WILLIAM SHEWSTER, EDITORS. SAM. G. WHITAKER.

Wednesday Morning, Oct. 15, 1856.

Forever float that standard sheet, Where breathes the foe but falls before us, With Freedom's soil beneath our feet, And Freedom's banner streaming o'er all!

FOR PRESIDENT, JOHN C. FREMONT, OF CALIFORNIA. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, WM. L. DAYTON, OF NEW JERSEY.

OUR BOOK TABLE.

Peterson's Magazine for November, is a sterling No. This Magazine has justly taken its stand in the foremost ranks of American magazines.

Grubbs's Magazine is before us for November. This is justly styled the pioneer magazine of America.

The Student and Schoolmate for October, is on our table. It is a useful and interesting work, and should be patronized.

The Inventor, published at 304 Broadway, N. Y., by Low, Haskell & Co., at $1 a year is before us for October.

THE COUNTY FAIR.

Our late county fair was an admirable one, and was attended by a great crowd of people, variously estimated at from three to five thousand.

The Meeting on Thursday.

The Union meeting in this place, on Thursday last, was large and enthusiastic. Address were delivered by Messrs. Smith, Williams, Howard, White, Miles, and Curtis.

Mr. Fillmore putting the Southern Disunionists on the Back! Extract from his Albany Speech.

"Sir, you have been pleased to say that I have the Union of these States at heart. [You have, you have, sir.] This, sir, is most true; for, if there be one object dearer to me than any other, it is the unity, prosperity, and glory of this great Republic."

"We see a political party presenting candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency, selected for the first time from the Free States alone, with the avowed purpose of electing these candidates by suffrages of one part of the Union only to rule over the whole United States."

Baltimore Election. Baltimore Oct. 8.—The city, this evening, is a scene of great excitement. The election has terminated in the success of the American ticket by a majority of nearly fifteen hundred.

A number of serious riots have occurred. A bloody affray occurred in the Twelfth ward, said to have been occasioned by the American Rip Rap Club driving the New Market Fire Company's members from the polls.

James A. Hamilton, son of the illustrious Alexander Hamilton, who, a few weeks since, addressed a letter to the Hon. William L. Dayton, taking strong ground in favor of the election of Fillmore has now come out in favor of Fremont.

THE CONSPIRACY AGAINST COL. FREMONT.

The Buchanan men, Fillmore men, and Roman Catholics, have entered into a conspiracy to prove Colonel Fremont a Roman Catholic. Neither the friends nor the enemies of Fremont sincerely believe one word of the accusation, and this assertion is proven by the position of the religious sects in the canvass.

Keep it before the People.

That Senator Weller declared the Kansas laws, "As atrocious and infamous as any laws which ever found their way upon the statute book of any people in any age of this world!"

That Senator Bayard, of Delaware said: "While I oppose the proviso, I feel free to say that some of the laws of Kansas shocked the moral sense of the community, as being subversive of all natural rights and a foul usurpation and despotism."

That while Democratic and Southern Senators thus denounce these tyrannical laws, JAMES BUCHANAN IS SOLEMNLY PLEDGED TO FORCE THEM UPON THE PEOPLE OF KANSAS, with the army of the United States!!!

Fillmore a Disunionist.

ELECTION RETURNS.

So far as heard from, the vote will be close in the county, for county officers. But we presume the Union County ticket will be elected by a considerable majority, with the exception of Sheriff. The Union State ticket will probably be elected.

For the Journal. Fremont in Illinois.

Messrs. Editors:—Since I have my pen in hand, I will give you an abridged sketch of political affairs in this young city and vicinity. Heretofore the Democrats preëminated, but now they are almost annihilated; in short they cannot raise a Buchanan party of more than fifty at any time, and near a fortnight ago, at one of their grand rallies, they could raise but three—they sang the song "when shall we three meet again," and adjourned until a future meeting.

While on the other hand, the whole community appears to be alive and wide awake to their interests. Meetings are being held at which multitudes attend—citizens, women and children; in short, every body feels interested in the election of Fremont and Dayton. The ladies are so much interested that they are getting up Fremont and Dayton banners valued at from one to three hundred dollars.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE!!! Buchanan Catering to the South!

Messrs. Editors:—The following was copied from a paper in the possession of a young man, formerly an assistant in the office of said paper, and who testifies to its former pro-slavery; and if not inserted, please give it a place and request Millin county papers to copy.

Editor Hung in Kansas.

