THE LATE ELECTIONS.

The latest news from Kansas is cheering to the hearts of every true republican. It indicates the triumph of the free state, the free state delegate, and should the frauds in Johnson county be discounted by Gov. Walker, as it is said they will, the free state men will likewise have a majority in the convention. The frauds in Johnson county, perpetrated by the Border Ruffians under the notorious shot-in-the-back Sheriff Jones, were of so glaring a nature that even Gov. Walker is compelled to disavow them. The star of hope is beginning to shine on Kansas.

The official returns of the Ohio election, elect Chase the Republican candidate for Governor, by a handsome majority. When it is considered that the Democrats and Americans were united in opposition to the Republicans, and that Chase is elected over the combined powers of both, it then becomes one of the greatest victories on record. All hail Ohio! Nobly has the buckeye boys done their duty. Let the Republicans of Pennsylvania imitate their brethren in Ohio, and hereafter seek not accept of "entangling alliances," and victory will perch upon their banners.

Iowa too, has "come up to time" most magnificently. She has elected a Republican Governor, a Republican State ticket and Legislature, by increased majorities.

All have done well but Pennsylvania, and Republicans have none to blame but themselves, for the disastrous results in this State. Let them learn wisdom from the past, and hereafter avoid those shoals and quicksands which have been so disastrous. Let us now and forever support Republicanism for its principles, and not keep it to the earth by attaching to it this and that bauble, on the score of expediency.

Pennsylvania Election.

The full official returns of the election in this state show, as was to have been expected, a large decrease in the popular vote. The largest apparent loser by this is the Democratic party, whose vote now is reduced to a little more than 180,000. Yet this is a strong rally compared with that made by the opposition, the two divisions of which now only fell 169,970 out of an aggregate which last fall reached, on the Union State ticket, some 205,000.

The Fillmore votes cast for the Fillmore side of the Union Electoral ticket seem to have disappeared. Each branch of the opposition thus stands forth now distinct, and as this is the first State election in which they have acted antagonistically, the fact is important. The Fremont party was a mere temporary aggregation, but the Republican basis then laid is now evidently retained, while the National American organization has dwindled away to an insignificant size.

The Result in Kansas.

We would not raise hopes to be blasted; but unless there be gross tampering with the returns after they leave the various precincts, and unless the universal tenor of our reports be incorrect the Free State men will have a working majority in both branches of the Legislature. Parrot is elected beyond a doubt, by a large majority.

He is familiar with the history of Kansas. He knows the trials and sufferings which her people have undergone. He knows the outrages which were heaped upon them. He knows full well the judicial and military despotism which the Federal Government has established here. His voice will ring like a trumpet through the halls of Congress, as he holds these wrongs and outrages and cruelties up to the scorn and condemnation of the country.

Leavenworth County has been carried against us by the most infamous frauds. The same game was attempted in other counties, but the overwhelming numbers of the Free State men and their thorough organization, prevented its success.

So far as we have yet learned, there were no collisions between the people and the proslavery party at the polls, and the election was comparatively peaceful.

The entire result, as indicated by the returns thus far, is—

Giving a Free State majority in both houses.

Suspended Railroads.

Within the last thirty days the following railroad companies are reported to have either gone to protest on their floating debt, suspended or made an assignment of their property:

| | Council. | Reps. |
|------------------------------------|---------------|-------|
| New York and Erie, | 338,000,000 | 21 |
| Illinois Central, | 24,000,000 | 8 |
| Philadelphia and Reading, | 20,000,000 | 8 |
| Michigan Central, | 14,000,000 | 8 |
| Cleveland and Toledo, | 18,000,000 | 8 |
| Milwaukee and Mississippi, | 7,500,000 | 8 |
| La Crosse and Milwaukee, | 14,000,000 | 8 |
| Cleveland and Pittsburgh, | 6,000,000 | 8 |

| Cumberland Coal Company, | 7,500,000 | 8 |
| Huntingdon and Broad Top, | 1,200,000 | 8 |
| Steubenville & Indiana, estimated, | 5,000,000 | 8 |
| Total, | $181,700,000 | |

Affairs in Kansas.

