

WILLIAM BREWSTER, EDITOR.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MARCH 25, 1857.

Not Such an Honor after All.

Jeff. Davis, who scribbles tirades against the veteran Scott, and shows himself to be a combination of small talent and pompous pretension, has gone out of one office into another...

Kansas a Slave State.

"Buchanan, Breckinridge and Free Kansas" says the Telegraph, was the false rallying cry of the Locofoco party in the late contest. The scheme succeeded in securing the vote of Pennsylvania and the election of Buchanan.

Kansas and the Administration.

No one can suspect Governor Geary of being so wicked a thing as a Black Republican. But it is sometimes almost as bad to be weak as wicked; and so the weakness of Governor Geary in trusting to the promises of Franklin Pierce has cost him a deal of trouble.

Not Yet Explained.

Our Representative at Harrisburg, Dr. John H. Wintroe, has not yet sent us his explanation relative to the course he has seen proper to pursue, in aiding indirectly in electing a Locofoco State Treasurer.

Sale of the Public Works.

We observe that a resolution has been again offered in our Legislature that the Committee on Ways and Means should report a new bill for the sale of the Main Line of our Public Works. We do from our hearts trust that some plan may now be devised by which we can get permanently rid of this incubus on our energy and resources...

Political Changes.

The political changes in the United States Senate during the progress of President Pierce's Administration, have been numerous and are commonly appreciated. The following table will exhibit how great has been the Republican gain:

The Railroad Accident—Further Particulars.

A despatch from Toronto announces the recovery of the bodies of sixty of the victims of the late terrible calamity on the Great Western railroad. The Hamilton Spectator, in describing the affair says:

General News.

Western Land Speculations. Mr. Greeley, of the N. Y. Tribune, in a tour to the West, and giving his opinion on matters and things. In one of his letters from Iowa, dated Iowa City, Feb. 3, 1857, he gives his views respecting the rage for speculation, now going on. They may be of interest to some of our readers:

Treason in Kansas.

The following act has passed both branches of the Kansas Legislature, and been signed by Gov. Geary:

Married.

GWIS—CONNINGHAM.—On the evening of 17th inst. this borough, by Rev. D. Shaff, Mr. David Patrick Gwin to Miss Louisa Conningham, all of Huntingdon borough.

Died.

MCCAHAN.—In this borough, on the 22d inst. Mr. John McCahan, aged about 80 years. Mr. McCahan was one of the oldest settlers in this place. He set up the first printing office ever opened in Huntingdon, and was the editor and publisher of the Huntingdon Gazette, the first newspaper ever issued in the place.

Affairs in Kansas—Cause of Gov. Geary's Resignation.

St. Louis, March 17th. The St. Louis Democrat publishes a statement relative to affairs in Kansas, given by Gov. Geary. The cause of the resignation of Gov. Geary is said to have been the failure of President Pierce to fulfill the pledges made at the time the appointment was conferred, to support him (Gov. G.) with the power of the army and militia, and the means of the Treasury, if necessary; but instead of receiving this aid, he has paid $12,000 out of his own pocket to meet the expenses of the administration...