The Evansville Journal learns from a gentleman just come from Green Castle, Putnam county, that Alfred Patrick, Esq., formerly editor of the Putnam county Banner, was hung in Leavenworth, by the Border Ruffians, a short time since.

The Low Wages Speech of James Buchanan.

Hitherto the friends of James Buchanan have denied, or tried to explain away the speech, in which he said:—"Reduce the wages of labor to the specie standard, and you cover the country with benefits and blessings." William Bigler, instead of denial and explanation, admits that he did make the speech, and says that he "has always regarded the speech as one of the very ablest and truest of his life."

Archbishop Hughes publishes a card in the New York Courier and Inquirer, disclaiming all knowledge of Col. Fremont's religion, and saying that he is not responsible for any article which has appeared on that subject in the Freeman's Journal.

We find in the New York papers an address signed by five hundred and eighty-nine seceders from the American party. They are citizens of Otsego county, N. Y., have heretofore supported Mr. Fillmore for the Presidency, but having become satisfied that a strong effort is being made to divert the obligations resting on Americans from their legitimate ends, by using the Fillmore ticket as a mere device to prevent the election of Fremont, and aid that of Buchanan, they have concluded to give their earnest support to the Republican party and its nominees.

On the case from Galena to Chicago, French, 46; Buchanan 14; Fillmore 5.

A POLITICAL MENAGERIE.

Messrs. Editors:—I am anxious that your readers should be posted up in matters of interest which once and awhile occur in Old Cass. Therefore I would inform the people through the columns of your paper, that, since the Circus exhibitions in Huntingdon, a portion of the same spirit fell upon some of the Pro-Slavery devotees, and thought to amuse the people of the county by starting a Political Circus and Menagerie, starting from Huntingdon toward the lower end of the county.

On Saturday night, previous to the appointed time, the brass band from the town of Huntingdon, sent its strains of music into our silent bed chambers, telling us that this unruly Menagerie had arrived. We would not have felt as safe had we not taken special notice that the boys of our town were well practiced with the bow and arrow, for Greytown was ever ringing into our ears the effects of the present Pro-Slavery, Democratic Administration.

For the Journal. COMMUNICATION.

Messrs. Editors:—In your last issue I notice an article under the signature of Hon. Jas. Boon, Superintendent of the H. & B. R. R., denying that I was turned off the Road because I would not vote for Buchanan; also, that an Irish Roman Catholic was appointed in my place, &c., &c., which, with your permission, I purpose now briefly to answer.

Mr. Boon, still not content with removing me, on political reasons, now seeks by dark insinuations, to shift from the cause of my removal to "reasons," which he thinks, "unnecessary to mention."

I now again reiterate that every word contained in my first letter is true. And more that I was several times told by authority, that if I did not come out for Buchanan the station would be taken from me.

Mr. Boon, still not content with removing me, on political reasons, now seeks by dark insinuations, to shift from the cause of my removal to "reasons," which he thinks, "unnecessary to mention."

For the Journal. MESSRS. EDITORS:—Allow me through the columns of your excellent paper to say a word or two to the laborers and mechanics of this county, on the subject of present Presidential campaign.

The following were the officers and guard: Gen. G. W. Spear, Rieg Master. Mr. P. Wilson, Equestrian Manager. Major J. Crosswell, Director of the Menagerie.

They entertained their visitors by showing them ancient relics, belonging as they said, to old Democracy, which differed widely from the present Pro-Slavery Democracy, and amused them with the skin of the "old cow that skinned herself by jumping through the augur hole" and telling them wonderful tales about a Cain they called Brooks, from Washington.

Mr. Spear then entertained the audience by telling them they were in darkness and wanted light, and in no way could they obtain light but through him, that he alone knew all about animal training and after he had imparted the light, the mightier man, A. P. Wilson, taught them how to retain the light.

Next came the coat of many colors, whose name I forbear to mention, it being already too familiar to the people, from the fact of its being enrolled amongst the political renegades of our country. He said he had not much to tell the people, but what he did say was but of little service more than amusement, but it was generally supposed by his visitors that he was dissatisfied with his present office and liked to change. Poor fellow! After he had taken his seat, the Huntingdon Brass Band announced that the sun was sinking low, and as animals of the woolly-headed kind would be dangerous to exhibit at night, therefore they thought it prudent to adjourn.

