

Huntingdon Journal.

WILLIAM BREWSTER, SAM. G. WHITTAKER, EDITORS.

Wednesday Morning, July 16, 1856.

Forever float that standard sheet, Where breathes the foe but falls before us, With Freedom's soul beneath our feet, And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

FOR PRESIDENT, JOHN C. FREMONT, OF CALIFORNIA.

FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER, THOMAS E. COCHRAN, OF YORK COUNTY.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL, DARWIN PHELPS, OF ARMSTRONG COUNTY.

FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL, BARTHOLOMEW LAPORTE, OF BRADFORD COUNTY.

Local Gossip.

We had a very terrific thunder shower on Saturday last; several buildings were struck by lightning, and we are informed that our corpulent friend Ned Summers was knocked down by it when passing down the street. . . .

A WHIG.

Messrs. Editors.—I am gratified to find that by the late action of the American Executive Committee, there is some prospect of a union of Americans, Whigs and Republicans, of all the enemies of Locofoco misrule, on a platform broad enough for all. . . .

Col. Fremont's Acceptance.

The following important correspondence between the Committee of the Republican National Convention, appointed to inform Col. FREMONT of his nomination, and its candidate, will attract attention from every quarter, and deserves more than the ordinary consideration of the people of the United States: . . .

TO-DAY'S PAPER.

We lay before our readers in this week's issue of the Huntingdon Journal, two splendid articles—Fremont's letter of acceptance, and Dr. Tyng's sermon. . . .

OUR BOOK TABLE.

Frank Leslie's Gazette of Fashions for July, is on our table. No lady or gentleman should be without it. Only $2 a year. Address Frank Leslie, New York.

[A CARD.]

To Teachers and all whom it may concern: The undersigned with competent assistants, will open a Normal School, for the special benefit of Teachers, somewhere in Huntingdon County, on the last Monday of July. . . .

THE NEWS.

No change in the market since our last. Brooks was only fined $300 for his base attack on Sumner!

The President has driven the Free State Legislature of Kansas out, at the point of the bayonet. Curses on him.

Mr. Dallas will not be dismissed by the English.

The Jesuits of the Huntingdon Globe.

The lick spittle of the owner of the Globe, (who is known to our readers) in a labored article attempts to prove Lewis no Catholic. To do this, he heaps upon us opprobrious epithets; . . .

Unpacks his heart with words, And falls a cursing, like a very drab, A scullion!

Wm. Lewis and his gang, are Jesuits; dyed in the wool; bound by all the popish rites and ceremonies of the Roman Church, chained to the car of the anti-Christ of the three-hilled city, by all the forms, oaths, and obligations required by that Pontiff. . . .

In regard to the assertions we made relative to the Jesuit Lewis owing his present freedom to executive clemency, all we can say is, it is the simple truth! It is in perfect keeping with the balance of the indulgence receiver's acts, to deny it.

Messrs. Editors.—Many opponents of the great Border-ruffian, Buchanan party are pleased to learn, by last week's papers, that the Americans of this county have abolished the secret and restrictive features of their organization. . . .

guard to past differences, are uniting in a common effort to bring back the action of the Federal Government to the principles of Washington and Jefferson.

Comprehending the magnitude of the trust which they have declared themselves willing to place in my hands, and deeply sensible of the honor which it confers, I accept of this confidence, in this threatening position of the public affairs, I feel that I cannot better respond than by a sincere declaration that, in the event of my election to the Presidency, I should enter upon the execution of its duties with a single hearted determination to promote the good of the whole country, and to direct solely to this end all the powers of the Government, irrespective of party issues, and regardless of sectional strife. . . .

I concur in the views of the Convention deprecating the Foreign policy to which it advocates. The assumption that we have the right to take from another nation its domains because we want them, is an abandonment of the honest character which our country has acquired. . . .
