

Original.

For the Huntingdon Journal. LINES Suggested by the death of Mr. John DeArmit of Petersburg.

Stern winter spreads his icy hand Abroad o'er ocean, and o'er land, The mighty river and the mill, Lie cold and motionless and still.

Old Boreas blows his tempest breath, From craggy hill to lonely heath, O'er glittering dome and palace home, And alleys dark where wretches roam.

Through open chinks in cottage wall Where rays of sunlight never fall, Where vapors visit soft furrows, In hopeless penury and scorn.

And heeding a wry stern decree, To fry lashed the foaming sea, High bounding up its snowy crest, To where you eagle builds his nest.

'Twas Christmas! And a boisterous song Arose from out the giddy throng; Some haste to join the whirling dance, Where sparkling eyes meet glance for glance.

To wile the weary hours away, [glance] Regretting oft their shorten'd stay, Some meet around the festive board, Where friend meets friend, a numerous hoard;

And kindred hearts sweet commune hold, 'Midst wealth of sympathy untold. But there are aching hearts to-day, Who turn with bitter thoughts away, From scenes of mirth and revelry, Which seem to mock their misery.

Within a silent chamber, Death (breath) Hath marked his prey! and with each That pure, young life ebbs fast away, To mingle with its kindred clay.

Long, weary months of patient pain When breaking hearts still hoped in vain, That death would lift his shady wing And rays of living promise bring;

But patient grew the aching brow, And fainter beat the dying pulse, The bitter struggle ceased to be, And Death last claimed the Victory!

O! who a mother's grief can tell! [knell] With heart all bruised and torn, That Had well nigh broke the bruised reed, Be hushed thy grief! in sorrow need, As arm all strong may raise thee up, And fill with joy thy bitter cup.

We cannot come to thee! But O! When called from this dark world of woe In climes of living beauty bright, And spirit clad in glowing light, We'll join the early lost! the blest, In that sweet land of peaceful rest, Petersburg, Hunt. Co.

Thoughts on Astronomy. Behold the Heavenly orbs that run In grand succession 'round the Sun; In strict obedience to the laws, Ordained by the Eternal Cause.

The fixed stars their stations hold, White comets fly from pole to pole; And planets in their grand career, Perform their rounds from year to year.

In regions where, one half the year The Sun's bright rays do not appear, To light the poor, 'half-living' soul, Who dwells too near the northern pole.

'E'en there the mystic "Northern Light" Disperses the darkness of the night, And there it shines, with sporting rays, And dances with perpetual blaze.

Mill Creek, Pa., Jan. 5. M. KEARNEY.

ASTOUNDING DEVELOPMENT!

ANOTHER OF CAMPBELL'S POSTMASTERS DETECTED.

THE WAY WE WERE DEFEATED. Perfidy of no Account with a Jesuit! READ! READ! READ!

The most startling developments are being brought to light in different sections of our country, showing the manner in which the so-called Democracy have elected their President and the means resorted to. The mails have been stopped, votes illegally polled, &c., &c.

In this county, the lowest and most startling tricks have been perpetrated, and the system of mail depredation carried to an alarming extent. The postmaster in Huntingdon Borough—William Lewis—has been playing a high-handed game in one matter, and we hope, for the sake of justice, that sympathy will not so far work upon the feelings of the gentlemen who have his case in hand, as to induce them to let him go unrebuked and unpunished.

We give below a copy of one of his letters, now in possession of one of our most excellent citizens. We copy it verbatim. Read it!

Post Office, Huntingdon, Pa. Nov. 3d, 1856. P. M. Coffee Run. You will give Mr. ALL PRINTED MAIL MATTER lying at your office for the offices beyond it.

WM. LEWIS, P. M. Paradise Furnace, Madsenville Three Springs. The story invented, that it was to hasten on the American newspaper's circulars, urging all Americans to vote the straight out Fillmore tickets is simply untrue; Mr. Gilliam informs us that according to these instructions to deliver "all printed mail matter," he gave up all in the office, and all "printed mail matter" was taken, with the exception of a bundle of the American newspaper's circulars. Now, if the circulars were the articles William Lewis the Postmaster, wished to have sent on with speed why, should they be the only articles left?

The note as published in last week's Huntingdon Globe, is not correct, as will be seen by comparing it with the original. The above is a correct copy as taken from the order now in good hands.

The laws of the United States speak in emphatic terms. Hear: "If any person employed in any department of the post office shall improperly keep, detain or delay any newspaper, or permit any other person to do it, or permit any other to open any mail, or packet of newspapers, NOT DIRECTED TO THE OFFICE WHERE HE IS EMPLOYED, for every such offence he shall forfeit fifty dollars. And if any person shall take any mail of newspapers from or out of any post office, or from any person having custody thereof, he shall be imprisoned at hard labor for a term of three months.

"If any person shall take with or without the consent of the person having custody thereof any packet from any post office, * * * such of fender shall be imprisoned for not less than 2 nor exceeding 10 years."

"Every person who shall advise or assist in perpetrating any acts by this Act forbidden, shall be subject to the same penalties as if he were the actual transgressor.

