Wednesday Morning, July 8, 1857.

"Once more our glorious banner out / Into the breeze we throw; / Beneath its folds we throng and shout / We'll charge upon the foe."

FOR GOVERNOR, DAVID WILMOT, OF BRADFORD COUNTY.

FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER, WILLIAM MILLWARD, OF PHILADELPHIA.

FOR SUPREME JUDGES, JAMES VEECH, OF FAYETTE COUNTY. JOSEPH J. LEWIS, OF CHESTER COUNTY.

The New York Police Troubles seem to be approaching a termination. Not only has the Court of Appeals decided the law constitutional, but Mayor Wood has succumbed, and will disband his rebellious forces.

We invite particular attention to the card of the Huntingdon Seminary, in another column. We may with truth pronounce this institution one of the best conducted and most excellent seminaries for young ladies in western Pennsylvania.

Murder Trial.—John Pyles and Zachariah Pyles were tried in Waynesburg, at the last Court, upon a charge of having caused the death of a person who was named Jefferson S. Morris, which occurred on the 10th of February last.

The Lancaster Express gives an account of some pearls found in muscels by Dr. W. B. Fahnestock, Wm. Gill, and J. F. Reigart, at Beigart's Landing, Conestoga river.

The net amount in the U. S. Treasury subject to draft, is $20,000,000, of which sum there is in Boston nearly $3,000,000, in New York more than $8,000,000, in St. Louis nearly $1,000,000, in Philadelphia over $2,000,000, in New Orleans upwards of $3,000,000, and in San Francisco $1,500,000.

A Serious Mistake. A mistake of a singular character, and which has been a serious one to at least two of our citizens, occurred at the Cambria Iron Works on Saturday morning last.

Statistics of Boston. From Adam's Directory, we learn that there are in the city of Boston 945 streets, courts, places, etc.; 148 warves; 36 halls; 21 public buildings; 15 blocks of buildings, having distinctive names; 13 libraries—two free; 38 banks of discount; 5 saving banks; 38 insurance companies; 25 loan fund associations; 142 newspapers published; 102 churches, 120 male physicians—23 female; 168 clergymen of all denominations; 468 counsellors at law.

More Pearls. The Oswego Times of Thursday says:—"Pearls of various sizes continue to be found in the streams near this city. The most beautiful specimen of any we have yet seen was obtained yesterday by H. G. Eastman, Esq., during about an hour's search on the farm of Mr. Roston, some three miles from this city."

Forrester's Playmate for July, is before us. This neat, spicy and useful little work, published by Wm. Gould & Co., Boston, is of a very different caste from most magazines of the kind, and should be patronized by old and young.

Kennedy's Bank Note Review for July, is before us. The Kennedy publish the best in the State and we recommend it to the public.

Sale of the Main Line. We have announced heretofore the sale of the Main Line of the Public Works to the Penn'a R. R. Co. We have been asked the question when the company are to take possession. On this point we refer our readers to the following extract from the law:

Sec. 7. That as soon as the purchasers shall have made the payments and delivered the bonds in number, and for amounts equal to and falling due at the time provided for the payment of the respective installments, and shall have fully complied with the conditions of this act, then the Secretary of the Commonwealth shall transfer under the great seal of the State to such purchasers, their successors or assigns, upon such terms and conditions as are mentioned in this act, the whole Main Line public works between Philadelphia and Pittsburgh.

In connection with this subject, the following section may be of interest to some parties, and we append it: Sec. 8. That as soon as the purchasers shall have given notice to the Governor of their readiness to take possession of said works, he shall cause notice thereof to be given to all superintendents, toll collectors, officers and agents of the Commonwealth employed on or about said railroads and canals, who shall continue nevertheless to discharge the duties of their said offices or employments (at the expense of the purchasers of said main line) until removed or re-appointed by the Governor.