The Charleston Mercury has information of recent date from Kansas, which it considers reliable, to the effect that Parrot is elected to Congress but that his election will be contested on the ground of the illegal voters from Nebraska; that the Legislature has a decided Democratic majority in each house, and that the Constitutional Convention will send the State constitution direct to Congress, without submitting it to the people for ratification.

Dr. Webb, just returned from Kansas, states the opinion expressed in Kansas when he left, was that the frauds were so large and palpable that the Democratic officials would not dare to sanction them, and that, therefore, the free State men would have the Legislature.

A letter dated Leavenworth, October 16th, says that Governor Walker and Secretary Stanton have notified Mr. Parrot that he could have his certificate of election without delay, and also that these officers had determined to throw out altogether the fraudulent return from Oxford precinct, and thus give the free State men a majority in the Legislature.

The evidence of the fraud was of such a glaring character, on the representation of those who went to Oxford, that Governor Walker and Secretary Stanton went down to the place, and on a search for the judges of the election who purported to have made the returns to them, found only one, and he denied having made any such as were alleged.

They also found that there were but about twenty people, all told, who resided where sixteen hundred and upwards were returned as having voted.

A letter dated Leavenworth City, October 18 reports that Gov. Walker had personally offered to give Mr. Parrot, the Free State candidate, a certificate of his election to Congress, but Mr. Parrot declined receiving it until the official returns were published by Secretary Stanton.

From the returns received at the office of Secretary Stanton up to the 18th inst., and which were counted by him as legal, the Legislature stands thus:—

| | Council. | House Reps. |
|------------|----------|-------------|
| Free State | 8 | 26 |
| Democrats | 4 | 13 |
| Doubtful | 1 | — |
| | 13 | 39 |

The letter also reports that, in consequence of immense frauds which had been perpetrated by the judges in several of the Democratic precincts, the Governor and Secretary had thrown out the votes of two whole counties and four precincts in other counties.

It is related that in Marshall county the judges and clerks sat in the second story of the house, and received tickets through a hole in the floor just large enough for a man's hand to pass through! Of course the judges could not see the person offering to vote, and one man could vote fifty times if he chose! By this plan the judges and clerks could swear that they did not see any illegal voting. Marshall county thirty-six freeholders as grand jurors, reported that there were not thirty-six inhabitants in the county! Yet a Democratic majority of four hundred was returned from this county. The vote was thrown out.

Worldly Preachers.

The German Reformed Synod of Pennsylvania is now in session at Allentown. Among the business to be brought before it, are certain charges against two Ministers of that persuasion, the one the Rev. Mr. Lescher, and the other the Rev. E. Helfrich, both of Northampton county. A committee of Ministers was appointed some weeks ago to investigate the matter. It was alleged against the former that he was deeply interested in some coal transactions in Luzerne county, in some way connected with the Northampton Coal Company, which was organized several years ago. It is not stated in what manner these transactions affected the standing of Mr. L., but the Ministerial Court voted to suspend him. Against the latter it was alleged that he was engaged in the Coal business—that he endeavored to defraud the Coal Company—he was entirely too worldly in his movements, trading horses, speculating in coal, slate, &c., and lastly, that at a picnic given some time ago he had joined in some sort of kissing party, as the young folks sometimes introduce for the sake of amusement, and that he had kissed the girls! The charges against Helfrich were not sustained, but the case is to be revived before the Synod and finally disposed of.

Iowa Election.

Returns of the Iowa election give the victory to the Republicans, who have elected their Governor and other State officers by an average majority of 3,000, which is a large gain over the doubtful result of the election last Spring. Returns of twenty-six counties show a Republican gain of 2,817. The Republicans are also said to have elected a majority to both branches of the Legislature. The latter is very important, as on it depends the choice of a United States Senator, to succeed Jones, Democrat.

PREMIUMS

AWARDED THE JOURNAL JOB OFFICE

AT THE LATE FAIR, FOR

THE BEST
BLANK AND FANCY PRINTING.

We see by the Harrisburg papers, that Gov. Pollock has, by proclamation, appointed Thursday, November 26, as a day of general Thanksgiving in this State. With a contemporary we agree that this year fasting and prayer would be more appropriate. Feasting and merry-making seem to be peculiarly out of place when "misery stalks over the land."

We are under the belief that grain of all kinds will be unusually cheap, the coming winter. Present indications at least point that way. Our farmers should dispose of their grain as soon as possible.

