FOR AUDITOR, PHILIP D. STEVENS, of Cass township.

WHARTON'S POSITION. The letter of our noble champion Levi Evans defining his position on the great issues, has had the effect of dragging poor Wharton from his seclusion and giving to the world another of his unparalleled productions.

Wharton speaks in the last American, and the correspondence which speaks his sentiments so plainly, appears under the signature of "Justice" in the same paper, (and we have no doubt is Wharton himself) and his language is as follows:

"I don't care much about this tax, one way or another. I always thought the principle wrong. I will go further and say that when the tonnage tax was repealed on coal and lumber, I considered it a step in the right track."

This is Wharton's platform; these his avowed sentiments. Here him and then read our champion Mr. Evans' letter. How will you decide, tax-payer? Can you, laying aside all considerations of character choose this man in preference to Mr. Evans, and remain true to your party, and your own interests? But here is Mr. Evans' letter:

To the Free and Independent Voters of Huntingdon County.

Fellow-Citizens: As my name stands before you as a candid date for Assembly to which office I have no aspirations and present no claims on the country, for services rendered and political party—and inasmuch as questions of importance which will seriously affect the financial condition of this great Commonwealth, (the prosperity of which is of the greatest interest and should receive the candid consideration of every tax-payer of the State,) are presented to the people for their decision, it is expected that I should define my position and declare my sentiments in relation to those questions. The people of this Commonwealth are now called upon to express their preferences for or against the proposed appropriation of three millions of dollars of the proceeds of the sale of the Main Line of our Public Improvements, to the completion of the Suburby & Erie Railroad, and to the repeal of three mill tonnage tax now imposed by the Commonwealth on the Pa. R. R. Company. On these questions, I am free to say, that in case of my election I will "first, last and all the times," with whatever ability I may possess, oppose the appropriation of any part of the seven and one half millions for any purpose whatever, except to the liquidation of the onerous debt of our noble Commonwealth. I will oppose the repeal of the three mill tonnage tax, which, in my opinion, ought to continue as a source of revenue, to relieve the embarrassed condition of the treasury—which is felt by every tax-payer.

In taking this course, I am aware of the situation in which I am placed; that I incur the displeasure of the combined forces of the Pa. R. R. Co., that I have no money to spend in a campaign, no offices at my disposal, no money of corporations at my command, no hired press to sustain me, no shrewd political wire workers to operate for me, no means to have to contend against all the political maneuvering of the sharpshooters of all the political parties of the county, the combined forces of mammoth corporations, and all the collectors, lock-keepers, weigh masters, with a host of other employees along the Canal and Railroad. Nor do I expect any man to vote for me, unless he desires an increase of our State Tax. My desire is to lighten the burden of the tax payer, by appropriating all monies belonging to the State—after necessary expenses of government shall be met—to the liquidation of her indebtedness, so that we may yet see the day when our farms and workshops may be relieved from the heavy mortgage of FORTY MILLIONS OF DOLLARS, which now rests upon the property of every tax payer of the State.

With proper and economical management, the State Treasurer will never again be under the necessity of resorting to a loan, to meet the interest on the debt of the Commonwealth.—But on the contrary, eight millions of dollars could be paid the first year, and two millions annually thereafter, which arrangement would in the course of twelve or fourteen years, entirely wipe out the debt. Where is the farmer, or mechanic, or any tax-payer, who does not desire the payment of our State indebtedness, especially if it can be accomplished without any additional taxation? LEVI EVANS.

Judge Wilmot.