The Western Division. R. M. Riddle, Esq., editor of the Pittsburgh Commercial Journal, is now in Philadelphia and writing letters home. We find the following in one of his letters on the subject of the sale of the Main Line, and keeping the Western Division of the line open:

Mr. Thompson stated that he would cheerfully communicate to me his views, and he would give them fully, with no other reserve than that imposed by the fact, to which he carefully directed my attention, that these are but his individual views and opinions and cannot be authoritative until they have been approved by the Stockholders and Board. Mr. Thompson avows himself favorable, in the first instance, to offering the whole Main Line of the Canal, Eastern and Western Divisions, and the Portage Railroad, for sale together, to the highest bidder, retaining only the Columbia Railroad, to the end that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company shall own nothing but a continuous line of Railroad from Pittsburgh to Philadelphia, and disband the baseless clamor about monopoly of both lines, and oppression of canal freights.

In relation to the Western Division, he says an effort will be made to sell it, in default of sale or lease, he would offer it to the counties through which it passes, and the official that they should keep it in navigable order. In any event, and under the most adverse circumstances, he holds that the water power on the Northern Division, from Blairsville to Pittsburgh, will suffice to keep that much of the Canal from Blairsville to Pittsburgh will be kept up and open forever.

Minnesota. From Minnesota, we have letters and papers to the 22d instant, which still claim a Republican majority in the Constitutional Convention. The Minnesota of the 19th counts 60 Republicans to 42 Democrats, but admits that there are doubts hanging over the returns in several instances. Add to this, Hennepin County elects two members as a Council District and four more as a Representative District. The Republicans printed their ballots correctly and so voted them; the Democrats, by a mistake, vote for six Delegates without distinguishing between Council and Representative Districts. The Register of the County (the Rev. C. G. Ames), after taking counsel threw out the Democratic ballots, as not cast according to law, whereby all six Republicans are of course elected; whereas, if the votes had all been counted, four of the Democrats and but two Republicans would have been chosen. Gov. Medary thereupon removed Mr. Ames from office, but the Board of County Commissioners immediately reinstated him.

Mr. Ames did his duty according to law and is unjustly assailed therefor. He had no right to go behind the returns, not to presume an intent on part of the voters which their ballots did not specify. But the Convention is under no such restraint; and, if the facts shall appear to be as above stated, we trust that the four Democrats will be admitted to their seats so soon as possible after those facts shall have been established. It is of far less consequence that the Republicans should have a majority in the Convention than that they should refuse to take advantage of a mere blunder on the part of their adversaries.

Statistics of Boston. From Adam's Directory, we learn that there are in the city of Boston 945 streets, courts, places, etc.; 148 warves; 36 halls; 21 public buildings; 15 blocks of buildings, having distinctive names; 13 libraries—two free; 38 banks of discount; 5 saving banks; 38 insurance companies; 25 loan fund associations; 142 newspapers published; 102 churches, 120 male physicians—23 female; 168 clergymen of all denominations; 468 counsellors at law.

More Pearls. The Oswego Times of Thursday says:—"Pearls of various sizes continue to be found in the streams near this city. The most beautiful specimen of any we have yet seen was obtained yesterday by H. G. Eastman, Esq., during about an hour's search on the farm of Mr. Roston, some three miles from this city."

It is reported that David C. Roderick, U. S. Senator from California, is so dissatisfied with the course of President Buchanan, that he is about to take the lead of the Republican party in the Golden State. He is now ill at Sacramento, and refuses all medical attendance.

What will Honest Men do with the Lancaster Ticket? Why is there a third ticket in the field this year in our State? Is it reasonable that any one who pretends to be opposed to Locofocoism should sustain such a ticket? Can his pretensions, so long as he does so, be admitted to be sincere and honest? If not, what construction can any candid man put upon the course of those who sustain such a ticket? Assuredly no other than that it is their intention to elect, if possible, the Locofoco candidates.

But, says some straight-laced Know Nothing American Ishmaelite, let Mr. Wilmot withdraw, and let his friends accept Mr. Hazlehurst in his stead! There is a species of modesty which a distinguished barrister of our city calls "cool," and the coolness of which is amusing, if not always refreshing—but the modesty which suggests the retirement of Mr. Wilmot in favor of Mr. Hazlehurst is so cold, that it freezes right fast to us, and we can scarcely resist the temptation which prompts us to demand that Mr. H. retire from the field which his interference only embarrasses, and we forbear and content ourselves with saying that we doubt his altering the result very materially, for it seems reduced to a demonstration that either Mr. Wilmot or Mr. Packer will have a clear majority of the whole vote of the State, and that Mr. Hazlehurst will be Mary-landed into nowhere.