The above are the official returns of all the counties in the State except nine, which give Packer a majority over Wilnot of 43,639.—The counties yet to hear from will reduce this majority about five thousand.

Almost a Suicide.

A colored woman, the wife of Moses Pinckney, residing in this Borough, made an attempt to hang herself on the 18th ult., which had well nigh proved successful. She suspended herself by means of a rope to the limb of a locust tree, at the lower end of the Borough, and when discovered, and cut down by another colored person, was nearly dead; but by the remedial efforts of her friends and a physician, who was called in, she recovered again. It is said that with the assistance of some of the colored brethren of the Church she "got religion" that evening, after the hanging. She is a hard case, a regular votary of the whiskey cup.—Wrightsville Star.

FRIGHTFUL TRAGEDY.—A correspondent of the Baltimore (Md.) Patriot says that a man named Adams was recently married to a Miss Jenkins, in Ware county, Georgia, and a rejected suitor of the lady, named Harley, had vowed vengeance against both. On the 18th ult., Harley went to Adams' house, and finding nobody there but an old negro woman, he knocked her down with an axe, fracturing her skull, and then broke to pieces all the furniture. Next morning Adams went to seek Harley, and shot him in the arm, when they killed, and Adams was soon killed with a knife. Harley then shouldered the corpse and carried it to Mrs. Adams, who instantly fell in a swoon when the murderer cut her in a ghastly manner with his knife, which he then drove to his own heart, and fell dead. Mrs. Adams is not expected to recover.

MELANCHOLY.—We learn that a lad named White, about 15 years old, came to his death at Willow street, in this county, under the following circumstances: On Thursday evening his sister was married to a man named Lyons, and after the ceremony a band of "Calichumpans" made their appearance, who were finally invited in and treated. Young White drank quite freely along with the rest, and became so much intoxicated that he lay down on the carpet, where the family concluded to leave him till morning. On entering the room in the morning they found him dead. Dr. Frick made a post-mortem examination, and a coroner's jury was summoned, whose verdict has not yet been received; but we understand his death is solely owing to the excessive draughts of liquor he swallowed.—Len. Ex.

The New York Tribune predicts that by the 1st or middle of next December, at least one hundred thousand persons in New York will be out of employment and nearly out of means. The shipyards in New York are nearly idle, the foundries half working and the great clothing stores doing but very little. It is stated that women have recently come to New York from places 300 miles away in quest of work from the clothing stores, only to be turned off with none, and compelled to beg their way home again. The Tribune adds, that places have looked for servant girls, but they will look for places and be very glad to find them. It is predicted that soup-houses for hungry laborers, will be wanted before January! The Journal of Commerce is of opinion that hardly, since 1837, has so gloomy a prospect for winter lowered upon the laboring classes of New York.

Fatal Stabbing Affray.—A fatal affray occurred in Bedford county, Pa., on Saturday evening, the 10th inst. At a singing school, several young men got into a quarrel with a young man named Dillinger. In the affray a young man, by the name of Flick was stabbed by him, and died immediately. Another young man, named Weimer was stabbed in several places, but not dangerously. It is said that an old feud existed between the parties.

"The melancholy days have come."

Ohio has pretty certainly re-elected Gov. Chase, in spite of the false cry that the late Republican Treasurer had robbed the Treasury of a Million of Dollars, and the Life and Trust Company swallowed another Million. Every outside influence and local issue worked against the Republicans; and if they have indeed re-elected Gov. Chase, at a time of universal depression and destruction, they have done nobly. But we shall not halloo yet, though our own returns concur with the Telegraph in giving Gov. Chase an apparent majority of nearly 1,000.

Still later official returns from 48 counties show a majority of 1,917 for Chase, republican, for Governor. All the Republican State ticket is elected, except Blackedder, for the board of control of the public works. The Legislature is largely Democratic.

Lynch Law in Clearfield.—A number of valuable horses having been recently stolen in Clearfield county, the community became very much exasperated. One of the gang, named Robert Warden, was apprehended and lodged in Clearfield jail a couple of weeks ago, from which he escaped on the night of the 16th, stealing the Sheriff's horse, by way of bidding defiance to the authorities. He was pursued and caught with the horse in his possession. This so incensed the Clearfield folks that upon the return of the prisoner he was set upon by a mob provided with ropes, determined to hang him without judge or jury.—With great difficulty he was rescued from the mob and again confined to await his trial.—This is the first instance of Lynch Law that has ever occurred in the western part of the State.

