

Political.

THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

The Convention of Delegates, assembled in pursuance of a call addressed to the People of the United States, without regard to past political differences or divisions, who are opposed to the repeal of the Missouri compromise; to the policy of the present Administration; to the extension of Slavery into Kansas; and in favor of the admission of Kansas as a Free State; of restoring the principles of Washington and Jefferson; and for the purpose of presenting candidates for the offices of President and Vice President, do resolve as follows:

Resolved, That the maintenance of the principles promulgated in the Declaration of Independence, and embodied in the Federal Constitution, are essential to the preservation of our republican institutions; and that the Federal Constitution the rights of the States, and the union of the States, shall be preserved.

Resolved, That, with our Republican Fathers, we hold it to be a self-evident truth that all men are endowed with inalienable right to "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness," and that the primary object and ulterior designs of our Federal Government were to secure these rights to all persons within its exclusive jurisdiction; that as our Republican Fathers, when they abolished Slavery in all our national territory, ordained that no person should be deprived of property, without the process of law, it becomes our duty to maintain this provision of the Constitution against all attempts to violate it, for the purpose of establishing Slavery in the territories of the United States, by positive legislation prohibiting its existence or extension therein. That we deny the authority of Congress, of a Territorial Legislature, or any individual or association of individuals to give legal assistance to Slavery in any territory of the United States, while the present Constitution shall be maintained.

Resolved, That the Constitution confers upon Congress sovereign power over the Territories of the United States for their government, and that in the exercise of this power, it is both the right and duty of Congress to prohibit in the Territories, those twin relics of barbarism, Polygamy and Slavery.

Resolved, That while the Constitution of the United States was ordained and established in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, and secure the blessings of liberty, and contains ample provisions for the protection of "life, liberty and property" of every citizen, the darkest constitutional rights of the people of Kansas have been fraudulently and violently taken from them—their territory has been invaded by an armed force, spurious and pretended legislative, judicial, and executive officers have been set over them, by those usurped authority sustained by the military power of the government; tyrannical and unconstitutional laws have been enacted and enforced; the rights of the people to keep and bear arms have been infringed; test oaths of an extraordinary and menacing nature have been imposed as a condition of exercising the right of suffrage, and holding office; the right of an accused person to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury, has been denied; the right of the people to be secured in their houses, papers and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, has been violated; they have been deprived of life, liberty, and property without due process of law; that the freedom of speech and of the press has been abridged; the right to choose their representatives has been made of no effect; murders, robberies and arson have been instigated and encouraged, and the offenders have been allowed to go unpunished; that all these things have been done with the knowledge, sanction and procurement of the present Administration, and that for this high crime against the Constitution, the Union and humanity, we arrange the Administration, the President, his advisers, agents, supporters, apologists and accessories, either before or after the fact, before the country and before the world; and that it is our fixed purpose to bring the actual perpetrators of these atrocious outrages and their accomplices to a sure and condign punishment.

Resolved, That Kansas should be immediately admitted as a state of the Union, with her present free constitution, as at once the most effectual way of securing to her citizens the enjoyment of the rights and privileges to which they are entitled and of ending the civil strife now raging in her Territory.

Resolved, That the highwayman's plea, that "might makes right," as embodied in the Ostend Circular, was in every respect unworthy of American diplomacy, and would bring shame and dishonor upon any government or people that gave it their sanction.

Resolved, That a Railroad to the Pacific Ocean, by the most central and practical route, is imperatively demanded by the interests of the country, and that the Federal Government ought to render immediate and efficient aid in its construction, and as an auxiliary thereto, the immediate construction of an emigrant route on the line of the rail road.

Resolved, That appropriations by Congress for the improvement of Rivers and harbors, of a national character, are demanded for the accommodations of our increasing commerce, and Congress is authorized by the Constitution, and justified by the obligations of government, to protect the lives and property of its citizens.

Resolved, That we invite the affiliation and co-operation of the men of all parties however differing from us in particular respects, in support of the principles here declared; and believing that the spirit of our institutions, guarantee the liberty, science and equality of rights among all men, we oppose all legislation impairing their security.

The History of Butter.

From the various statements in history, it may be safely concluded that the discovery of butter is attributable neither to the Greeks nor Romans, but that the former were made acquainted with it by the Scythians, Thracians and Phrygians, and the latter by the people of Germany. It appears, says Beekman, that when they had learned the art of making it, they employed it only as an ointment in their baths, and particularly as a medicine. It is never mentioned by Galen and others as food, though they have spoken of it as applicable to other purposes. No notice is taken of it by Apicius, nor is there anything said in that respect by the authors who treat on agriculture, though they have given accurate information regarding milk, cheese and oil.—This may be easily accounted for by the fact, that the ancients were entirely accustomed to the use of good oil. In like manner, butter is very little used at the present day in Italy, Spain, Portugal, and the southern parts of France, but is sold in the apothecaries' shops for medical purposes. During the ages of Paganism, butter appears to have been very scarce in Norway; mention is made by historians of a present of butter so large that a man could not carry it, and which was considered a very respectable gift.—[Farmer's Magazine.]

FOR THE LADIES.—The Medical Specialist, in an article on the proper underclothing for winter, recommends flannel or linsey-woolsey, and clothes with this advice to the ladies: "No hoops! no funnel sleeves for the cold air to rush up to the armpits, and chill the chest. The underclothes, as well as the dress, should be made to cover the shoulders and collar-bones, close around the throat. By this means you will be prevented from throwing additional weight upon the shoulders, in the shape of extra shawls and cloaks, and thus diminish the labor of breathing. Also cover the top of the head. Beware of catarrh and neuralgia."

MEDICAL ADVERTISEMENTS.

Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.
Dr. Kennedy, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures
EVERY KIND OF HUMOR,
from the worst scrofula down to a common pimple.

He has tried it in over 1000 cases, and never failed as yet. It cures (both thunder and) Eczema to six bottles in possession over two hundred certificates of its virtue, all within twenty miles of Boston.
Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.
One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of Pimples on the face.
Two or three bottles will cure the system of Biles.
Five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of Erysipelas.
One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the Eyes.
Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and itching among the hair.
Five to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.
One bottle will cure scaly corruption of the skin.
Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of ringworm.
Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.
Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.
Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.

A benefit it always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.
Reader, I peddled over a thousand bottles of this in the vicinity of Boston. I knew the effect of it in every case. So sure as water will extinguish fire, so sure will this cure humor. I never sold a bottle of it but that sold another; after a trial it always speaks for itself. There are two things about this herb that appear to me surprising; first it grows in our pastures in some places quite plentiful and yet its value has never been known until I discovered it in 1846—second that it should cure all kinds of humor.

In order to give some idea of the sudden rise and great popularity of the discovery, I will state that in April, 1853, I peddled it and sold about six bottles per day—in April, 1854, I sold over one thousand per day of it. There are two things about this herb that appear to me surprising; first it grows in our pastures in some places quite plentiful and yet its value has never been known until I discovered it in 1846—second that it should cure all kinds of humor.

I know of several cases of Dropsy, all of whom aged people cured by it. For the various diseases of the Liver, Sick Headache, Dyspepsia, Asthma, Fever and Ague, Pain in the Side, Diseases of the Spine, and particularly in diseases of the Kidneys, &c., the discovery has done more good than any medicine ever known.

No change of diet ever necessary—eat the best you can get and enough of it.
Dropsy cured. Use—Adults one table spoonful per day—Children over ten years deerspoonful—Children from five to eight years teaspoonful. As no directions can be applicable to all constitutions, take sufficient to operate on the bowels twice a day.