To show the absurdity and arrogance of this demand of the fanatical and bigotted Pharisees of the Straight wing of Americanism, we need only refer to the Presidential vote last fall, when

Table with 2 columns: Candidate, Votes. Buchanan received 230,500 votes. Fremont, 147,447. Fillmore Union 55,291.

We need not say how reasonable it will be regarded to be by all plain practical men that 203,338 voters should yield the right of nominating candidates for the anti Locofoco party of the State to 26,336, of whom scarce one in ten now sympathize with the movement that originated the factious ticket headed Hazlehurst. It is scarcely to be presumed that a few noisy cabalers, who live by speculating on outside chances and oblique perquisites, will be able to seduce many votes from the path of sound policy, however they may exert themselves. Hypocrisy and deceit are always sure of reward. All sound-minded and high-minded electors will vote either for Wilmot or Packer. All Americans who do not wish to be regarded either with pity or contempt next fall, will either honestly make good their boasted antipathy to Locofocoism by voting for David Wilmot, or claim their full share of their credit of defeating him by a bold and acknowledged support of Mr. Packer.

Nothing is more disgraceful than carrying water on both shoulders, except a cowardly refusal, when duty calls, to carry it on either. We are opposed to all tertium quide, which are generally neutral substances, base precipitates, impossible to digest, and are aculeus upon the gastric organs of the body corporate. No vote can be given honestly next fall except it goes for Wilmot or for Packer, and no intelligent voter will honestly vote for the latter.—Sun.

Kansas. W. F. M. Amy, one of the leaders of the free State party in Kansas, has arrived in Chicago direct from the Territory, and informs the editor of the Chicago Tribune that, under the authorization of the Topeka Legislature, the marshals and deputies appointed by Governor Robinson are engaged in taking a careful census of the population, setting forth the number of women and children, and the colored population, free and slave, setting forth the number of voters resident for six months, and the whole number of voters.

In the county of Anderson, where Mr. Amy resides, there are fully 600 voters. The free State men are united, harmonious and sanguine of success on the first opportunity they can obtain of showing their strength. They refrained everywhere from voting at the recent election, and hence there only 1600 votes polled out of an adult male population numbering 20,000. Mr. Amy represents that Governor Walker's party is in a minority among those participating in the late election, and that the majority is opposed to submitting the constitution to a general vote for ratification.

This fall another election is to be held for delegate in Congress and member of the Territorial Legislature, at which the Stringfellow faction say that none shall be allowed to vote except the few who have been registered. Governor Walker had been asked for his opinion as to who are entitled to vote, but he declined giving it.

The free State men are bound to vote at all hazards. The most remarkable part of Mr. Amy's narrative is that emigration still continues to flow into the Territory in an unabated stream, and that speculation and enterprise are making long and rapid strides. Crops look well, and there is a flattering prospect of raising a good supply of breadstuffs.

The Richmond Va., Enquirer, in the course of an article on the subject of Kansas, says "there is, we think, little doubt that the pro-slavery settlers have abandoned the idea of success." It goes on to argue that the admission of Kansas as a free State is an inevitable result, and one which the South ought to be satisfied. This contrasts strangely with the following extracts from the Albany Argus, a paper issued in the free State of New York:

"We understand the [Kansas] census act to have been an equitable one, and honestly administered." "If the new constitution is submitted to the body of electors thus enrolled, it will be all we ask. It is neither practicable nor proper to make a new census."

The National Intelligencer, in the course of an able article, cites the opposition to the reference of the Kansas Constitution to a full and fair popular vote, as an evidence that the squatter sovereignty inventors are sick of it. For such opposition can only have its origin in a belief that the majority of the people of Kansas are opposed to Slavery. And, if this be the case, what can be gained by forcing upon a State government which they can repudiate at any time after its installation?