Twenty years ago Mr. Wilmot had just settled in Bradford county. He was poor, with out friends, unknown. In 1837 the Whigs carried the county, elected a Senator, notwithstanding the large Democratic majority in Susquehanna county; but from that year Mr. Wilmot's influence was felt; the county became more and more Democratic under his auspices. His popularity increased until he had placed the vote of his county beyond doubt. The change he had wrought made him one of the great men of the country in the eyes of his party. But that party forsook the landmarks of the olden time. Its truculence to the South became intolerable at last, and Mr. Wilmot forsook it rather than abandon his principles, and Bradford county bolted en masse. His eloquence, both in word and example, rallied the whole county on the side of truth, justice and humanity, against a bogus Democracy which had sold the government of the country at the price of a few leaves and fishes of office, to the slave power of the South. An exchange from Bradford promises Wilmot six thousand majority at the coming election. They gave Pollock twenty-five hundred majority; they promised three thousand for the Union State Ticket last fall, and gave over thirty-five hundred; they promised four thousand for Fremont, and gave him forty-five hundred, and if they now promise their own Wilmot six thousand, and should "spread themselves" and run it up to sixty-five hundred or seven thousand, "pardon something to the spirit of liberty" which animates them in this contest.

Keep it before the People.

That Henry S. Mott, Canal Commissioner, Charles R. Buckalew, Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, and others of the same ilk, plundered the Treasury of $3000! Keep it before the People. That Jacob Fry, Auditor General, and Henry S. Magraw, State Treasurer, both Democrats, connived at the fraud and paid the money out of the Treasury, in direct violation of law! Keep it before the People. That if they desire to protect the Treasury from plunder, and save themselves from onerous taxation, they must elect honest public officers to guard the treasure of the Commonwealth, and protect it against the leeches who have been sticking to it, and sucking its life-blood for years past.

Keep it before the People.

That the leaders of the Democratic party, from Packer down, are a gang of State Plunderers, who have swindled the Commonwealth out of millions of money, wrung from the sweat and toil of the honest tax-payer, and will continue to do so until they are driven out of office as they are deservedly.

Who Oppose Wharton's Election?

Do you ask who? Lend us your attention a moment and we will tell you. A majority of the decent and respectable members of society oppose his election. The President of the Convention which nominated him opposes his election. All who are opposed to the removal of the three "mill" tax oppose his election. All who are opposed to the $3,000,000 plundering scheme oppose his election. In fact everybody who is not connected with some monopoly, some "axe grinding" scheme, some straight-out, Locofoco clap-trap, or who is not blind to his best interests and the interests of society, opposes his election.

For the Huntingdon Journal.

Messrs. Editors: We have been greatly amused during the past few weeks with the weak, and imbecile productions of Tod, alias Justice, who scribbles for the Huntingdon Journal. His attempts to palm them off as coming from this township, brings to our remembrance the imposition attempted by Mrs. Cunningham, except instead of being a real, living baby, his has been a complete abortion.

We should think from his views, and exposition of the "Tonnage Tax," and his style of writing, that he is "some" among the "literati." At least he appears to come up to Col. Wharton's standard. Indeed he appears to form the principal plank in the Col's platform. As this platform appears in connection with "Tod's" or "Justice's" last grand effort we will give it a passing notice. Although the Col. wishes to be "understood," and says: "I elected I will not vote for the repeal of the tonnage tax," yet his "views" could be re-echoed in no plain language than that of your correspondent: "I do not care about that tonnage tax one way or the other!" And further, "when the tonnage tax was repealed on coal and lumber, I considered it a step in the right direction?" Honest voters of the county, look at this platform and be not deceived nor misled by it.

Mr. Tod promised to show us this week that the "little justice" as he is pleased to call Mr. Evans, paid five dollars to buy a delegate, but he failed to say anything about it this week. We pronounce Mr. Tod a base falsifier, and call upon him for the proof that Mr. Evans gave or offered money to any person for the purpose of influencing his vote. We seek for truth, and if this be true we wish to know it; but we know too well the honest integrity of Mr. Evans to credit such report coming from any source, much less emanating, as it does, from Mr. "Tod." Come, Mr. Tod, if the individual is still living who received the $5 let his affidavit accompany your next, also that of any other witnesses if there be any. A CITIZEN.

Tod tp., Sept. 15, '57.

Tremendous.—The efforts of Sammy to carry the election. It is hard working under the weight of a two span bridge, a three mill tax and a loan of $3,000,000 and other little matters.