Perhaps the Huntingdon Brass Band may remember this meeting longer than any one else, unless they hold due bills for their pay. The officers, performers, bucks and all deserve praise for their quietness during and after the meeting. Oct. 6, 56. AN OLD LINE WHIG

For the Journal. THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

The Convention of Delegates, assembled in pursuance of a call addressed to the People of the United States, without regard to past political differences or divisions, who are opposed to the repeal of the Missouri compromise; to the policy of the present Administration; to the extension of Slavery into Kansas; and in favor of the admission of Kansas as a Free State; of restoring the action of the Federal Government to the principles of Washington and Jefferson; and for the purpose of presenting candidates for the offices of President and Vice President, do resolve as follows:

Resolved, That the maintenance of the principles promulgated in the Declaration of Independence, and embodied in the Federal Constitution, are essential to the preservation of our republican institutions; and that the Federal Constitution the rights of the States, and the union of the States, shall be preserved.

Resolved, That with our Republican Faith, we hold it to be a self-evident truth that all men are endowed with inalienable right to "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness," and that the primary object and ulterior designs of our Federal Government were to secure these rights to all persons within its exclusive jurisdiction; and that the Federal Government were to secure these rights to all persons within its exclusive jurisdiction; and that the Federal Government were to secure these rights to all persons within its exclusive jurisdiction.

Resolved, That the Constitution confers upon Congress sovereign power over the Territories of the United States for their government, and that in the exercise of this power, it is both the right and duty of Congress to prohibit in the Territories, those twin relics of barbarism, Polygamy and Slavery.

Resolved, That while the Constitution of the United States, was ordained and established in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defence, and secure the blessings of liberty, and contains ample provisions for the protection of "life, liberty and prosperity" of every citizen, the dearest constitutional rights of the people of Kansas have been fraudulently and violently taken from them—their territory has been invaded by an armed force, spurious and pretended legislative, judicial, and executive officers have been set over them, by whose usurped authority sustained by the military power of the government; tyrannical and unconstitutional laws have been enacted and enforced; the rights of the people to keep and bear arms have been infringed; test oaths of an extraordinary and engaging nature have been imposed as a condition of exercising the right of suffrage, and holding office; the right of an accused person to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury, has been denied; the right of the people to be secured in their houses, papers and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, has been violated; they have been deprived of life, liberty, and property without due process of law; that the freedom of speech and of the press has been abridged; the right to choose their representatives has been made of no effect; murders, robberies and arson have been instigated and encouraged, and the offenders have been allowed to go unpunished; that all these things have been done with the knowledge, sanction and procurement of the present Administration, and that for this high crime against the Constitution, the Union and humanity, we arrange the Administration, the President, his advisers, agents supporters and accessories, either before or after the fact, before the country and before the world; and that it is our fixed purpose to bring the actual perpetrators of these atrocious outrages and their accomplices to a sure and condign punishment hereafter.

Resolved, That Kansas should be immediately admitted as a State of the Union, with her present free constitution, as at once the most effectual way of securing to her citizens the enjoyment of the rights and privileges to which they are entitled and of ending the civil strife now raging in her Territory.

Resolved, That the highwayman's plea, that "might makes right," as embodied in the Ostend Circular, was in every respect unworthy of American diplomacy, and would bring shame and dishonor upon any government or people that gave it their sanction.

Resolved, That a Railroad to the Pacific Ocean, by the most central and practical route, is imperatively demanded by the interests of the country, and that the Federal Government ought to render immediate and efficient aid in its construction and as an auxiliary thereto, the immediate construction of an emigrant route on the line of the rail.

Resolved, That appropriations by Congress for the improvement of Rivers and Harbors, of a national character, are demanded for the accommodations of our existing commerce, and Congress is authorized by the Constitution, and justified by the obligations of government, to protect the lives and property of its citizens. Resolved, That we invite the affiliation and co-operation of the men of all parties however differing from us in other respects, in support of the principles here declared; and believing that the spirit of our institutions, as well as the constitution of our country, guarantees liberty of conscience and equality of rights among citizens, we oppose all legislation impairing their security.

For the Journal. THE FOLLOWING REMEDIES ARE OFFERED TO THE PUBLIC AS THE BEST, MOST PERFECT, WHICH MEDICAL SCIENCE CAN AFFORD.

ARRA'S CATHARTIC PILLS have been prepared with the utmost skill which the medical profession of this age possesses, and their effects show they have virtues which surpass any combination of medicines hitherto known. On the stomach they do more or less good, but this cures such dangerous complaints, so quick and so sure, as to prove an efficacy and a power to unpropitiate beyond any thing which men have known before.