One of our exchanges gives the very sensible advice to the farmers to send their grain to the market as early as possible, and to pay off their debts to shopkeepers, as there is no probability of higher prices being realized by delay. It says that the majority of country traders who fill are ruined by credits to farmers, who withhold their crops, month after month with the hope of paying a dollar with fifty cents' worth of produce. The farmers of New Jersey lost three millions of dollars in 1855 by keeping their corn till the country was blockaded up with snow. Such delay will prove exceedingly hazardous this year.

A tremendous fire occurred in Chicago last week, which was one of the most destructive on record. Property to the amount of seven hundred thousand dollars was destroyed, and several lives were lost. It was the work of an incendiary, who has been arrested.

We have within the past week obtained such proof, as will, we think, lead to the detection or rather the conviction of those persons who broke into our office on the morning of the 11th inst. This is all we have to say of this present, as we shall, we fear not, be able to give names, after the coming Court.

The weather for the past two weeks has been very rainy.

OUR BOOK TABLE.

We have received from Phillips, Sampson & Co., Boston, Mass., the first number of their new magazine, entitled "The Atlantic Monthly." It is without doubt the best. It contains no clap-net advertisements, but its pages are filled with literature of the first order, and the names of many of the best writers in the country appear on its list of contributors. The terms are $3 per year. For sale by all news-men, periodical agents, &c.

The publishers of Graham's magazine propose furnishing to subscribers to their book a copy of the Portraits of Washington and Clay, in oil. Now is the time to subscribe for Graham.

The Ladies' Home Magazine for November is before us. It contains its usual amount of interesting, amusing and instructive reading, with handsome engravings, &c. Published by T. S. Arthur, Philadelphia, at $2 per annum.

The American Agriculturist for November, contains an immense amount of useful information. Farmers and men of all business callings should not be without the book a single day. Published by Orange Judd, No. 189 Water street, N. Y., at $1 per year.

Sarsaparilla and its Action.—Alternative medicines are those remedies which are given with the view to correct and re-establish healthy functions of the animal economy without any visible action—of which class the Sarsaparilla belongs.

Of all the preparations of that root, physicians invariably recommend the compound syrup manufactured by Dr. T. A. Harley as being the only genuine extract.—State Gazette N. Y.

A good-looking friend of ours who is on this side of forty, though somewhat heavy laden, while absent from the city a few days used Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, and on his return called to see his lady-love; but was amused to find she did not recognize him; and immediately determined to pass for a cousin of himself, but was eventually charged to find he was supplanting his former self in the affections of the lady, which caused him to make himself known; but the lady still says that she likes the counterfeit better than the original and insists that he continues (if necessary) to use the Hair Restorative. To be had of the Druggists.—St. Louis Mercury Herald.

A Valuable Medicine.—During the present week, no less than six of our friends, who have been induced to try Prof. De Grath's Electric Oil for rheumatism, in consequence of having seen this preparation advertised in our columns, have called upon us to state the result of their experiments. These persons assure us that their rheumatic pains have been entirely cured by a few applications of De Grath's "Electric Oil," and they recommend its use to all who are afflicted with any of the diseases which it is designed to cure.—Free Advertiser.—It can be had of the agents here. See advertisement in another column.

$4000 LOAN!

The managers of the Huntingdon Gas Co. desire to negotiate a loan of four thousand dollars for five years, interest payable semi-annually, for the purpose of paying the balance due for the construction of their works; and proposals will be received until the 11th day of November, next, stating the rate of interest at which the above sum or a portion of it will be loaned.

The 9th section of their charter is as follows: "That the managers of this company are hereby authorized to borrow, if necessary, any sum or sums of money, not exceeding ten thousand dollars, for the purpose of aiding them in the construction of their works, and to secure the payment of the same may execute a mortgage or judgment upon their works and real estate, signed by their President and attested by their Secretary in favor of the person or persons who may have loaned the same; and the interest on such loan shall be paid by the company, out of the receipts of said company, before any dividends shall be paid to the stockholders."

The above loan will be the only lien upon the works which are now in successful operation, at a cost of $12,000.
