Reader, I peddled over a thousand bottles of his in the vicinity of Boston. I knew the effect if tin every case. So sure will this cure humor. I never old a hottle of it but that sold another; after a rial it always speaks for itself. There are two hings shout this herb that appear to me surprising a first that it grows in our pastures, in some clackes quite pentiful, and yet its value has never laces quite pentiful; and yet its value has never laces quite pentiful; and yet its value has never laces quite pentiful; and yet its value duel nise. In order to give some idea of the sudden rise and great popularity of the discovery. I will tate that in April, 1853, I peddled it and sold about six bottles per day—in April, 1854, I sold were one thousand per day offit.

In my own practice I always kept itstrictly for humors—but since its introduction as a general family needicine, great and wonderful virtues have been found in it that I never suspected.

Several cases of opileptic fits—a disease which was always considered incurable, have been curred by a few bottles. O, what a mercy if it will prove effectual in all cases of that dreadful malady—there are but few who have more of it than I have.

I know of several cases of Dropsy, all of whom aged people cured by it. For the various diseases of the Liver, Sivk Hendache, Dysspesia, Asthma, Fever and Ague, Pain in the Side, Discases of the Spine, and particularly in diseases of the Kidneys, &c., the discovery has done more good than any medicine ever known.

No change of diet ever necessary—eat the best you can get and enough of it.
