The semi-annual Exhibition will take place on the 1st Wednesday of April. An address will be delivered before the societies in the fore part of the day. The exhibition will come off in the evening, the examinations the week previous. These exercises the friends of education are respectfully invited to attend. The next session will open the 1st Wednesday of May. This stirution holds out peculiar inducements to young men-seeking an education. The Board of Instructors is composed of pentlemen of high literary attainments and skilled in their professions. The location is very healthy, having the pure mountain air and free from all noxious vapors arising from stagmant water and marshy ground. Those subject to ague could not find a more desirable pace. The tempetations to vice, biteness, and dissipation are lew. There is nothing to draw the mind of the student from his books, no liquor is allowed to be sold in the place or nearer than M. Union. 17 miles off. Price just such a situation as a young man desirous of improvement would seek.
