invaluable remedy for dyspepsia, debility, &c.; and such are the healing effects of this panacea, that we hope it may be introduced into every family where dyspepsia has, or is likely to have, a victim.

NO. 19.

For the benefit of our readers who may be afflicted with Dyspepsia, we give below a remedy which has never been known to fail in effecting a complete and permanent cure. This remedy is Dr. J. W. Cooper's Vegetable Dyspepsia Bitters, prepared by C. P. Hewes, and may be had of T. Read & Son, Huntingdon, who is agent for the Proprietor.
