COSMOPOLITAN ART ASSOCIATION.

SECOND YEAR.

ARRANGEMENTS for the Second Annual

Collection of this new and popular Institution for the diffusion of Literature and Art, have been made on the most extensive scale.

Among the works already engaged, is the far-famed "GENEO LARGOPIX," which originally cost Ten Thousand Dollars, and which is now being re-issued in a new and improved form.

In forming this new collection, the diffusion of works of American Art, and the encouragement of American genius have not been overlooked. Commissions have been issued to many of the most distinguished American Artists, who will contribute some of their finest productions. Among them are three Marble Busts, executed by the greatest living Sculptor—Hiram Powers; GEORGE WASHINGTON, the Father of his Country; BENJAMIN FRANKLIN, the Philosopher; DANIEL WEBSTER, the Statesman. A special agent has visited Europe and made careful and judicious selections of foreign works of Art, both in Bronze and Marble; Statuary and Choice Paintings.

The whole forming a large and valuable collection of Paintings and Statuary, to be distributed free among the members of the Association for the Second Year.

Terms of Membership.—The payment of three dollars constitutes any one a member of this Association, and entitles him to either one of the following Magazines for one year, and also a ticket in the distribution of the Statuary and Paintings.

The Literature issued to subscribers consists of the following Monthly Magazines: Harper's Putnam's, Knickerbocker, Blackwood's, Graham's, Godey's Lady's Book, and Household Words.

Persons taking five memberships are entitled to any five of the Magazines for one year, and to six tickets in the distribution.

The net proceeds derived from the sale of memberships, are devoted to the purchase of works of Art for the ensuing year.

The Advantages Secured—by becoming a member of this Association, are—

1st All persons receive the full value of their subscriptions at the start, in the shape of sterling Magazines.

2d Each member is contributing towards purchasing choice Works of Art, which are to be distributed among themselves, and are at the same time encouraging the arts of the country, by purchasing thousands of dollars through its Agency.

Persons in remitting funds for membership, will please give their post office address in full, stating the month they will the Magazine to commence, and the name of the person to whom they prefer to prevent loss, on the receipt of which, a certificate of membership, together with the Magazine desired, will be forwarded to any part of the country.

Those who purchase Magazines at Bookstores will observe that by joining this Association, they receive the Magazine and free ticket in the annual distribution, all at the same price they would pay for the Magazine and free ticket in the ordinary Catalogues, giving full descriptions, sent free on application.

For Membership address C. L. DERBY, Actuary C. A. A. At either of the principal offices, "Knickerbocker Magazine" office, 348 Broadway, N. Y., or Western Office, 160 Water Street, Sandusky, O. Oct. 14, 1855-67.

VALUABLE FARM & MILL.

PUBLIC OR PRIVATE SALE.

The undersigned will offer at public sale on Wednesday, the 12th day of December next, on the premises, all that valuable farm situate on James Creek at its junction with the Raystown Branch of the Juniata River, one mile and a half from the "Washington" depot of the Broad Top Railroad, and twelve miles from Huntingdon—containing about 225 acres, having three new three story stone and frame Grist Mill, with four run of burrs, and all the modern improvements, such as Prof. De Grath's bills; and the late residence of the late James Kintner, Esq., a large bank barn, a two story brick dwelling house for Mill—two log tenant houses and other improvements. The above mentioned farm is cleared, and acres of it being first rate river bottom. This Mill is situated in one of the best wheat growing neighborhoods in the State. A good level road to the Railroad. The situation a good one for a store, and the farm would suit for building.

The owners will sell at private sale, and will offer at public sale as above, if not sooner sold. The money is not wanted soon, and terms will be made easy. Payments extended to any reasonable number of years, at 6 per cent, or the whole, to suit purchasers, if properly secured. Terms will be published on day of sale. Possession will be given on first of January or first of April.