Give them to some patient who has been prostrated with bilious complaint; see his bent-up, torturing form straighten with strength again; see his long-lost appetite return; see his clammy features blossom into health.

Give them to some sufferer whose face has burst out in scabs, till his skin is covered with sores, who stands, or sits, or lies in anguish. He has been drenched inside and out with every potion which ingenuity could suggest. Give him these PILLS, and give him these PILLS in large doses; they may not cure him, for, alas! there are cases which no mortal power can reach; but mark, he will walk away, and now he walks alone; that they have cured him. Give them to the lean, sour, haggard dyspeptic, whose gnawing stomach has long ago eaten every smile from his face and every gleam of hope from his heart.

Give them to the man whose appetite returns, and with it his health; see the new man. See her that was radiant with health and loveliness, black and white, and every way weary; want of exercise, or mental anguish, or some lurking disease has deranged the internal organs of digestion, assimilation, or secretion, till they do their office ill. Her blood is impure, her health is gone. Give her these PILLS to stimulate the vital principle into renewed vigor, to cast out the obstructions, and infuse a new life into the blood. Now look again—see the roses blossom on her cheek, and where lately sorrow sat joy braves from every feature. See the sweet infant waded with worms. Its wan, sickly features tell you without disguise, and painfully distinct, that they are eating its life away. Its pinched-up nose and ears, and restless sleepings, tell the dreadful truth in language which every mother knows. Give her these PILLS in large doses to sweep these vile parasites from the body. Now turn again and see the ruddy bloom of childhood. Is it nothing to do these things? Nay, are they not the marvel of this age? And yet they are done around you every day.

Have you the less serious symptoms of these disorders, they are the earlier cured. Jamieson's Catarrh, Headache, Sidelache, Heartburn, Fuel Stomach, Nausea, Pain in the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, and a host of other ailments, all kindred complaints all arise from the derangements which these PILLS rapidly cure. Take them personally, and under the counsel of a good Physician if you can; if not, send for them, and take them, as we give you, and the distressing, dangerous diseases they cure, which afflict so many millions of the human race, are cast out like the devil of old—they must burrow in the wastes and in the sea. Price 25 cents per box—5 boxes for $1.

Through a trial of many years and through every nation of civilized men, Jamieson's Catarrh Pills has been found to afford more relief and to cure more cases of pulmonary disease than any other remedy known to mankind. Cases of apparent settled Consumption have been cured by it, and thousands of sufferers who were deemed beyond the reach of human aid, have been restored to their health and usefulness, to soundness of mind, the enjoyment of life, by this all-powerful antidote to diseases of the lungs and throat. Here a cold had settled on the lungs, and the patient, who had his glassy eyes, and the pale, thin features of him who was lately lusty and strong whispier to all but him, Consumption. He tries every remedy; but the disease is getting worse, and he is unable to stand. His symptoms now and more over all his frame. He is taking the Catarrh Pills, and his health returns, and with it his strength. The dart which pierced his side is now healed, and he is able to stand. He has found which has not some living trophy like this to snadow forth the virtues which have won for the Catarrh Pills an imperishable renown. But its usefulness does not end here. See how it accomplishes more by prevention than cure. The count less colds and coughs which it cures are the seed which would have opened into a dreadful harvest of incurable diseases. Influenza, Croup, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Pleurisy, Whooping Cough, and all irritations of the throat and lungs, are easily cured by the Catarrh Pills, and thus the disease from many a sick, the darling lamb from many a home.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass., and sold by all Druggists everywhere.

PHILADELPHIA MARKET.

Flour—The market remains very inactive; there is little or no demand for export, and the only sale made public is 200 bbls. of selected brand are offered at $6.75, per barrel. Standard shipping brands are offered at $6.50, without finding buyers except in a small way for home consumption at from $6.50 to $8 per barrel, as in quality. Best Flour and Corn Meal are also quiet, but firm at $3.75 for the former, and $3.50 per barrel for the latter. There is very little Wheat offering to-day, but buyers come forward slowly, and only some 3000 bushels have been disposed of lots at 14 1/2¢ for White, as in quality. Eye is in steady demand, with further small sales at 80 cents. Corn is rather better today, and 10,000 bushels Yellow have been taken at 64¢ 65 cents for lots in store, and 66¢ 66 1/2¢ cents afloat. Oats are wanted with but few offerings, and 25000 bushels Southern sold at 36 cents for inferior, and 40 cents for good quality.
