

Huntingdon Journal.

NEWS ABOUT HOME.

OUR REPRESENTATIVE.—We recommend to our fellow-citizens, the propriety of getting up some substantial testimonial of their high appreciation of the laborious efforts in their behalf, of their late Representative, Dr. John H. Winthrope. We suggest, further, that said testimonial consist of a patent leather medal, with a medium sized hole therein, in which shall be placed a piece of red tape. Said medal to be presented to said gentleman immediately. Or if this be not approved by said constituents of said Winthrope, then, we suggest a testimonial of thirty (30) pieces of silver. This would be appropriate and we are led to believe more acceptable. We offer this suggestion on the ground that a faithful servant deserves a "kindly mention." Aside from all jokes, we cannot, for the life of us, see how a community could be humbugged into working up such material into Legislators. Had the county no better? To be sure she has, and let her hereafter use it. The nomination of such men will weaken our strength—as the past proves—until Locofocoism shall triumph; it must be stopped.—Since Mr. Winthrope has now some letters, he can enlighten the people of the county in his refusing to support the Opposition candidate for the State Treasuryship. The reasons he gave us, we did not consider ourselves authorized to publish. Events have since transpired, which bring us again to the original question, "Will Dr. Winthrope explain" to the public.—We have been beset by many good men thro' out the county for the reasons given us. We now reiterate that those reasons are unsatisfactory from events which have since transpired.

DISORDERLY.—Another drunken brawl occurred about 12 o'clock on last Saturday night, in one of the drinking-houses of this place, in which quite a number of our citizens participated. Dutch versus Segola; law order and private drinkers versus Germany and lumbago. It appears we have a class of citizens who pay their vows to Bacchus at the "wee sma' hours of the night" behind the door.—On this occasion they became riotous, and the consequence was a free fight generally. "Whither are we tending?" When the damning curse of intemperance is seizing upon the most promising of our youth, paralyzing the faculties of our best citizens, converting young and old, rich and poor, men in high stations and men of low degree, in our very midst, into beastly stots and worthless vagabonds, is it not time to shake off our stupor and awake in the cause of temperance? We have hard drinkers, moderate drinkers and old bruisers, and we will always have them unless we act with decision. Better far would it be to reclaim the poor, worthless, despised and degraded set, who apparently have brought their gray hairs in sorrow to the grave, than to heap up riches. For he that saveth a soul catcheth a multitude of sins.

THE BOYS.—Last week we spoke of our bad boys; we shall continue to give some of the causes which lead to their ill-behaviour. A very great cause is being out at night. It is one of the most ruinous, dangerous, mischievous things possible. Nothing so speedily and surely marks their downward course. We have a gain and again alluded to these melancholy facts, and must continue to do so while we have strength to lift a pen. It is ruinous to their morals in all instances. They acquire, under the cover of night, an unhealthy state of mind, bad, vulgar, and profane language, obscene practices, criminal sentiments, a lawless and riotous bearing. Indeed, it is in the street after nightfall, that the boys principally acquire the education of the bad, and capacity for becoming rowdy, dissolute, criminal men. Parents do you believe it? Will you heed it?—Will you keep your children home at night, and see that your homes are made pleasant and profitable? Or, take them with you to the house of God, of prayer and praise. "Evil communications corrupt good manners." "A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump." Beware of the serpent.

GAS.—We are glad to learn that the gentleman who has contracted for erecting the gas works at this place, has come on, and is now making preparations to begin the work. We had expected when the subject was first talked of that it would end in smoke, but we have been very agreeably disappointed. The unusual rapidity with which this project has advanced from a mere subject of conversation to a reality, is owing, mainly, to the energetic efforts of Capt. Dorris, Dr. McMurtre, Col. Orbanon, and others of our progressive citizens who are endeavoring to crowd out the spirit of "old fogyism" which has so long been paralyzing our faculties. "Huntingdon by Gas-Light," is not, therefore, a "dim and indistinct vision," but will shortly become a bright reality. Clear the track, old foggy, for the car of progress.

REMOVED.—Our worthy County Treasurer, Col. Frank Lane, has removed his office into the brick building opposite the Court House, formerly occupied by Col. Doyle, and lately used as Telegraph Office. Col. Lane is an obliging and attentive officer, an excellent financier, and a whole souled fellow generally.—Nothing could afford us greater pleasure than to have the Col. for our nominee this fall, as we are satisfied a more faithful officer could not be named; one who could attend more faithfully to the public interests.

STREET PREACHING.—The pastors of the Protestant Churches of this borough have made arrangements for preaching in the streets of this place, commencing on next Sabbath, and to continue during the summer, twice a month. The first sermon will be preached by Rev. O. O. McClean, commencing at four o'clock next Sabbath. The place will be Col. O'Connell's on Railroad street.

CHICKENS.—Hens disappear very rapidly in this neighborhood by a disease which they designate the "grab disease." Many roosters have been made desolate in a single night. It is said to be catching.

