

Huntingdon Journal.

WILLIAM BREWSTER, SAM. G. WHITTAKER, EDITORS.

Wednesday Morning, December 24, 1856.

Protracted meetings will begin in the Methodist and Lutheran churches of this place, on Christmas night.

The Deputy Warden of the Massachusetts State Prison, was stabbed by one of the convicts on the 15th inst., as he was passing out of the Chapel. He died almost instantly.

Rita Gomez, a Portuguese Protestant who died at Funchal, Madeira, on the 31st of October, was refused burial by the Roman Catholic authorities, and she remains thrown into the sea! Can that be a christian country where the rights of burial is denied a fellow man? Such is catholicism.

The vote of the whole Union in the Presidential election foots up 1,824,766 for Buchanan 870, 146 for Fillmore; 1,338,815 for Fremont. From these totals some counties in California are omitted, the returns not having been received.

LIFE ILLUSTRATED.—A first class family Newspaper, devoted to News, Literature, Science, and the Arts; to Entertainment, Improvement and Progress. Designed to encourage a spirit of Hope, Manliness, Self-Reliance, and Activity among the people; to illustrate Life in all its phases, and to indicate the mode by which we may attain the highest degree of usefulness and happiness—a paper which ought to be read by every family in the land. Published weekly at $2 a year, or $1 half a year. Address Fowler & Wells, 208 Broadway, N. Y.

FORRESTER'S PLAYMATE.—A Magazine for Boys and Girls—Begins its sixth volume in January, 1857. It is edited by MARK FORRESTER, the well known writer for the young, who the reading community will bear in mind, is connected with no other periodical.

The Playmate has been denominated by an eminent writer, as "the best youth's Magazine published." The publishers mean to keep it so. Its embellishments are new, and the reading matter almost wholly original.

An entire number might be filled with the complimentary notices of the press. The Family Gazette says: "No person who cares a button for his child's welfare, can spend a dollar more profitably than in subscribing for the Playmate."

But we prefer to let the Magazine tell its own story. Those parents who have any choice about what their children should read, should subscribe for it. If it does not sustain itself, after a trial, no recommendation of others would be of any benefit.

Terms. The Playmate is published monthly, at $1 a year in advance. To clubs, 75 cents per copy. Letters enclosing money may be sent at our risk, if directed to William Guild & Co., 156 Washington Street, Boston, Mass.

It is a thrice blessed thing that the animals, fowls and insects of the "Globe" office have an opportunity ever Sabbath of having their sins pardoned. They tell enough stories in one week, to give them a residence in purgatory forty years. No man of integrity in town would believe either of the editors of the Globe on oath.

No respectable negro will associate with either of them.

Go to Prettyman's Gallery if you want a capital picture—if you want a "fuz rate" picture—if you want a super-excellent picture—or a picture that is a picture.

For cheapness, durability. For finish, taste and style. Compare his work with other men's. And at the difference smile.

Go to Prettyman's Gallery at the Station House, and get your phiz copied as a Christmas present to parent, husband, relative or—or—sweetheart.

There will be no paper issued from this office next week, in compliance with an established custom. So, reader, the next time we pay you a visit, and give you the light of our countenance, it will be on the 7th of January, 1857.

Our devil has been busily engaged during the past week in hammering out his annual address to his patrons. As he informs us that it is entirely original, we expect something rich, highfalutin and generally glorious. He hopes to meet with open hearts and purses (especially the latter) on New Year's Day.

The Jesuit Lewis of the Globe insinuates that somebody in the Journal office is guilty of illegal voting, perjury, &c. This question was settled once before, and a man whose cankered, polluted heart unblushingly re-asserts it deserves only our contempt. It is humiliating to be compelled to notice a man like Wm. Lewis, (despised as he is by honorable men,) but infinitely more so, to use his own argument. That it is untrue it has been proven, and to prove it as false as the crime seared conscience of its utterer, we defy him, and dare him to stake $1000 that it is a truth.

