JOSEPH J. LEWIS,

OF CHESTER COUNTY.

David Wilmot, our Candidate.

We rejoice at the hearty response with which the nomination of Mr. Wilmot is met, by the American Republican press of the State. It argues a glorious victory—
It is true a few uninfluential and unimportant journals, such as the Daily News, Lancaster Citizen, and one or two other Locofoce Sheets, in disguise, are "kicking against the pricks," but their opposition a mounts to nothing;—they have no influence; the people have found out that they are always in the market, and like Hessian soldiers, always ready to fight for the highest bidder. Principle with such a set of men is a secondary consideration. The N. Y. Tribane speaking of our nominee, says that his nomination is a bold step on the part of the Republicans, Mr. Wilmot's name is a landmark in the history of our age. It was he who in 1846 lonved in the House the famous Proviso, that the Donards revolt uder the standard of Van Buren and Free Soil—His speeches for Free Labor and Fremont were among the most cogent and effective very seat remained and only of the neatest looking and ably conducted partical People, should not be poured out to add to the Slave Territory of this Republic. It was he who in 1848 led in Pennsylvania the Democrator revolt under the standard of Van Buren and Free Soil—His speeches for Free Labor and Fremont were among the most cogent and effective very best remedies for inflammatory diseases, in another column, is recommended as one of freedom, and descrete Soil—His another column, is recommended as one of freedom, and descrete situation of Savery in a Democratic candidate, requesting him to name a convenient time and place to add to the Slave Territory of this Republic. It was he who in 1848 led in Pennsylvania the Demogratic revolt under the sandard of Van Büren and Free Soil.—
His speeches for Free Labor and Free Soil.—
His speeches for Free Labor and Freemont were among the most cogent and effective of the many good ones which irradiated the late Presidential canvass. An earnest and tenacious Democrat; he did not hesitate to renounce the party organization to which he was devoted when he found its further support irreconciliable with his allegiance to vital Democratic principle. Mr. Wilmot ought to be the next Governor of Pennsylvania, and his election would redound to her enduring honor. It would show that the indignities heaped on Reeder and on Geary by the Slave Power are not unresented—that she is not unmindful of her sons who have been subjected to outrage and spoligation in Kansas for merenty seeking to make her a Free States to the atrocious Dred Scott decision.

If Pennsylvania is to be carried next acrocious Dred Scott decision.

If Pennsylvania is to be carried next october for the principles of the American Revolution, the work must be commenced now—not by mass meetings and by exciting speeches, but by quiet organization and the systematic diffusion of important truth. We trust the favorable season will not be suffered to pass unimproved.—

The Late Elections.

Governor of Kansas.

The Telegraph informs us that Robert J. Walker, So cretary of the Treasury under Presentert. Polk, and of late fancy financier and Railroad speculator, has been appointed Governor of Kansas, with F. P. Stauton, of Tennessee, as Secretary. Both of these appointments coming from the South, we may fairly conclude that we are reaching the last act in the drama of outrage, blood and murder, which has been enacted in that territory. Mr. Buchanan has been completely subdued by the Slave Power, and the fair promises that were made for him by his friends during the late Presidential contest, have vanished into thin air—Buchanan, Breckearidge and tree Kansas," like "Polk, Dallas and the Taiff of [842]" has now passed into an historical and political lic, and the issue has again been thrown upon the people where it must be encountered and final ty decided.

Senator Straub has been strongly urged to give his consent to the use of his name as candidate, but up to this time he has refused to give his assent. He may yet yield to the solicitations of his friends, however. The whole movement will soon be developed.

From Nicaragua.

From Nicaragua.

The steamship Texas has arrived at New York from Aspinwall, with later news from Nicaragua. Walker is said to have attacked the allies at San George and retreated to Biras, where Gen. Henningsen and his men had meantime repulsed an attack made by the allies. The latter were met retreating, by Walker, and being thus placed between two fires, suffered a loss of 527 killed and 309 wounded, while Walker lost 2 killed and 21 wounded. There were reports that President Rivas had been assasinated, General Canas arrested for making overtures to Walker, the allies retreated to Massaya, General Chillen had raised a force in Leon to join Walker, Col. Lockridge had received reinforcements, and that the Costa Ricans had opened the transit ronte to the English.