WHARTON AND 'BLUD'

On Monday morning last, whilst quietly seated in our sanctum, ruminating upon the instability of human affairs, and cogitating upon the turns of the world in general, we were honored by a visit from one of our best citizens, who, after the usual salutations, informed us that he was the bearer of important despatches which concerned our happiness in general and our fair bodily proportions in particular. To be brief, he informed us that he, as our friend, was waited upon by a gentleman who was acting as agent for Col. Wharton, to state to us that if we continued our present opposition to Mr. Wharton, we should receive personal injuries! or to use Col. Wharton's own language, which he requested his agent to use, "THERE WOULD BE A 'BLUD' TIME!" Now we notice this merely to referate to this fight with him, Wharton, what we said all along—Let him know we can not and if we continue in our right mind will not, so help us God, aid in elevating to office every blockhead and blackguard who may consider himself capable of representing decent society.

We have given some of our reasons for opposing this man Wharton—those which are least weighty; but we have more, many many more, which we shall from time to time lay before our readers, between this and the election. We shall confine ourselves, however, in the present article to a brief glance at this threat. Does Sam Wharton, a man who has done nothing to gain the respect of decent men and respectable society, think, for one moment, that he can intimidate us by his threats? Does he think to awe us from the plain line of duty, which is the path of honor, by the assassin's dagger and the ruffian's bludgeon? Does he ignorantly think by his villainous threats, his low, dastardly, cowardly threats to force us from our position? If he does, whilst it betrays the true character of the man, and gives us an example of his intellectual abilities, it should please the people of the county on their guard. Just look at it: Here is a man, who, having all his life been a worker in the dirtiest kind of politics, assumes to control the interests of a party, has always secretly opposed, and is cowardly enough, because we do not see proper to acknowledge him as our candidate, and laying aside our self-respect and decency, espouse the doctrine of an illiterate, unprincipled demagogue, to send us word that personal violence will be used towards us. That brute force will be used to force us to acknowledge the claims of brute intellect! But let him be ware.

We shall, with all our abilities, all our energies, oppose Sam Wharton, and call upon all respectable men and men of intelligence, who desire the success of correct principles to do the same. In regard to his threats we have only one remark to make, i. e. we defy him. If he should attempt to carry his threat into execution, we shall be fully prepared, and if blood must flow in the language of the illustrious Siksey, "let her rip."

Houtz not Right "On the Goose."

Dr. Houtz, the Locofoco nominee for Assembly, is anxious to come before the Huntingdon Globe has constituted itself his spokesman, but we must hear him speak for himself. Come, Mr. Houtz, no dodging, we want you to come out fair and square.

Will They Take the Stump?

We understand that Mr. Evans, our candidate for Assembly has challenged Col. Wharton and Dr. Houtz to meet him on the stump, to discuss before the people of the county the issues involved in the present campaign, and to define their positions on those issues. Dare they face the music? Dare they meet our candidate?

OUR BOOK TABLE.

The Inventor for September is before us. It is an excellent little work, and should be patronized by all mechanical men. Published by Low, Haskell & Co., New York, at $1 per year.

Peterson's Magazine for October, is on our table. Published by C. T. Peterson, Philadelphia, at $2 per annum. It is a very excellent and very cheap magazine. Indeed it is one of the very best in the country.

Graham's Magazine, the pioneer of books of its class, is one of our favorites. The October No. is particularly charming, abounding in the most interesting reading and beautiful engravings, &c. Published by Watson & Co., Phila., at $3 per annum.

Godey's Lady's Book for October has been received. We see that Godey has been awarded by a Committee at a State Fair in one of the Western States, a premium for publishing the best ladies' book in the country, over fifteen competitors. That is sufficient. Published by L. A. Godey, Phila., at 3 per annum.

The United States Magazine for Sept. is before us. It is one of the books in subscription for which you "get your money's worth" in good and interesting matter. We heartily recommend this book to the attention of the reading public. Published by Emerson & Co., New York, at $3 a year.

The U. S. Journal published monthly by the same firm has been received. It is an excellent paper.

The Lost Daughter; and other Stories of the Heart, by Mrs. Caroline Lee Hentz. Author of "Linda," "Rena," "Plante's Northern Belle," "Edeline," "Marens Warland," "Love after Marriage," "Robert Graham," etc., etc. Complete in one large handsome volume, neatly bound in cloth, for one dollar and twenty-five cents; or in two volumes, paper cover, one dollar.

