

ASTOUNDING DEVELOPMENT!

ANOTHER OF CAMPBELL'S POSTMASTERS DETECTED.

THE WAY WE WERE DEFEATED.

Perfidy of no Account with a Jesuit!

READ! READ! READ!

The most startling developments are being brought to light in different sections of our country, showing the manner in which the so-called Democracy have elected their President and the means resorted to.

In this county, the lowest and most startling tricks have been perpetrated, and the system of mail depredation carried to an alarming extent. The postmaster in Huntingdon Borough—William Lewis—has been playing a high-handed game in one matter, and we hope, for the sake of justice, that sympathy will not so far work upon the feelings of the gentlemen who have his case in hand, as to induce them to let him go unrebuked and unpunished.

We give below a copy of one of his letters, now in possession of one of our most excellent citizens. We copy it verbatim. Read it!

Post Office, Huntingdon, Pa. Nov. 3d, 1856.

P. M. Coffee Run. You will give Mr. — ALL PRINTED MAIL MATTER lying at your office for the office beyond it.

WM. LEWIS, P. M. Paradise Furnace, Madsenville Three Springs.

The story invented, that it was to hasten on the American newspaper's circulars, urging all Americans to vote the straight-out Fillmore tickets is simply untrue; Mr. Gillam informs us that according to those instructions to deliver "all printed mail matter," he gave up all in the office, and all "printed mail matter" was taken, with the exception of a bundle of the American newspaper's circulars! Now, if the circulars were the articles William Lewis the Postmaster, wished to have sent on with speed why, should they be the only articles left?

The note as published in last week's Huntingdon Globe, is not correct, as will be seen by comparing it with the original. The above is a correct copy as taken from the order now in good hands.

The laws of the United States speak in emphatic terms. Hear:

"If any person employed in any department of the post office shall improperly keep, detain or delay any newspaper, permit any other person to do so, or permit any other to open any mail, or packet of newspapers, NOT DIRECTED TO THE OFFICE WHERE HE IS EMPLOYED, for every such offence he shall forfeit fifty dollars. And if any person shall take any mail of newspapers from or out of any post office, or from any person having custody thereof, he shall be imprisoned at hard labor for a term of three months."

"If any person shall take with or without the consent of the person having custody thereof any packet from any post office, or such offender shall be imprisoned for not less than 2 nor exceeding 10 years."

"Every person who shall advise or assist in perpetrating any acts by this Act forbidden, shall be subject to the same penalties as if he were the actual transgressor."

"The Huntingdon Journal was issued as usual on Wednesday."—Hunt. American of the 12th inst.

"The Journal and Globe editions were mailed in the Huntingdon office, on Wednesday afternoon."—Hunt. Globe 12th inst.

Now this proves the old adage, one lie produces another. "To prove those gentlemen mistaken, we have only to produce the following: "I hereby certify that a part of the edition of the Huntingdon Journal was worked off on Monday, November 3d, and mailed the same day. The remaining part of the edition was printed on Tuesday morning, and put in the office of Huntin. Jn. in time for both mails. Huntingdon, Nov. 18, 1856. W. MILLER.

Now this certifies prove conclusively that Mr. Lewis has criminally kept back the Journals in his office, for one day—after the election or, that he is telling a deliberate untruth; and we cannot say which, but it must be one or the other. Here is the law, relative to this case, which we give without charge.

"If any person employed in any of the departments of the Post Office Establishment shall unlawfully detain, delay, or open, any letter, packet, &c., with which he shall be entrusted, or shall come to his possession, and which are intended to be conveyed by post, or if any postmaster shall unlawfully detain in his office any newspaper, &c., with intent to prevent the arrival and delivery of the same to the person or persons to whom such newspaper, &c., may be directed, or if any postmaster give preference to any newspaper over another forwarding the one and retaining the other, on conviction thereof he shall be fined not over five hundred dollars, and imprisoned for a term not exceeding six months, or both according to the offence."

"If any postmaster shall unlawfully detain in his office any newspaper, &c., with intent to prevent the arrival and delivery of the same to the person or persons to whom such newspaper, &c., may be directed, or if any postmaster give preference to any newspaper over another forwarding the one and retaining the other, on conviction thereof he shall be fined not over five hundred dollars, and imprisoned for a term not exceeding six months, or both according to the offence."