For the Journal. FOURTH OF JULY AT COALMONT.

At an early hour commenced the assembling of the most numerous and respectable assemblage that ever convened at Coalmont, or vicinity. At 9 o'clock, a. m., the "Broad Top Rifle Rangers," under the command of Capt. Jos. S. Reed, formed in the square of the village, as per arrangement, for the reception of the delegations by the excursion from Huntingdon. After the arrival of the train, and reception of the different delegations by the military, who performed admirably until about 11 o'clock, when they, with the masses, repaired to the Grove, where a stage had been erected, seats provided, and table spread.

An organization of the vast assemblage was made by the selection of Levi Evans, Esq., as President; John T. Shirley, A. W. Evans and George Roads, Esqrs., Vice Presidents; and John D. Gill and J. Simpson Africa, Esq., Secretaries. The Declaration of Independence was then read by Edward McHugh, Esq. The orator of the day, GEN. JOHN WILLIAMSON, was then introduced, who acquitted himself in his usual eloquent style, alike honorable to himself and the day celebrated. The meeting then adjourned and repaired to the well-furnished table, and partook of the sumptuous repast provided by Capt. Jos. S. Reed, after which a re-assemblage took place at the stand. Gen. WILLIAMSON was again called upon and responded in an able and appropriate address. Edward McHugh, Esq., being called responded in a fluent and elegant speech, after which the Committee on Regular Toasts reported the following, which were read by J. Simpson Africa and unanimously adopted amidst the most enthusiastic applause.

The Day we celebrate. Our country, our whole country; our country right, but right or wrong our country.

The Constitution.—The fundamental law of the model government of the whole world. The star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave o'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave. Its ample folds wave on every sea in the known world. Respected at home, honored abroad.

George Washington—Illustrous in the galaxy of greatness, may his actions ever be held in grateful remembrance by his countrymen.

Thomas Jefferson—the author of the Magna Charta of human rights. He receives, as he is justly entitled to, the meed of praise of every true American citizen.

The Signers of the Declaration.—May their bold and independent action be held in sacred recollection by the people of this Union.

The Army and Navy.—The bulwark of our nation, the protector of our rights; their brilliant achievements have shed an undying lustre on the American arms and American flag.

The President of the United States.—Occupying the proudest position on earth, and wielding the destinies of a favored nation, may he be guided in the execution of his exalted trust by wisdom commensurate with his impartial station.

The Governor of Pennsylvania.—As Chief magistrate of this great Commonwealth invested with the reins of government—may he assiduously guard and extend her interests.

The Ladies.—Like the Marys of old may they ever be found performing the good part—palsied by the tongue and accused by the fiend that would dare to utter sentiments derogatory of their exalted character.

The orator of the day—As Saul among the people, as Cicero among the orators—so is the speaker of the day. VOLUNTEER TOASTS. By S. Brooks, Esq. The Union—Brightened and embellished by the smiles of Heaven, and preserved by the wisdom and patriotism of enlightened statesmen. May it remain sure and unshaken, after all the monarchies of the old world have tottered and fallen.

By K. A. Moore, Esq. W. P. Schell and L. v. Evans—Founders of Coalmont—Pioneers of Improvement.—The forest yielded to their enterprise, and a peaceful and happy village reared in its stead. May it remain an enduring monument of their energy and perseverance.

By John Hamilton. May the sons of the sires who for liberty fought Remember till death how dear it was bought; And laying aside all other employ, Annually celebrate the fourth of July.

Broad Top Rifle Rangers.—Whether natives or foreigners, and especially Capt. J. S. Reed, who when his country called did not hesitate to march to a southern clime, to chastise Mexican impudence.

Peace to the soldiers who died in the jar Fighting for justice in a Southern war; Whether buried or not, may their bones ever rest.

And long be remembered, perpetually blest. By J. K. Lively. The flag of our country—Emblem of liberty, let it ever be unfurled to the gaze of admiring nations.