The above work is published by T. B. Peterson, No. 306 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, who will send it to any part of the Union on receipt of price. It is an excellent work, and we recommend it to the public.

Mrs. Hale's Receipts for the Year; containing four thousand five hundred and fifty-five receipts, facts, directions, knowledge, etc., in the useful, ornamental and domestic arts, and in the conduct of life. Being a complete family, or directory and household guide for the million. By Mrs. Sarah Josepha Hale. Complete in one large volume, 800 pp.—Price $1.25 a copy.

This is an encyclopedia for the whole country, from which any person may obtain information, which would otherwise require years of hard study, and an acquaintance with numerous volumes. Sent, free of postage, on receipt of price, by T. B. Peterson, 306 Chestnut St., Philadelphia.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Friday afternoon last a man named Michael Peters, was killed by a tree falling on him whilst he was chopping in the woods in Snyder township, in this county. The tree had lodged, and when finally it fell it caught him on the middle of his body across a log and crushed him dreadfully. He survived however until next morning. He leaves a dependent wife and family to mourn his sudden death.—Hol. Reg.

ALLEGED HORSE THEFT CAUGHT.—Some four weeks ago a man hired a span of horses and a buggy from Mr. Williams, in Huntingdon, and afterwards sold them in Bellefonte. The fellow managed to elude apprehension; but on last Friday Mr. Eluis Livergood, of Goshen township, got on the track of a fellow named Beer, who was suspected of being the thief, and he and his dogged him in the jail at this place. In the beginning of this week, he was taken to the jail in Bellefonte, where he will be tried, a warrant for his arrest having been issued there at the instance of Mr. Bible, to whom the horses have been sold.—Clearfield Journal.

PHILADELPHIA MARKETS.

The tendency of Flour is downward, some shipping brands sold at 5 7/8 per bushel, and extra family at $7.25. Rye Flour is held at 4.50 and Corn Meal at $4 per bushel. Wheat has not changed. Rye is sold at 75 cents. Corn is steady at 74 cents. Oats are lower and sell at 33c per bushel.

TO THE MILLION.—Prof. W. M. of St. Louis, has after years of deep study and untiring research, succeeded in presenting to the public an article superior to any now in use, and it is truly a wonderful discovery—we advert to his Hair Restorative; the only article that has been completely successful in changing the color of the hair, removing dandruff, itching, scurf, &c. It restores the gray headed to more than the original beauty, adds new-hair to locks already luxuriant; having the effect on coarse, harsh hair to render it soft and wavy; fastens permanently hair that is loose or falling, and many other qualities which will become known as soon as used. The price of this marvellous and singularly developed article, in the keeping and arrangement of the hair; perhaps from the fact that it is the only portion of the human body that we can train in any way we choose; how important then, should this portion tend to our care, that we should use all the means science has placed in our hands to render it beautiful and glorious. It has a permanent effect, and grows as hair, permanent hair, hair to its natural color, and is perfectly preserved to extreme old age, and will not purchase Woods' Hair Restorative. [Daily Iowa State Gazette.]

Late discoveries in Pathology show that very many of the diseases which afflict mankind arise from impurities of the blood. It has long been suspected but is only lately known. In consumption, tubercles are found to be a sedimentary deposit from the blood.—Dropsy, Gout, Cancer, Ulcers and Eruptions, all arise in disordered deposits from the blood. Bilious diseases and fevers are caused solely by its impurities, and it is even the cause of the decline of life follows a want of vitality in the blood. In view of these facts Dr. Ayer deigned his Cathartic Pills, especially to purify and invigorate the blood, and hence we believe to arise its unparalleled success in controlling and curing disease.—Medical Journal.

It seems that Rheumatism, Deafness, Neuralgia, Swollen and Stiff Joints and other Complaints to which we are all subject, have lost their terrors. Prof. Dr. Gray's Electric Oil is warranted to relieve any case in a short space of time and with a trifling expense. It can be had of the agents. See advertisement in another column.

