Scenes of the Past.

O, ye scenes of the past, you are ever in my view!
O could I call you back, I would freely do it! but you are past, you have fled away!
I can well remember the time
When care and trouble were not mine,
When all was joy and happiness
I dreamed of nothing but of peace;
But alas how soon our hopes are blasted,
And we to the cares of the world are roved.
I once enjoyed the sunshine of days
But alas how short was its stay,
It has passed away like a flower
When night by the fogs of winter
O that my summer joys were once more,
The winter of my sorrows were o'er.
Then my heart would greatly rejoice,
In perfect love, and joy and peace;
Then when the birds would sing their song,
My heart would join the happy throng,
O that my summer joy were come once more,
And the winter of my troubles were o'er.
Then I could enjoy the flowers
Which grow in amaranthine bowers;
O why do I languish and mourn;
O why do my winters so long!
O that these clouds were banished from my eyes!
That I might see the beauties of the skies!

Central Route to the Pacific.

Col. Benton has been making speeches at Kansas, Westport and Independence, Missouri, on the subject of the great central route to California. The people on the frontier are very enthusiastic on the subject. Superintendent Beale, Harris, Heape, and their company left Kansas on the 11th. Elisha Riggs, of the firm of Corcoran & Riggs, and his young brother William Henry, and H. Rodgers, Esq., member of the bar of Washington city, and son of the late Gen. Rodgers, left St. Louis on the night of the 10th for Kansas, to join Superintendent Beale in his new route. As the Superintendent would have left Kansas when these gentlemen arrived there, they would take a light carriage, drawn by six Mexican mules, and run fifty miles a day until they overtook him. These gentlemen have no government employments, but as amateur explorers, to see the grand features of their own country, and to form their own opinions of the practicability of one of the noblest works which the mind of man ever conceived. Mr. Richard H. Kern, St. Paul, and the rest of the expedition organized by Gen. Davis, Secretary of War, were to reach St. Louis on the 15th, on the way to the frontier to fit out the government surveying party for the same route. Kern and St. Paul were comrades of Fremont in his winter expedition, where he and his party came near being lost in the mountain snows. Col. Fremont himself will not be able to return from London in season to join any of the government surveying parties, but it is said he will be at home in time to make a winter expedition, and prove the practicability of his cherished central route in winter as well as in summer.

LARGE EGGS.—Mr. Jacob Frey, of West King Street, brought to our office on Wednesday last, the largest eggs he has ever seen. They weighed 4 ounces, 1 drachm and 40 grains, and measured 8 1/2 inches longwise, and 6 1/2 around the centre. It can be seen at his residence. It weighs nearly an ounce more than the egg recently mentioned in the Reading papers, and measures more in every direction. It certainly something to brag of.—Lancaster Whig.

$500 CHALLENGE!

Hobensack's Worm Syrup.

An article founded upon Scientific Principles, compounded with purely vegetable substances, being perfectly safe when taken, and has never been known to fail in curing the most obstinate case. Worms can never exist when this remedy is used, unless from the fact that it only destroys them but removes all the slime and mucus which they may retain.

The Tape Worm.

This worm is the most difficult one to destroy of all that inhabit the human body. It grows to an almost indefinite length, and becoming so coiled and fastened in the intestines and stomach as to produce a "St. Vitus' Dance," and other diseases. I recommend the use of my Worm Syrup, and Liver Pills; the Syrup to be taken in doses of two table-spoonfuls three times a day, then take the pills, and repeat the course.

Round or Stomach Worm.

This worm is usually found in the small intestine, and is the most common to children, yet it is not infrequently found in the adult. It has frequently been known to suffer with them. The symptoms most prominent with affected with them, are hardness and fullness of the belly, slimy stools, looseness of the bowels, picking at the nose, and itching under the eyes, &c.

Ascariæ, or Small Thread Worm.