By W. R. Wimer. The whole souled delegation from Huntingdon—Made up of Ciceros, Apollons and Rothachilds. Long shall they be remembered.

The following resolutions were then adopted: Resolved, That the thanks of this company are tendered to our host and hostess. Resolved, That a copy of the proceedings of this celebration be handed by the Secretaries to the editors of each of the papers published in Huntingdon, with a request to publish the same, when on motion adjourned.

J. D. GILL, J. S. AFRICA, Sec'ys. Cincinnati has been visited with a destructive conflagration. The loss is estimated at $330,000. It broke out in an extensive cabinet warehouse, owned by Johnson, Macder and Co., who lose $100,000, with insurance of $30,000. The flames spread to the adjoining property devastating a number of buildings and injuring many others. The casualty throws out of employment some three hundred operatives.

Colonel Hatten and General Harris are stumping Tennessee for the Governorship and at a meeting which they both attended recently, Hatten used language which exasperated Harris and he knocked him down. The difficulty was subsequently amicably settled.

Pencil Notes.

A chief's amony ye takin' notes. And faith, he'll print it.

Douglas Jerrold is dead.

Catnip, bruised and applied to the wound is a cure for the bite of a spider.

Wheat, the American candidate for Judge in Kentucky, is elected by 400 majority.

There have been seventy murders committed in New Orleans during the last fifteen months.

The heavy bloom upon the locust trees—said to be an infallible sign, gives promise of an abundant yield of corn this year.

The best capital for a young man is a capital young wife. So a young gent informs us who has just "gone and done it."

The shipments of coal from the Broad Top Mines, for the week ending Thursday, July 2d, were 2360 tons; for the year, 37,880 tons.

A French wit said of a man exceedingly fat, that nature only made him to show how far human skin would stretch without breaking.

The street preaching was held on Smith street last Sabbath. Rev. Still delivered a very excellent sermon, which was listened to with marked attention.

A Welsh miner named John Thomas, was killed in a drift near one of the Cambria Iron Company's Furnaces at Johnstown, last week, by the slate roof giving way.

A hen in Salem has laid twelve eggs in seven days; and a cow in New Sharon, Me., has produced five calves within the last 13 months; total weight of the five, 312 pounds.

E. L. Anderson, A. King, S. L. Russell and others, give notice in the Bedford papers that they will apply to the next Legislature for a charter for a bank to be located at that place.

It is stated by the Alta California, on the authority of miners, that more than $15,000,000 of gold now lie buried beneath the earth in that State, secreted solely for safe-keeping.

George E. Clayton, a most vile Proslavery Probate Judge of Brown county, Kansas, is in jail at Chicago, Ill., awaiting his trial on a charge of passing counterfeit money in that place.

Judge Wilmot has challenged William F. Packer to meet him on the stump, and discuss the principles of the two respective parties and the issues before the people at the ensuing campaign.

We are requested to state to the roque who stole a rug from a door step the other evening, up town, if he wishes to get teeth inserted gratis, he can try it over again. There's a big dog behind the door.

Pickles has discovered a new sense in which the new cents are a nuisance—the bird loo-s like a carrier pigeon on various new sense-bearing notes hence; but then as he is one cent, it is a proper device for one cent.

Kitchen girls are now-a-days termed "young ladies of the lower parlor." People who go about grinding knives, scissors and razors, are termed "gentlemen of the revolution."

Frightened to Death by the Comet.—The Trenton State Gazette says that a woman resident in Ocean county, N. J., was frightened to death last week by the idea of the comet! At night she saw a light from a large fire in the pines, and was immediately possessed with the idea that it was the comet, that the earth was on fire and about to be destroyed. Her alarm was so great that she was thrown into convulsions, from the effects of which she died the same night.

By S. Brooks, Esq. The Union—Brightened and embellished by the smiles of Heaven, and preserved by the wisdom and patriotism of enlightened statesmen. May it remain sure and unshaken, after all the monarchies of the old world have tottered and fallen.

From Kansas. RESULT OF THE ELECTION.

