THE HUNTINGDON

M J L

THE undersigned owners of the Huntingdon Mill, inform farmers and the public generally, that they now have their new mill in running order, with all the modern improvements in the water wheels and machinery.

They have put in five of the Improved Junival Turbine Water Wheels, and can grind in all stages of the water, and during the coldest weather, any and all kinds of grain.

They are prepared to sell, and have on hand for sale at all times, at market rates, all kinds of FLOUR, FEED AND STUFFS, and farmers can have their own grain ground, and take it back in a return load, or they can be furnished in exchange at a moment's notice an equal quantity of Flour and Bran or chopped feed.

THE SHUT MACHINE is of an improved manufacture; and superior quality to every bushel of grain left at their mill.

FISHER & MCURTRE. N. B.—The Backwater stones are not quite ready. Huntingdon, December 10, 1856.

THE BOOK OF THE AGE!

RECOLLECTIONS OF A LIFETIME, OR MEN AND THINGS I HAVE SEEN IN EUROPE AND AMERICA.

By S. G. GOODRICH, the veritable "Peter Parley," author of "The History of all Nations," &c., &c. In two volumes, 150 pp., large 12mo.

25 engravings, including an accurate Steel Portrait of the Author. Price, Black or Scarlet Cloth, $5.00; Scarlet cloth, gilt edges $4; Half-cloth, marble edges, $5.00; gilt edges, $7.

This work embraces the prominent public events of the last half century, both at home and abroad; a complete and accurate history of the author's life, education, and literary career; and an amount of original curious, and valuable personal incident, anecdote and description, seldom, if ever, met with in a single work.

It is the author's life-long work, and nothing superior to it in its kind has ever been published. Mr. Goodrich is the author and editor of 170 volumes, of which seven millions of copies have been sold; and this the great work of his life time, embodies the condensed substance of his ample literary and practical experience: the work with England in 1812-14, in which Mr. Goodrich was a private soldier; the Hartford Convention, whose operations took place under his immediate observation, and with most of the members of which he was personally acquainted.
