NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—See Auditor's no-tice by John Reed, Esq.—Notice by John S. Leet, Esq.—A cure for the Juniata shakes. BROKEN LEG.—A horse belonging to Mr. Sam. Shoemaker of this borough, on Thursday last had his leg broken by falling among some rocks, near the Huntingdon Dam. Cow KULED.—A very valuable cow belong-ing to a citizen of this place, was run over and killed by the westward train of cars, on last Sabbath, immediately above town.

Rifed by the westward train of cars, on last Sabbath, immediately above town. HIGH WATER.—The heavy rains which visit ed this place during the past week, have raised the rater in the river considerably. The Juni-ata is in excellent condition for rafting. GOING UP.—The foundation for the new church edifice, which the Methodist Congrega-tion of this place are creeting, is going up ve-ry rapidly. Mr. Reuben Romig is the contrac-tor.

A Rior.—A riot occurred on Allegheny st-on Saturday last, between a party of Irish la-borers on the Broad Top Railroad, and a por-tion of our "cullud" population. Several of the Irish were injured ; the Africans coming the Irish were injured ; the Africans coming off victorious. School FURNITER.—The new school room, intended for the male department of the pub-lie school of the borough, has been fitted up in handsome style. The desks, chairs, &c., were purchased at Harrisburg, and cost something like two hundred dollars. The Wirsh on Saturday last done consider-able damage, we are informed, to the grain in the northern part of our county. In some of the fields, where grain was numsually thick, it prostrated it entirely. One or two of our Wood-cock Valley farmers are also sufferers. Sourp Paaven.—Just before the late show-

SOUND PRAYER.—Just before the late show-ers, an old negro who doson't live "fir about here," was setting on his fence; just before the precious rain began to fall, he litted his large black hands and white eyes to heaver, and said: "Oh, Lod I sen all do big drops on dis nigger's corn and tater patch." This Basin,—The basin of the Broad Top Pailroad, intended for the loading of boats, is being rapidly completed. In digging, the workmen came acress several vats, in one of which, two or three sides of leather were found. The basin will extend from Portstown, till near Montgomery street.
