Young Men, especially, who have become the victims of Solitary Vice, that dreadful and destructive habit, which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of the young men of the most exalted talents, and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entered listening senates with the thunders of eloquence, or waked to ecstasy the living lyre, may call with all confidence.

Take Particular Notice. Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgences.

By this great and important remedy, weakness of the organs is speedily cured and full vigor restored.

Young Men, who have injured themselves by a certain practice, indulged in when almost a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school—aged effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, and the darling of his parents should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature and indulging in a certain secret habit.

Marriage. should reflect that a sound mind and body are the necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness.