Humiliating...The acknowledgment in the last Globe, that bar-rooms account for the lively tinge of the duck and ass' noses.

The Slave Insurrection.

The Pittsburg Gazette is of the opinion that the evidence of anything like an organized plot on the part of slaves in Kentucky or Tennessee to rise in rebellion against their masters, are dissipating every day. We are not fully prepared to endorse the Gazette's statements in this matter entire, but are convinced that on occasions of such nature, mole hills are magnified into mountains, and a breath sometimes become a whirl-wind, travelling from mouth to mouth. One thing this tempest of excitement does show, viz: in what a condition these communities, which are threatening to dissolve our Union from day to day, are living. Why, it was in the State of Kentucky, if we remember aright that Rev. Dr. Breckinridge in his letter of a year or two since to Mr. Sumner, proposed to raise such an army as would be invincible to any army the whole North could raise. Far be it from us, however, to exult in the misfortunes and insecurities of a state of Society where the distant prospect of the awful event of servile insurrection can awaken such terror. We hope that this terrible thing may be far from them; that the volcano which surges under their feet may be restrained; that the possibility even of such a condition of society ever being established on the virgin soil of the Great West may never be realized; and that the high and commanding tone of those men who have been hurling denunciation and contempt upon the "sickening state" of free society, upon "greasy mechanics" and "small lister farmers" may be a little more subdued in view of the "tremblings of distress" which seize hold upon them, when but the faint whisper of a servile rising is borne upon the breeze.

END OF VOLUME XXI. With this number, closes Volume XXI of the Journal. Twenty-one years of battle against the principles of Locofocoism; twenty-one years in ardent support of the principles of human freedom, of truth and justice, have passed, and the Journal is about entering upon its XXII volume, with brighter prospects, a clearer sky, and more cheering signs than have ever before marked its progress. The great principles for which we now contend are the same that were battled for twenty years ago. Our enemy, the same. Our ranks have swollen from a hardy few to a glorious army. And still there is room. Let every soldier in the great and good cause of Liberty & Union, bring in his recruit. Let their names be entered on the roll—our list for 1857—and all will be right. We ask the co-operation of all friends of freedom. Aid in the great cause, and do so by procuring 1000 new subscribers.

LECOMPT.—This modern Scroggs has been, it seems, at length removed from the position he has so long held to the disgrace of the bench and, as it is reported, James O Harrison of Lexington, Ky., is appointed in his place. We are rejoiced that we are able to thank Mr. Pierce for one act of his administration. The change may be for the better; it can't be for the worse. Mr. Pierce in his selection appears, however, to have acted upon a principle early adopted in his administration, viz: to appoint to office in all cases where it is possible, men who at the same time that they are his own political friends, have been rejected by the people. Mr. Harrison was defeated for Congress by A. K. Marshall. This defeat commended him to executive favor.

LANCASTER BANK.—The Express publishes a full and interesting report of the proceedings of the stockholders, which took place in Lancaster, on Saturday last. The result of this meeting looks more favorable towards the resuscitation of the bank than anything that has yet transpired. The Express says that, up to the hour of going to press, 3100 shares of new stock had been subscribed, and the good work was still going on when the editor left the bank. He has no doubt that the committee appointed, will secure the amount in a very short time—probably before the next meeting, which would be that day two weeks.

Within the last two weeks the assets of the Bank have absorbed $233,000 of its circulation, leaving after deducting $33,000 locked up in the County Bank and good collateral, notes destroyed, etc., but little over $400,000 actual circulation. He has no doubt that if all parties do their duty, the bank will be placed on a solid foundation.

A Roman Catholic considers no oath administered on a Protestant Bible, binding. Probably this accounts for the indifference with which an official of this persuasion treats the crime of perjury and mail robbery.

Mark the friendship between the Globe and American. Fighting each other battles. Old sow and young swine. Both for Locofocoism. Strange anomaly. Know Nothings and Dutch Catholics both supporting the same doctrine!—both endeavoring to crush out the genuine fires of patriotism, by squaring the filthy effusions of their adde parties, at us. Bah!

