

HUNTINGDON, PA. Wednesday Morning, May 4, 1853.

S. L. GLASGOW, Editor. WHIG STATE TICKET: FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER, Moses Pownall, of Lancaster county.

FOR SERVETOR GENERAL, Christian Myers, of Clarion county. FOR AUDITOR GENERAL, Alexander K. McClure, of Franklin co.

V. B. PALMER. Is our authorized agent in Philadelphia, New York and Boston, to receive advertisements; and any persons in those cities wishing to advertise in our columns, will please call on him.

Agents for the Journal. The following persons we have appointed Agents for the HUNTINGDON JOURNAL, who are authorized to receive and receipt for money paid on subscription, and to take the names of new subscribers at our published prices.

We do this for the convenience of our subscribers living at a distance from Huntingdon. JOHN W. THOMPSON, Esq., Hollidaysburg, SAMUEL COEN, East Butte.

The JOURNAL appears one day earlier than it usually has, for the reason that the next issue will be the enlarged sheet, and we have considered it prudent to dispose of the old edition this week, as soon as possible, in order to make room for the increased labor which will necessarily attend the first issue of the new and enlarged edition.

We forgot to call the attention of the public, in last week's paper, to the new advertisements of Messrs. Long & Decker, and Joseph H. Thompson. Those wanting good and handsome Stoves, and every thing else generally obtained at a Tin Shop, in order to save money, had better patronize Mr. Thompson's establishment.

The notice sent us a few weeks since, inviting proposals to erect a new Bridge over the Juniata River above Newton Hamilton, was mislaid immediately on its reception, and the subject entirely escaped our memory, until accidentally the other day our eye caught the original manuscript among other papers.

Col. Miller still continues at the Rail Road Hotel with an extensive patronage. It would be singularly strange, if a man with his habits of industry, and disposition to accommodate, could not obtain any amount of custom. See his advertisement in another column.

On the first page of this week's paper our readers will find the speech of Mr. Strong of Philadelphia on the sale of the Main Line of the Public Works. We ask them to give it a careful perusal, that what he says on the subject may be remembered. He shows first the plausibility of their sale at $15,000,000, and then exhibits very satisfactorily the advantage to be derived therefrom.

Col. R. F. Haslett, of the Keystone Hotel, at Spruce Creek, has taken charge of the Columbia House, Philadelphia. The Col. is a clever man, and possesses all the requisites for a successful landlord. He has hosts of warm friends in this section of the country who were sorry to part with him. We have no doubt they will remember him where he now is. He took possession on Monday last.

We understand that Gen. Ayres, a few evenings since, gave the Engineer Corps employed on the Broadtop Railroad, an Oyster Supper served up by Mrs. Hampson. We were not present ourselves but learn it was a grand affair.

J. S. Barr, Esq., has been elected an Honorary member of the Union Literary Society of Cassville Seminary. This gentleman is now canvassing the upper end of the County, as Agent for the Huntingdon Journal.

Candidate for Governor.

We see the name of Col. A. G. Curtin, of Centre county, mentioned in connection with the next Whig gubernatorial nomination. The Colonel is one of the ablest men in our ranks, and would certainly fill the position of Chief Magistrate with great credit and ability.

The Legislative Entertainment.

It is remembered, we presume, that several weeks before the adjournment of our Legislature, the members passed a resolution inviting the Governor and Legislature of Maryland to pay them a visit.

In relation to the incidental expenses of this grand exhibition, the State Journal, published at Harrisburg, has the following: "Mr. GOWEN's bill for the entertainment of the Legislature and their distinguished guests" from Maryland, amounted to the very moderate sum of four thousand two hundred dollars!

The Party Lash.

We noticed the other day the manner in which our neighbor of the Pennsylvania cracks the party lash about the head of the refractory spirits who are disposed not to submit to all the behests of Buchanan, Campbell, Bigler, Hughes & Co.

Col. Miller still continues at the Rail Road Hotel with an extensive patronage. It would be singularly strange, if a man with his habits of industry, and disposition to accommodate, could not obtain any amount of custom. See his advertisement in another column.

Mr. Brawley's Distinguished Abilities.

A Locofoco paper, with a reckless disregard of truth characteristic of the organs of that party, says it is "admitted by the Whig press of Harrisburg," that Mr. BRAWLEY "has always discharged the duties of his office with distinguished ability."

Col. S. Wharton.

We copy the following from the Whig State Journal, published at Harrisburg: "The Whigs of Huntingdon county have always been fortunate in the selection of legislators. Their representative in the last House of Representatives, Col. S. S. Wharton, discharged his duties with a fidelity and ability which won him the respect and confidence of his fellow members of all parties.

The Teachers' Institute of Huntingdon County.

The first annual meeting of this body was held, April 21st, in the School-room of Mr. J. A. Hall, in this place, and in the absence of Mr. Campbell, the presiding officer, was organized by the appointment of J. S. Barr, President pro tem.

PROCEEDINGS.

Reading of the report of the Executive Committee, which on motion, was laid on the table until the last session of the Institute. Different modes of teaching the Alphabet discussed by Baker, Brown, Barr, Babcock, Atherton, C. T. Benedict, E. Fisher, Ewing, Hall, McDivitt, &c.

MORNING SESSION, FRIDAY 22ND.

Prayer by Rev. R. Pierce. Subject of text books introduced and discussed by most of the members. A variety of opinion seemed to exist on this topic, but it was generally conceded that the diversity of text books, and not their defects, is the principal evil in this department, and that the uniform use of any one book or series in the different branches, would secure the desired result.

AFTERNOON SESSION.