500 AGENTS WANTED.

A HOME-LEAD FOR $100.—Third Division, a $100,000 worth of Farms and Building Lots in the gold region of Col. prairie country, Virginia, to be divided amongst 10,000 subscribers on the 7th of December, 1857. Subscribers only take dollars down, or five dollars down, half down, the rest of the delivery of the deed. Every subscriber will get a Bu. Ring or a Farm, ranging in value from $10 to $25,000. These farms and lots are sold so cheap, that settlements, a sufficient number being required, the increase in the value of which will compensate for the apparent low price now a-kin. Upwards of 1,200 lots and farms are already sold, and a company of settlers called the "Appalachian Emigrant Association" is now forming, and will soon commence a settlement. Ample security will be given for the faithful performance of all contracts and promises. Nearly 45,000 acres of land, in different parts of Virginia, now at command, and will be sold to settlers at from $1 up to $300 per acre. Unquestionable titles held in all cases by given. Women, colored men, and all are invited to take part. Agents and liberal inducements will be given. Some agents write that they are making 200 dollars per month. FREEDLEY'S LEGAL ADVISER.

By the Author of a Praetice Treatise on Business.

The publishers take pleasure in announcing a book that they feel assured that business men will appreciate. The author, in his introductory chapter, says: "Millions of dollars have been expended by our ancestors in establishing and elucidating certain legal principles of constant application—not less than $500,000 it has been estimated, have been spent in explaining one section of our Statute—the Statute of Frauds—and it is reasonable to hope and believe that now, with the lamp of others' experience in our hands, we may discern what to do and what to avoid in ordinary commerce so as to escape the perils of litigation, and, if possible, if collisions must come, be armed for the contest with the law on our side."

THEO. H. CREMER, Auditor. Sept. 9, '57. 1y. 323 or 191 North 3d st., Phila.

THE APPLE HARVEST OF 1857 HAS ARRIVED.

And if you wish to make money, please your customers and save canvassing agents (who can make one, two and even three hundred dollars per month) from supplying the goods in your town and county which you ought to sell, you can do it by sending ten dollars for a sample copy containing six of Pratt's Apple Pares' (250,000 already sold) and Pratt's Apple Slicer, (a new article) and one thousand printed circulars to distribute in your town or county. By so doing you will find no trouble in ordering and selling at a very large profit, twenty or even a hundred dozen machines during the season.

PRATT'S APPLE PAREE was patented in 1855. Having a loose head of cast iron, so arranged as to readily adjust itself to the inequalities of the surface of apples, or other fruit, the working qualities of which have proved so excellent and so advantageous to the community, that the manufacturers, Messrs. Sargent & Foster, have already been called on to supply more than half a million machines.

PRATT'S APPLE SLICER, made to accompany the Paree, was patented in 1855. It is a perfectly constructed machine, and like its companion, the Paree, does most excellent work, cutting in about five seconds, each apple into twenty-two equal parts, leaving without waste, only a small core to be removed. A child can readily work either Paree or Slicer at a speed of about three hundred per hour.

Retail price of each $1.50. All orders by mail or otherwise should, to meet prompt attention, be addressed to E. L. PRATT, at a special of about three hundred per hour. 617 Sanson St., Philadelphia, Pa. Sept. 9, '57. -3t.

LAST NOTICE.

Persons indebted to the undersigned by note or book account, are requested to call and make payment on or before the 15th day of November next. All notes and book accounts remaining unsettled after that date, will positively be sued out without respect to persons. J. N. SWOPE, Alexandria, Aug. 12, 1857.

VERY SUPERIOR BLEND.

Persons desiring a very superior white fine cut wine, obtain it of the subscriber, as he has just put into operation, a large drawing mill, built upon an improved plan, and producing daily quantities of the very best quality. With facilities unsurpassed, and limestone pure as any found in the state, he feels confident that he can render complete satisfaction to those who give him a call. The attention of Builders, Farmers and all wishing to buy fine, is respectfully invited as well to his low rates, as to the quality of his wine. JOHN HAGEY, Coffee Run, September 2, 1857. -2m.
