This re-ward will be paid more sepscially for informa-tion as to the destroyer of our bills at the Pann-sylvania Railroad Station Honse. "Wo unto you, Lawyers." The New York Herathi insists that this coun-try shall no longere be governed by lawyers. It protests against electing a lawyer for President next time. That means, of course, hurrah for Georgo Law. If the Herald can prevail, the lawyers are now to be proscribed, and made to take back seats. How will the scribes and Pharasees like it.

Pharasees like it. The Liquor Lace—The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania decided at Pittsburg on Saturday that the Sunday Liquor Law of 1851 was re-pealed by the law of 1855. The law of 1851, according to the Supreme Court, is a local one and that of 1855, a general one.