These worms, to which the human system is liable, are the most troublesome of all others. They are generally to be found in the rectum, and if allowed to remain, from the irritation they produce, lay the foundation for serious disorders, such as indigestion, biliousness, and other derangements of the stomach. The best and safest medicine that can be used is Hobensack's Worm Syrup. Such is the astonishing power of my medicines over Ascariæ, that I defy any one to produce a case which my Syrup and Liver Pills are not recommended to be used they will not cure. All that is necessary is to use the Syrup in accordance with directions on each bottle, and in case a gentle purgative is required, order the Liver Pills, and repeat the course.

Hobensack's Liver Pills.

No part of the system is more liable to disease than the Liver, it being supplied with numerous blood vessels, and nerves, and it is the source of blood of course flowing through all parts of the body produces Liver Complaints, Jaundice, Bilious Affections, Dyspepsia, &c., &c.

Liver Complaint.

Attended with chills, succeeded by fever, severe pains in the region of the Liver, vomiting, bitter taste, yellow turned tongue, pulse full and bounding, the pain in the side is increased by pressure, should the left lobe be affected, the pain is generally in the left shoulder, with a short, dry cough, the skin becoming of a sallow appearance, the face yellow, and the eyes red, &c.

Dyspepsia.

The symptoms of Dyspepsia, and its various diseases are, heartburn, indigestion, oppression after eating meals, sourness arising from the stomach, &c., and sometimes general languor of the whole body, from this it will be seen that the disease owes its origin to a disorganized state of the Liver. Hobensack's Liver Pills is the very medicine to effect a permanent and lasting cure, as they act by changing the certain morbid actions of the system into a healthy action, and rendering the blood pure and healthy.

To Females.

You will find these Pills an invaluable medicine in many complaints to which you are subject. In obstructions either total or partial, they have been found of inestimable benefit in restoring and purifying the blood and other fluids, and to cure all complaints which arise from female irregularities, as headache, dimness of sight, pain in the side, back, &c. These Pills are the only safe and effectual remedy to cure the following complaints: Giddiness, Nervousness, Melancholy, Sick Headache, Giddiness, Rheumatism, distressing Dreams, Dimness of Sight, or in fact any of the diseases that arise from the affections of the Liver, impurity of the blood, or Constipation of the bowels.

Medical Evidence.

We, the undersigned Physicians, having had the receipt of their manufacture submitted to us for inspection; say, that the ingredients of which they are composed makes them the best Pill in use for all diseases of the Liver, Impurities of the Blood, &c.

"MAN KNOW THYSELF."

An Invaluable Book for 25 cents.

"EVERY FAMILY SHOULD HAVE A COPY."

SIX Thousand Copies sold in less than three months. A new edition, revised and improved, just issued.

Dr. Huxley's Medical manual and hand book for the afflicted—Containing an outline of the origin, progress, treatment and Cure of every form of disease, contracted by promiscuous sexual intercourse, by self-abuse, or by sexual excess, with advice for their prevention, written in a familiar style, avoiding all medical technicalities, and everything that would offend the ear of decency, from the result of 20 years' successful practice, exclusively devoted to the cure of diseases of a delicate or private nature.

To which is added, receipts for the cure of the above diseases, and a treatise on the cause, symptoms and cure for the Fever and Ague, for 25 cents a copy six copies for $1; will be forwarded to any part of the United States, free of postage.—Address postmaster, Camden & Co., Publishers, or "Box 195, Post Office, Philadelphia."

"This is without exception, the most comprehensive and intelligible work published on the subject of venereal diseases, and its treatment. Avoiding all technical terms, it addresses itself to the reader, and is free from all objectionable matter, and no parent, however fastidious, can object to placing it in the hands of his sons. The author has devoted many years to the treatment of the various complaints treated of, and with too little leisure to puff, and 'too little presumption to impose,' he has offered to the world at the merely nominal price of 25 cents, the fruits of some twenty years' successful practice."

No teacher or parent should be without the knowledge imparted in this invaluable work; it would save years of pain, mort