Disqualification of Universalists.

The Supreme Court of North Carolina has confirmed the decision of Judge Manly that members of the Universalist Church are incompetent to testify in courts of justice, according to the laws of that State. This is certainly taking a huge leap backwards. The Universalist is thus outlawed, as the Quakers and other dissenters were in England before the passage of the Toleration Act. For over two centuries British legislation tended to the advancement of religious freedom, the amelioration of the political situation of Protestant dissenters, the disavowal of all interference with the peculiar views and doctrines adopted by different divisions of Christians, and the recognition of a general belief in the Holy Scriptures, as all that the State pretended to concern itself about and in that country all legal interference with or cognizance of diversity of Christian opinion is abolished. Perhaps the action of the North Carolina Court will have the same effect that the atrocious attempts of Lord Sidmouth, to fetter the liberties of Protestant dissenters, had in the early part of this century, and bring about a toleration act.

An Irishman was committed to our county prison on Monday, for killing his child. He is said to have broken its skull. It occurred on Broad Top.

Died.

In Salem, Ohio, Elgar Standley, only child of Thomas and Mary Reed, aged 3 years 8 mos. Jesus called him and he fell asleep.

In some rude spot where vulgar herbage grows, If chance a violet rear its purple head, The careful gard'ner moves it ere it blows, To thrive and flourish in a nobler bed. Such was thy fate, dear child, Thy opening such!

Premonition in early bloom was shown, For earth too good perhaps, And loved too much— Heaven's saw, and early marked thee for its own!

IMPORTANT TO EVERYBODY. FOR the last three years I have been engaged in a business known only to myself, and comparatively few others, and I have succeeded in making for the sum of $200 each, which averaged me at the rate of $2,000 to $3,000 per annum; and having made arrangements to go to Europe in the fall of 1857 to engage in the same business, I am willing to give full instructions in the art to any person in the United States or Canada, who will remit me the sum of $1. I am induced, from the success I have been favored with, and the many thanks and acknowledgments I have received from those whom I have instructed, and who are making from $5 to $15 per day at it, to give any person an opportunity to engage in this business, which is easy, pleasant, and very profitable, at a small cost. There is no risk, no expense in the matter. References of the best class can be given as regards its character, and I can refer to persons whom I have instructed, who will testify that they are making from $5 to $15 per day at it. It is a general business, and but a few shillings is required to start it. Upon receipt of $1, I will immediately send to the applicant a printed circular containing full instructions, the art which can be perfectly understood at once.

All letters must be addressed (post-paid) to A. T. PARSONS, 335 Broadway, New York. Dec. 24/56-4t.

MISCELLANEOUS ADVERTISEMENTS.

VALUABLE IRON WORKS FOR SALE.

THE SUBSCRIBERS OFFER AT PRIVATE SALE that valuable property, known as ROCK-HILL FURNACE, situated in Cromwell Township, Huntingdon County, about ten miles from the Station on the Pennsylvania Railroad at Mount Union, and the Pennsylvania Canal at the same point. In connection with this Furnace, is about SIX THOUSAND acres of land; mostly timber land, principally rock oak and white oak. There is a large vein of good Fossil Iron Ore within 200 yards of the said Furnace; a large vein of Hematite Ore about one mile and a half from it, and several veins not working. The first two veins of fossil and hematite are in good working order. The furnace, also, is in excellent working condition, and now in blast. It is situated on the State Road leading from Mount Union to Chambersburg, and within half a mile of the borough of Otisburg, in the midst of a good farming community, where produce and labor are to be had at moderate rates. The stage between Chambersburg and Mount Union passes here daily. This property affords an excellent opportunity to make money to any person or persons wishing to engage in the iron business. The property may be purchased either with or without the Stone and Coal, and labor are to be had at moderate rates. The stage between Chambersburg and Mount Union passes here daily.
