A Paper for Your Family.

THE HOME JOURNAL. Published Weekly.—$2 Per Annum.

In consequence of the great and continually increasing demand for this elegantly-printed, widely-circulated and universally popular Family Nowspaper, we have, heretofore, been unable to farmish the back numbers to only a very limited extent. To avoid this disappointment in fature, we shall, on the first of July next, print such an increased edition as will enable us to supply new subscriber from that date. Besides the original productions of the editors—the Foreign and Domestic Correspondence of a large list of contributors—the spice of the European Magazines—the selections of the most interesting publications of the day—the brief novels—the plugant stories—the selections of the man amusing anecdote—the news and gossip of the Parisian papers—the personal sketches of public characters—the stirring scenes of the world we live in—the chronicle of the news for ladige—the fashions and fashionable gossip—the facts and outlines of news—the pick of English information—the wit, humor and paths of the day—and morals, and the usual variety of careful thoosings from the wilderdess of English periodical literature, criticism, poetry, etc.—several new and attractive features of remarkable interest will enrich and give value to the work.

Trans.—For one copy, $2; for the copies, $5; or one copy for three years, $5—always in advance. Subscribe without delay. Address MORRIS & WILLIS. Published Weekly .- $2 Per Annum.

how severe or of how long standing.

MANY PROMINENT PHYSICIANS in the city of New York and other places, finding them selves without a remedy in inveterate cases of the above complaints, and having due regard for the welfare of their patients, have recommended the use of this medicine; and, after witnessing its salutary effects are now manifesting their approbation, not only by resorting to it in their treatment of all the diseases for which it is intended, but in some instances accepting the agency of it to facilitate its introduction into more general use by the Faculty.

The influence of this composition upon the female constitution is of the most friendly kind; the most delicate and feeble female need have no tear in its use for any length of time, for it contain any mercury, nor any article which can plove in any way injurious, being made entirely of vegetable extracts, and prepared to taste like a pleasant cordial.

The modus operandi of this remedy, in the cure of this class of diseases, is through the general economy of the system, with the peculiar determination to the female organs.
