Humorous Poetry. AGUE.

Ague I thou most contemptible of all diseases That flesh is heir to, thy base action freezes, Our very blood is marrow, racks the bones, Till anguished nature yields thee tribute groans. Thou makes thrave me e fee like cowards shake, And heads with intellectual bumps to ache, Subdued the light of softly brilliant vers, And feasteth on th' unnatural sacrifice. Thy torturing malice sparse not e'en the ladies, Nor youth, nor innocence—torture thy traders. On young, fresh bloom thou banquet, till it turn First pale, then yellow, parched and shrivelled __burn Each latent spark of health, and worse, much

Each latent spark of health, and worse, Kenders existence here a morbid curse, Yet, thou art most contemptible ! Thy skill, Could never one poor shuddering victim kill. Death, when defeated, leaves thee on the track, A sneaking blood-bound spy, to trail him back; A kind of whipper-in at misery's game, The keen sportman's drugge or much the same. Like the foul slanderer, your base attacks Secure and asfely urge behind men's backs, Till rank pollution spreads a withering blight, This origin, from gathered dregs of evil-Thy mask, the pensioned agent of the devil-Thy mask, norrid swearing to provoke-Fresh bait for sinners, pious saints to choke. Thous courge, of patience, suffering patients scourge, Thou scourge of patience, suffering patients scourge, At once frost, fever, sweat, emetic, purge ! Oh ! for some potent charm or potent spell To send thee back where kindred demons dwell's No more I'li scout thee. This fine, sumy day, Invites enjoyment. To the fields away ! Let's walk, ride, dance, or sing a merry song— Tush for the ague ! Who cares ? Come along! The chilly air somewhat my frame benumbs— Save us, Ol Quinine! Here the monster comes!

The chily air somewhat my frame benumbs are the three we see as considered to measure the some surgers in a some plane of the source of the sou

GREATEST MEDICAL DISCO WOODWARDS VERY OF THE AGE. Dr. Kennedy, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common pasture weads a remedy that cures EVERY KIND OF NUMOR, the worst scrofula down to a common pimple

He has tried it in over 1100 cases, and never iled except in two cases. (both tl under humor.) nailed except in two cases, (both thinder humor.) rorst case of lingworm. Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the lost desperate case of rheumatism. Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheam. Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula. A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken. Reader, I peddled over a thousand bottles of this in thevicinity of Boston. I knew the effect of it in avery case. So sure as water will estim-guish fire, so sure will this cure humor. I never sold a bottle of it but that sold another; a fire a trial it always speaks for itself. There are two things about this herb that appear to me surpri-sing; first that it grows in our pastures, in some places noise planting of the discovery. I will start that it grows the discovery. I will start that in April, 1853, I peddled it and sold about its bottles per day—in April, 1854, I sold over one thousand per day of it. Some of the wholesale Druggiets who have been in business twenty and thirty years, say that nothing in the annals of patent medicines was ever like it. There is a universal praise of it from all quarters. I may own practice I always kept it strictly for humors—busines in the induction in it in that I aprice suppected.
