The American Council of the State of Pennsylvania has appointed Ex- Breckenridge, of Kentucky. Governor Wm, F. Johnston of Pittsburg, and John Williamson, E-q., of Hunting-the vote by States:

I say Ling Goldschmid.—Private letters received here from London, speak of demy Goldschmidt's success there as fully equal to former triumphs. He charities have been as sual, most noble; matrimony has chastened her caprices; English air and diet have reestablished her health, and her boy is the image of his mother.

Chary as a Benure!—In New York Computoller Flagg has refused to receive $2000 addition to his salary which had been voted by the Councis. Such stern integrity argues that Mr. Flagg is rich enough or honest beyond all previous Democrats we ever read of.

The Cincinnati Convention.

Hon. James Buchanan has been nominated by this Convention as the Democraand confusion, &c. We condense the pro- manner:

the hour of adjournment. Yesterday morning the Convention reassembled at 10 o'clock. Col. Stevenson of Ky., presented the report of the majority of the Committee on Credentials, to the effect that the Softs of New York be allowed 44 delegates and the Hards 26. Senator Bayard of Delaware, made a minority report in favor of placing the rival delegations on an equal footing. After a long discussion, the report of the majority was rejected, and that of the minority accepted. The Convention then adjourned until 2 P. M. On the Convention reassembling in the afternoon the first ballot was taken, resulting: Bu chanan, 185; Pierce, 124; Douglass, 31 Cass. 5. The balloting continued as far as the 14th ballot—the vote for Buchanan and Douglass steadily increasing, and that for 4 i-ree as steadily falling off. On the James Buchanan is the Democra- 14th ballot, the vote stood : Buchanan, 5½. The Convention then, at 5 P. M.,

On the 15th ballot, Buchanan and Douglass distanced all competitors, and the name of President Pierce was withdrawn. On the 17th ballot, Buchanan received reply-196 vites, and the nomination was then declared unanimous John C. Breckenridge, At a of Kentucky, was chosen as a candidate for the Vice Presidency, on the second ballot. The Democratic National ticket of Blair county, was elected President, for the next campaign, therefore stands-For President, James Buchanan, of Pennsylvania; for Vice President, John C

BUCHANAN AN ORIGINAL K. N.

The following choice passage has been discovered among the earlier writings of Hon. James Buchanan It occurs in an oration delivered by him in Lancaster, Pu. It seems to show him to have been a K. N. f more than forty years standing:

"Above all we ought to drive from our shores foreign influence, and cherish American feeling. Foreign influence has been every age the curse of Republics-its jaundiced eye sees everything in false colors—the thick atmosphere of prejudice by which it is ever surrounded, excluding its sight the light of reason. Let us a learn wisdom from experience, and forever BANISH THIS FIEND from our

Why does not Fillmore Come Home ? The above is a question which we have often heard asked, without any satisfactory answer to it. We are now able to solve it on high authority. There are at this time at least one hundred American Councils in the Free States, awaiting to to propound the following queries to him:

Are you for or against the destruction of the Missouri Compromise ? Are you for or against the establishment of Slavery in Kansas?

Are you for or against the admission of Slavery north of 36° 30' ? Are you for or against the murders.

rapes, robberies and house-burnings, committed by the border ruffians of Missouri, in Kansas?

Mr. Fillmore, having pledged himself to the slave power, wishes to avoid these interrogatories on the part of the Free laborers—therefore he comes not home.
