Dowagine, Mich., March 11, 1852.

J. A. Rhodes, Esq.: Dear Sir—As I took your medicine to sell on consignment, "no care no pay." I take pleasure it sating it seefers as reproduced in the place, and their testimony is a fair specimen of all I have received:

W. S. Conklin told me—'Y had taken nine bettles of Christie's Ague Balsam, and continually run down while using it until my langs and liver were Congested to that degree that blood discharged from my mouth and bowels, so that all thought it impossible for me to live through another chill. The doctors too did all they could discharged from my mouth and bowels, so that all thought it impossible for me to live through another chill.