"The Huntingdon Journal was issued as usual on Wednesday."—Hunt. American of the 12th inst.

"The Journal and Globe editions were mailed in the Huntingdon office, on Wednesday afternoon."—Hunt. Globe 12th inst.

Now this proves the old adage, one lie produces another. To prove these gentlemen mistaken, we have only to produce the following: "I hereby certify that a part of the edition of the Huntingdon Journal was worked off on Monday, November 30, and mailed the same day. The remaining part of the edition was printed on Tuesday morning, and put in the office of Huntin don, in time for both mails."—Huntingdon, Nov. 18, 1856. W. MILLER.

Now this certificate proves conclusively that Mr. Lewis has criminally kept back the Journals in his office, for one day—after the election or, that he is telling a deliberate untruth; we cannot say which, but it must be one or the other. Here is the law, relative to this case, which we give without change.

"If any person employed in any of the departments of the Post Office Establishment shall unlawfully detain, delay, or open any letter, packet, &c., with which he shall be entrusted, or shall come to his possession, and which are intended to be conveyed by post, * * * every such offender, being convicted, shall be fined not exceeding three hundred dollars, or imprisoned, not exceeding six months, or both according to the offence."

"If any postmaster shall unlawfully detain in his office any newspaper, &c., with intent to prevent the arrival and delivery of the same to the person or persons to whom such newspaper &c. may be directed, or if any postmaster give preference to any newspaper over another forwarding the one and retaining the other, on conviction thereof he shall be fined not over five hundred dollars, and imprisoned for a term not exceeding six months, and shall forever thereafter be incapable of holding said office in the United States."

MEDICAL ADVERTISEMENTS.

Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age. Dr. Kennedy, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common pastures a remedy that cures EVERY KIND OF HUMOR, from the worst scrofula down to a common pimple.

He has tried it in over 1100 cases, and never failed except in two cases. (both thunder humors). He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of his virtue, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth. One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of Pimples on the face. Four or three bottles will cure the system of Biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of Erysipelas. One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humors in the Eyes. Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism. Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum. Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.

A benefit it always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken. Reader, I peddled over a thousand bottles of this in the vicinity of Boston. I knew the effect of it in every case. So sure was water will extinguish fire, so sure will this cure humor.

I never sold a bottle of it but that sold another after a trial it always speaks for itself. There are two things about this herb that appear to me surprising; first it grows in our pastures in some places quite plentiful and yet its value has never been known until I discovered it. 1846—second that it should cure all kinds of humor.

In order to give some idea of the sudden rise and great popularity of the discovery. I will state that in April, 1853, I peddled it and sold over six bottles per day. In April, 1854, I sold over one thousand per day of it. Some of the wholesale Druggists who have been in business twenty and thirty years, say that nothing in the annals of patent medicines was ever like it. There is a universal praise of it from all quarters.

In my own practice I always kept it strictly for humor—but since its introduction as a general family medicine, great and wonderful virtues have been found in it that I never suspected. Several cases of epileptic fits—a disease which was always considered incurable, have been cured by a few bottles. O, what a mercy it will prove effectual in all cases of this kind. It is a universal cure for lowly who have more of it than I have.

I know of several cases of Dropsy, all of whom aged people cured by it. For the various diseases of the Liver, Sick Headache, Dyspepsia, Acid Eructus and Ague, Pain in the Side, Diseases of the Spine, and particularly in diseases of the Kidneys, &c., the discovery has done more good than any medicine ever known.

No change of diet ever necessary—eat the best you can get and enough of it. DIRECTIONS FOR USE.—Adults one table spoonful per day—Children from five to eight years two spoonfuls, and from eight to twelve years one spoonful. As no directions can be applicable to all constitutions, take sufficient to operate on the bowels twice a day.

BALTIMORE LOCK HOSPITAL. DOCTOR JOHNSTON.

THE founder of this Celebrated Institution, offers the most certain, speedy, and a truly effectual remedy in the world for Gleet, Strictures, Seminal Weakness, Pain in the Loins, Constitutional Debility, Impotency, Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Affections of the Kidneys, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, Disent of Head, Throat, Nose or Skin; and all those serious and melancholy disorders arising from the destructive habits of Youth, which destroys both body and mind. These secret and solitary practices are most fatal to the victims than the song of the Sirens to the mariner Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes of anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible.

Young Men, especially, who have become the victims of Solitary Vice, that dreadful and destructive habit, which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of the most exalted talents, and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening senates with the thunders of eloquence, or waked to ecstasy the living lyre, may call with all confidence.

Marriage. Married persons, or young men contemplating marriage, being aware of physical weakness, organic debility, or other disease, should immediately consult Dr. Johnston. He will place himself under the care of Dr. Johnston may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

Organic Weakness. Immediately treated, and full vigor restored. This disease is the penalty most frequently paid by those who have become the victims of improper indulgences. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue.—Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of Procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habit than by the prudent. Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms to mind and body arise. The system becomes deranged, the physical and mental powers weakened, nervous debility, dyspepsia, palpitation of the heart, indigestion, a wasting of the frame, cough symptoms of Consumption.