PROGS.—The dog star rageth on, and yet our "cullud" population will engage in fistfights. Quite an animated little batch of law-suits has resulted from a "rough and tumble" fight between a couple of "chattles in law," some two weeks ago, in the African church of this place. At the last accounts, however, matters were progressing towards a happy termination and a peaceable settlement of hostilities.

HOW IS IT.—Would it not be a good move for our town "fathers" to erect at the expense of the borough, a place of amusement for the rising generation? Say for instance a ball-alley, or something of that description. We observe that the Court House has been converted into a "sort of an alley" and the yard into a playground.

A CHANGE.—The Female School No. 2, has been removed to Miss D. W. Bambaugh; the late teacher, Miss L. Hildebrand, having resigned on account of ill health.

WE have just printed a large lot of blanks for premiums on Fox and Wolf Scalps. Call and be supplied.

DR. HARDMAN will be at Jackson's Hotel July 1. See advertisement.

Died.

In Petersburg, on Tuesday, 26th ult., Mrs. Elizabeth, wife of B. Lorenz, aged 37 years, 9 months and 14 days.

The deceased was a consistent member of the Methodist Church, and a true Christian.—In her early death she has lost a bright ornament, and the poor a firm friend. She is now enjoying that rest which remaineth for the people of God.

In Franklin township, on the 21st inst., Mrs. ISAB. LIA JAVIS, wife of Henry L. Harvey, aged about 27 years.

The deceased was a native of Lyncoming County, Pa., born in Jersey Shore, having resided for the last few years in this county. Respected and esteemed by all who knew her, a kind affectionate companion; a devoted and confiding friend; a consistent and worthy Christian; her sudden and unexpected departure has caused a void in the family circle, in society, and in the church of the Redeemer, which will not soon be filled.

Mysterious, unfathomable, and utterly beyond the comprehension of finite minds, are the ways of an All-wise Providence! How lit the did the writer of this brief notice suppose, when last we met together, when abating the joys, and partaking of the hospitalities of that happy family circle, that the peaceful home was soon to be overshadowed by the darkened wings of the "Destroying Angel," and that this low and feeble one, the measure of departed life, should be taken from the world, and the soul of Heaven. Happy for those who are left behind, if heeding this solemn admonition, "Be ye also ready;" we too be prepared to meet the pale messenger at his coming, and like her be able to exclaim amid the last throes of expiring nature, "All is well," through Him that hath loved us and washed us from our sins in His own precious blood.

How sweet it is to think, hereafter, when the spirit leaves its sphere, [her, That Love on deathless wings shall wait To all she loved and longed for here; And if no higher boon were given To keep our hearts from wrong and stain, Who would not strive to win a Heaven Where all we loved shall meet again! R. M. Hunt, May 30, '57.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

TO INVALIDS.—Dr. Hardman, Analytical Physician. Physician for Diseases of the Lungs, Throat and Heart—Formerly Physician to the CINCINNATI MARINE HOSPITAL, also to INVALIDS IN TREATMENT. Author of "Letters to Invalids," IS COMING. See following Card.

June & July Appointments. Dr. Hardman, Physician for diseases of the Lungs, Throat and Heart, (formerly Physician to the Cincinnati Marine Hospital), will be in attendance at his rooms as follows: Huntingdon, Jackson's Hotel Wednesday July 1, Lewistown, National Hotel July 2, Millin, Patterson House July 3, Hollidaysburg June 30, Altoona June 29, Johnstown June 27, Indiana June 26, Pottsville June 25, Pittsburgh June 19 & 24.

Dr. Hardman treats Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma, Laryngitis and all diseases of the throat and lungs, by medical Inhalation, lately used in the Bronchial Hospital, London. The great point in the treatment of the lungs is to get at the disease in the direct manner. All medicines are estimated by their action upon the organ requiring relief. This is the important fact upon which Inhalation is based. The reason that Consumption, and other diseases of the lungs, have heretofore resisted all treatment has been because they had never been approached in a direct manner by medicine. They were intended to act upon the lungs and yet were applied to the stomach.—Their action was intended to be local, and yet they were so administered that they should not act constitutionally, expending immediate and principal action upon the unobscured stomach, whilst the foul ulcers within the lungs were unmolested. Inhalation brings the medicine in direct contact with the disease, without the disadvantage of any violent action. Its application is simple, that it can be employed by the youngest infant or feeblest invalid. It does not derange the stomach, or interfere in the least degree with the strength, comfort, or business of the patient.

OTHER DISEASES TREATED.—In relation to the following diseases, either when complicated with lung affections existing alone, I also invite consultation. I usually find them promptly curable. Palpitation and all other forms of Heart Disease, Liver Complaints, Dyspepsia, and all other diseases of Stomach and bowels, &c. All diseases of the eye and ear. Neuralgia, Epilepsy and all forms of nervous disease.—No charge for consultation. S. D. HARDMAN, M. D. June 5, 1857.
