ing to qualify themselves for reaching, advantages equal to those enjoyed by the academical student in our colleges.

These Institutions are in the same village, though entirely separate, and some distance apart, thus affording to parents the opportunity of sending their sons and daughters together. Believing that the same principles sought to be carried out our common schools system, should, and will eventually, extend to the highest branches of a liberal education, the Principals and Trustees view what they have done only as the nucleus of further and more extended efforts, which, as they proceed, will enable them to afford to all classes, a liberal course of education, at an expense more commonsurate with the limited means of a large number of the youth of our State, who are ongaging in the proise-worthy endeavor to obtain an admention. And with this expectation, they consmend their Institutions to the patronage and kind assistance of all friends of a sound, liberal and general education.

The Late Fire in Jersey City.

Mr. Sidus C. Herring—Sir: It gives us much pleasure to state that a Safe of your make was the means of preserving our books and valuable pares, together with a lot of Silver Spoons, Eorks, &c., from destruction by the fire that occurred in our store on the night of the 27th ult., at No. 46. Montgomery st. The fire commenced near the Safe, which, owing to its situation on a wall, did not fall into the cellar, but was exposed to the full heat of the fire from its commencement, and when taken from the ruins had all the brase plates and knobe completely melted off.

Mr. John Furrel—Sir: It affords me much satisfaction to inform you that the "Herring Salamander Safe" which we purchased of you a short time sines, preserved our books and papers in good condition, during the severe ordeal through which it passed at the disastrous conflagration that took place at our warehouse on the morning of the 28th inst, when the safe was exposed to the most intense leat for some hours, and when dragged from the flames was red hot on several sides. We make this statement by way of bearing testimony to the worth of these valuable Fire Proofs. Very respectfully,

From the "Boston Bee."

The editor said, Dec. 22nd

Dr. Hoofdand's Celebrated German Bitters for the cure of Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, is deservedly one of the most popular medicines of the day. These Bitters have been used by thousands, and a friend at our elbow says he had himself received an effectual and permanent cure of Liver Complaint from the use of this remedy. We are convinced that, in the use of the fermanent cure of Liver Complaint gains strength and vigor—a fact worthy of great consideration. They are pleasant in tast and smell, and can be used by persons with the most delicate stomachs with safety, under any circumstances. We are speaking from experience, and to the afflicted we advise their use.

"Scott's Werkely" one of the best Literary papers published, said Ang. 25—

"Dr. HOOPLAND'S GEMMAS BITTERS, manufactured by Dr. Jackson, are now recommended by some of the most prominent members of the faculty as an article of much efficacy in cases of female weakness. As such is the case, we would advise all mothers to obtain a bortle, and thus save themselves much sickness. Persons of debilitated constitutions will find these Bitters advantageous to their health, as we know from experience the salutary effect they have upon weak systems."

CHOPLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.—We have seen many lattering notices of this medicine, and the source from which they came induced us to make inquiry respecting its merits. From inquiry we were persuaded to use it, and must say we found it specific in its getion upon diseases of the liver and digestive organs, and the powerful influence it exerts upon nervous prostration is really surprist fing. It calms and strengthens the nerves bringing them into a state of repose, making sleep refreshing e bringing them into a state of repose, making sleep retrieshing e "If this medicine was more generally used, we are satisfied there would be less sickness, as from the stomach, liver, and nervous system the great majority of real and imaginary diseases emanute. Have them in a healthy condition, and you can bid defiance to epidemies generally. This extra-ordinary medicine we would advise our friends who are at all indisposed, to give a rial—it will recommend itself. It should, in fact, be in every family. No other medicine can produce such evidences of merit.

recommend itself. It should, in mer, we merely family. No other medicine can produce such evidences of merit.

Evidences of merit.

Evidence upon evidence has been received (like the foregoing) from all sections of the Union, the also thray years, and the strongest restimony in its favor, is, that there is more of it used in the practice of the regular Physicians of Philadelphia, than all other nostrums combined, a fact that can easily be esablished, and fully proving that a scientific preparation will meet with their quite approval when presented even in this form.

That this Medicine will cure Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, no one can doubt after using it as directed. It acts specifically upon the stomach and liver; it is preferable to calomed in all billous discasse—the effect is immediate. They can be administered to female or infant with safety and reliable benefit at any time.
