PIERCE'S LAST SONG.

At a—Donoster Burache sich' ich aus.
"Broke down I degraded" that's the talk.
Farwell thou White House—Must walk!

OLD DOG TRAY—IMPROVED.

They took a pair of shears
And closely cropped his ears.
He howled as though he thought The devil was to pay;

NIGGER DUEL.

A duel between two dukes—a regular built affair, conducted according to the most strict and punctilious provisions of the code of honor—came off one morning last week.

After having taken their stands, one of the seconds noticed that owing to their positions, the sunbeams set his principal a winking and rolling his eyes.

"Wh, wh, look here: didn't we chuck up a dollar, for de choice ob ground? and didn't I get him myself?" "Yes, I knows you did; but den far play's a juba, and I see no notion ob cecin' my friend composed upon, and lose all de advantage."

"Nigga, I see no notion too: I see jus as good right to hab no notion as you has, and I 'stets in settlin' de matter jus as we is—ned!" At this junction a friendly cloud settled the matter at once, by stepping in between the sun and the belligerents.

five thousand dollars, has been ordered for

A HUMAN LIFE SAVED.
Dowagiac, Mich., March 11, 1856.

J. A. Rhodes, Esq.: Dear Sir—As I took your medicine to sell on commission, "no cure no pay." I take pleasure in stating its effects as reported to me by three brothers who live in this place, and their testimony is a fair specimen of all I have received.

W. S. Conklin told me—"I had taken nine bottles of Christy's Aque Balsam, and continually ran down while using it until my lungs and liver were Congested to that degree that blood discharged from my mouth and bowels, so that all thought it impossible for me to live through another chill. The doctors told me that they could do for me, but thought I must die. Nothing did me good until I got Rhodes' Fever and Aque Cure, which at once relieved me of the distress and nausea at my stomach and pain in my head and bowels, and produced a permanent cure in a few days."

H. M. Conklin says: "I had taken medicine of as good a doctor as we have in our country, and taken any quantity of quinine and specifics without any good results from either. I was suffering from a fever, and had been so long operated on by my brother, I got a bottle of Rhodes' Fever and Aque Cure, which effected a permanent cure by using two thirds of a bottle."

S. M. Conklin was not here, but both other brothers say his case was the same as H. M.'s.
The medicine to both the same day, and the cure was as speedy from the same small quantity, and I might so specify. Yours with respect,

A. HUNTINGTON.
I never saw a bottle of it but that sold another after a trial it always speaks for itself. There are two things about this herb that appear to me surprising: first it grows in our pastures in some places quite plentiful and yet its value has never been known until I discovered it in 1846—second that it should cure all kinds of humors.

In order to give some idea of the sudden rise and great popularity of the discovery, I will state that in April, 1853, I peddled it and sold about six bottles per day—in April, 1854, I sold over one thousand per day of it.

There are several other industrious people who are applying to their poisonous trash all that I publish about my Fever and Aque Cure, or Antidotum to Malaria, except the Certificates of cures and the Certificate of the Celebrated Chemist, Dr. James R. Chilton, of N. Y. in favor of its perfectly harmless character, which is attached to every bottle. These will always serve to distinguish my medicine from imitations. For sale by John Read, Huntingdon, and Druggists generally.

MEDICAL ADVERTISEMENTS.

Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.
Dr. Kennedy, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures

EVERY KIND OF HUMOR, from the worst scrofula down to a common pimple.

He has tried it in over 1100 cases, and never failed except in two cases. (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred Certificates of its virtue, all within twenty miles of Boston.

A benefit it always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

Several cases of epileptic fits—a disease which was always considered incurable, have been cured by a few bottles. O, what a mercy it will prove to the afflicted in all cases of that dreadful malady—there are but few who have more of it than I have.

I know of several cases of Dropsy, all of whom aged people cured by it. For the various diseases of the Liver, Sick Headache, Dyspepsia, Asthma, Fever and Aque, Pain in the Side, Diseases of the Spine, and particularly in diseases of the Kidneys, &c., the discovery has done more good than any medicine ever known.

No change of diet ever necessary—eat the best you can get and enough of it.

Directions for Use.—Adults one table spoonful per day—Children over ten years dessented spoonful—Children from five to eight years one half. As no directions can be applicable to all constitutions, take sufficient to operate on the bowels twice a day.

CUSTOM HOUSE AND THOSE $490 00!
A FEW days ago this question was put by one of the Sunday Papers; it attracted much attention, was upon the lips of Politicians who used it for their (pockets) advantage.

What is it that causes the deaf to hear, and the lame to walk?
What is it that cures the tooth-ache, and car-cane of many Philadelphians and vicinity?
What is it that cures Rheumatism without leaving any bad effects?
What is it that makes the palsied limb alive again?
What is it that cures the Croup, that dreaded complaint which sweeps thousands of this land into their graves?
What is it that soothes and takes away inflammation?
What is it that heals wounds and relieves all pain?

It is Prof. Charles DeGrath's, Original, Genuine Electric Oil.
Yes! it has cured more cases than were tho't hopeless than any medicine extant.
Do you say it is all humbug? Don't believe it!
Ask a respectable family in Philadelphia if they say they have used it, they will tell you them done at the precise time. By paying strict attention to business, and selling at low rates, he hopes to receive a share of public patronage.

ings which generally appear in persons after having the Scarlet Fever. He thinks it ahead of all other remedies—and so it is.
Persons are daily calling for my Oil, 30 Nib.
