The freshness and permanent value of Purdon's Digest are preserved by the publication annually of a Digest of the laws enacted in each year. These annual digests are arranged in precise conformity to the plan of Purdon's Digest. They are each bound separately, but annually are cemented together by a general Index (prepared each year), which embraces the contents of the laws of each year since the publication of Purdon's Digest, in one alphabet and are bound up with Purdon's Digest, and also sold separately. Thus the purchaser of Purdon's Digest will always be in possession of the complete body of the Statute Laws of Pennsylvania down to the very hour when he purchases it, and who have already purchased Purdon's Digest may also very easily complete the data for the small sum of Fifty Cents, the price of volume containing all the annual Digests issued since the first publication of the present edition of Purdon's Digest, as hereafter stated.
