The most extraordinary discovery in the World is the Great Arabian Remedy for Man and Beast.

CELEBRATED ARABIAN LINIMENT.

CELEBRATED ARABIAN LINIMENT.

H. G. FARRELL'S GENUINE ARABIAN
LINIMENT is a most extraordinary medicine,
the truth of which is placed beyond doubt by the vast sales of the article and the many cures being daily performed by it, which previously had resisted all other medicines and the skill of the best physicians in the world. It is composed of balsams, extracts and gums peculiar to Arabia—possessing, in a concentrated form, all their stimulating, anodyne, penetrating, unetuous and revulsive properties, and the same which, ages ago, were used by the "Sons of the Desert," with such miraculous success, in curing the diseases of both man and beast.

Read the following remarkable cure, which should of itself place H. G. Farrell's Arabian Liniment far beyond any similar remedy. The triumphant success of the great Arabian remedy for man and beast,

H. G. FARRELL'S CELEBRATED ARABIAN LINIMENT,

H. G. FARRELL'S

CELEBRATED ARBHAN LINIMENT,
Is causing counterfeits to spring up all over the country, spreading their baneful influence over the laud, robbing the pockets of the honest and unsuspecting, by imposing upon them worthless and poisonous trash, for the genuine H. G. Farrell's Arabian Liniment. Fellow Citizens! Look well before you buy, and see that the label of the bottle has the leiters H. Gr. before Farrell's, for if it has not, it is counterfeit. The label around each bottle of the genuine Liniment reads thus, "H. G. Farrell's Celobrated Arabian Liniment;" and the signature of the proprietor, is written upon the glass bottle, "H. G. Farrell's Arabian Liniment, Peorin."

The daring boldness of the recreant who would deceive the people by imposing upon them worthless trash, for a really genuine medicine, thus not only cheating them out of their money, but that which is far dearce—their health—ought to be beld up in scorn, and receive the contempt his dastardly sprift merits. Let every one who regards his own health, and wishes truth and honesty to triumph over deception and rascallily, put his heel on all base impositions, and uphold that which is just and vight. The genuine H. G. Farrell's Arabian Liniment has proved itself to be the most remarkable medicine known for the cure of rheumatism, neuralgia, pains, wherever located, sprains, bruises, hardened lumps, burns, wounds corns, chronic sore and weak eyes, lame back, etc. etc.; and sin an effectual remedy for horses, and cattle in the cure of sweeny, distemper, lameness, dry shoulder, splint, wounds, etc., etc. and will always stop the further progress of poll-evil, fistala, ringbone, and blood spavin, if used in the beginng.

Look out for Counterfeits!

We shall publish in December, the LIFE OF HORACE GREELEY,

BY J. PARTON.

Duodecimo, 500 pp. Illustrated. Price $1,25.

MEITHER with the conception nor the composition of this book, has Mr. Greeley had anything to do. The author says in his preface: "I undertook the task, simply because I liked the man—because I had taken an interest in his career—because I thought to be told." It is further stated in the preface, (and the publishers believe, with perfect truth), that "nothing has been told or suppressed for the sake of making out a case." "The book," says the author, "is as true as I could make it."

In the preparation of this work, author visi-cracking of his relatives, school-fellows, fellows apprentices, fellow journeymen and others.

As a leading object of the work was to show how Horacce Green even to be the man he is, the history is given of the origin of his opinions, political and religious, and as complete an account as possible of the wonderful development of his mind in untoward circumstances, and with the utmost restricted means. Mr. Greeley's arrival in New York and his early residence here are circumstantially marrated. His first lift in life occupied in connection with the establishment of the first cheap daily pay, and the author he seized the opportunity to give, for the first time, a history of the idea, and of its origination. The subsequent chapters present, in more or less of detail. Hocace Greely as an Editor, Poet, Author, and Public Speaker—Horace Greely in Congress, Abrond, in his Sanctum, in Broadway, at Church, at Home, on his farm, etc. One chapter contains a collection of his best Editorial Repartees another, of his best Paracieal Suggestions; an other describes the Routine of the Daily Press, and here of the paying the properties of the publishers believe that the In a word, the publishers believe that the as to character, responsibility, &c.

this name, though not two years have yet clapsed since the appearance of her first book, are already familiar wherever the English language is read. Heretofore she has given the world nothing but fugitive pieces, and her unparalleled success has been achieved in this,
the most difficult field of authorship. The work now announced is her first continuous tale, and affords full scope to her extraordinary powers. The story is one of intense intoest, which enlist the sympathy of every American, and may exert an important influence in a reform which has no enemies. It is, we believe, destined to make a sensation.

Brought Home to the Door of the Million.

A WONDERFUL DISCOVERY has recently been made by Dr. Cartis, of this city, in the treatment of Consumption, Asthma and all diseases of the Lung. We refer to "Dr. Cartis, Vigeans, or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup." With this new method Dr. C. has restored many afflicted ones to perfect health; as an evidence of which he has innumerable certificates. Speaking of the treatment, a physician remarks: It is evident that inhaling—containty breathing an agreeable, healing vapor, the melicinal properties must come in direct contact with the whole of the arial cavity of the lungs, and thus escape the many and varied changes produced upon them when introduced into the stomach, and subjected to the process of digestion. The Hygeans is for sale at all the lraggists' throughout the country.