In every county, so far as heard from, the returns of last Monday's election show a miserable meager minority. Leavenworth, with two tickets in the field to bring out a full vote, not only of the Southern Democracy but of the whole State, could poll only 235 votes; Dea Three precincts not heard from will not increase the vote to 600 in Leavenworth county. The whole number of registered voters, unfairly as the census was taken, is 1,837. Douglas county polled 230—registered voters, 1,300. Shawnee, 60—registered 283. Franklin, 20 or 30 Calhoun, so far as heard, only 2 or 3. It is generally admitted that the entire vote of the Territory will not exceed 1,500 or 2,000. Registered 9,251.

Will this open the eyes of the Governor? On what side is the "miserable minority"? What will he say? I have nothing to do with election of Delegates. "I am only looking to the future. The Democratic National Convention of 1856?"

But where is the population that Kansas has had for the last two years? The Democracy on the 30th of March, 1855, polled over 5,500 votes. The three towns of Delaware, Leavenworth and Kickapoo, 18 months ago polled for the location of a country seat, over 2,500 votes. On the 1st of Oct. 1855, Delaware polled for Whitefield 227 votes. Now 49. How are the mighty fallen! [Del. (Kan.) Free State.

The Squatter Sovereign thus notices the election: The election for delegates to a Constitutional Convention on Monday last was a more decided failure than even we anticipated. Only 209 votes were polled in the county, where no one doubts that there are 1,200 legal voters, 800 of whom were registered. Whether the gentlemen elected will or will not feel that they are fully empowered to speak and act for the people of the Territory, we are not able to say.

If the vote is as meager in the other counties of the Territory, we doubt whether the Convention will ever be able to get together a quorum of members to organize and proceed to business. Certainly it will not if the Delegates elect regard the assembling of the Convention with as much indifference as the people regard the elections. The truth is, that the people of Kansas of all parties are sick of politics and the unhealthy excitement flowing from them, and are determined for a season to enjoy peace and quietude.

THE WAY THEY GET RICH OUT WEST.—The Newburyport Herald relates the experience of a friend, just returned from the West. He says: Here is the whole story. We complain of hard times, and go West to better our condition. If we would live in a log or mud house with one room and no floor, also on straw, go barefooted, wear the cheapest and coarsest clothing, and deprive ourselves of all the comforts of life, anybody might squat upon two acres of common pasture, and with the same labor, be as rich in seven years as upon any half section of land in Kansas; and if there were hundreds thus squatting, they could get up a land fever speculate in lots, and have the prices go up as they do in the West.

What people save in the new States they crush out of themselves, and that they do anywhere. All the advantage they have is, the privilege of living as mean, and being as mean, and having their children as mean, as human nature will bear, with nobody to find fault with it while here, living in the same manner they would separate from the masses as much as the gipsies do. If any of our people wish to learn practically about this matter, let them take a view of the basket-makers as the drive into market from New Hampshire, and find fault with it while here, living in the same manner they would separate from the masses as much as the gipsies do.

THE GREAT OHIO DEFALCATION.—The sum of money stolen from the State Treasury of Ohio by John G. Breslin, late democratic Treasurer, amounts to nearly one million of dollars! At first rumor reported it at a quarter, then half a million, next at three quarters, and now, when the whole truth is known, it appears that this democratic office holder has actually purloined of the people's money, the enormous amount of $963,655.73, without reckoning interest.

HURLEY'S SARAPARILLA.—The wonderful properties of this medicine, its specific action in cleaning and thoroughly removing from the blood; place it foremost among the remedies of the day. At this season of the year its use is attended with marked benefit, and will be found the best restorative for that depressed condition of the system so frequent at this period of the year.—Lodge (Prelim) Texas.

"WOODLAND CREAM"—A Pomade for Beautifying Hair—highly perfumed, superior to any French article imported, and for half the price. For dressing Ladies' Hair it has no equal giving it a light glossy appearance.—It causes Gentlemen's Hair to curl in the most natural manner. It removes dandruff, and gives the Hair the appearance of being fresh shampooed. Price only fifty cents. None genuine unless signed FETHIDGE & CO. N. Y.
