

Huntingdon Journal.

Wm. Brewster, Editor and Proprietor. Wednesday Morning March 31, 1858.

The Circulation of the Huntingdon Journal, is greater than the Globe and American combined.

CLIPPING WITH MAGAZINES. The Huntingdon Journal, for one year, either of the Magazines for the same period will be sent to the address of any subscriber to be paid in advance as follows:

HOLLIDAYSBURG REGISTER. We thought we had some tolerable conception of the corrupting influence of "Straightoutism," but find we have been far short of the mark.

THE POOR HOUSE OFFICIALS. Week after week elapses, and as the evidence, dark and damning, accumulates against these officials, they crouch paralyzed and dumb.

THE AGENT. Very consistent—private thieves defending public robbers—This item don't mean anything. It is the madam kick of a "spavined horse," and might hit a team of jackasses, if they are in the way.

LIFE THOUGHTS OF HENRY WARD BEECHER. One vol. 12mo. 300 pages. Price: $1.

THE USUAL DISCOUNT TO THE TRADE. Few men in any age have the intellectual wealth to furnish such a collection of gemmas as is here presented.

THE AGENT. A correspondence, desiring information for himself and neighbors respecting the management of the Poor House, puts the following pertinent interrogatories, and says "any one, even the more honest of the Directors, may answer!"

THE AGENT. Was or was not K. L. Green of Clay township one of the Commissioners, authorized by Act of Assembly to purchase a poor house for Huntingdon county? If so, did he spend the last night previous to entering on said duty, at the house of Wm. B. Leas, at Shirelvsburg?

THE AGENT. Did not the said Wm. B. Leas sell his farm to said Commissioners for the county, at that time? Was Wm. B. Leas present with the Commissioners—or had he any agent; and who was that agent?

THE AGENT. Did not Wm. B. Leas get five hundred dollars ($500,) more for his farm than he had asked for it—and who got the advantage of the raise? If a man is honest as Commissioner, he will be honest as Director, and vice versa.

THE AGENT. Who put on the last $500? There is the rub. The April number of Sargent's School Monthly is on our table. This is a new Magazine commenced in January last by Epus Sargent containing Exercises in Reading and Declaration. Original Articles, Educational News &c.

THE AGENT. The old Standard Detector—Kennedy's Bank Note Review for April is on our table. It is one of the most reliable Counterfeit Detectors published. Price monthly per annum $1.

THE AGENT. Peterson's Counterfeit Detector, for April is here. This is a very neat and carefully got up Detector; you can get it monthly at $1 per annum, send for it gentlemen.

THE AGENT. IMMENSE GATHERING AT CITY HALL PITTSBURG. ANTILECOMPTON RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

THE AGENT. Speeches by John W. Forney, Will A. Stokes and Geo F. Gilmore.

Very consistent—private thieves defending public robbers—This item don't mean anything. It is the madam kick of a "spavined horse," and might hit a team of jackasses, if they are in the way.

LIFE THOUGHTS OF HENRY WARD BEECHER. One vol. 12mo. 300 pages. Price: $1.

THE USUAL DISCOUNT TO THE TRADE. Few men in any age have the intellectual wealth to furnish such a collection of gemmas as is here presented.

THE AGENT. A correspondence, desiring information for himself and neighbors respecting the management of the Poor House, puts the following pertinent interrogatories, and says "any one, even the more honest of the Directors, may answer!"

THE AGENT. Was or was not K. L. Green of Clay township one of the Commissioners, authorized by Act of Assembly to purchase a poor house for Huntingdon county? If so, did he spend the last night previous to entering on said duty, at the house of Wm. B. Leas, at Shirelvsburg?

THE AGENT. Did not the said Wm. B. Leas sell his farm to said Commissioners for the county, at that time? Was Wm. B. Leas present with the Commissioners—or had he any agent; and who was that agent?

THE AGENT. Did not Wm. B. Leas get five hundred dollars ($500,) more for his farm than he had asked for it—and who got the advantage of the raise? If a man is honest as Commissioner, he will be honest as Director, and vice versa.

THE AGENT. Who put on the last $500? There is the rub.

THE AGENT. The April number of Sargent's School Monthly is on our table. This is a new Magazine commenced in January last by Epus Sargent containing Exercises in Reading and Declaration. Original Articles, Educational News &c.

THE AGENT. The old Standard Detector—Kennedy's Bank Note Review for April is on our table. It is one of the most reliable Counterfeit Detectors published. Price monthly per annum $1.

THE AGENT. Peterson's Counterfeit Detector, for April is here. This is a very neat and carefully got up Detector; you can get it monthly at $1 per annum, send for it gentlemen.

THE AGENT. IMMENSE GATHERING AT CITY HALL PITTSBURG. ANTILECOMPTON RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

THE AGENT. Speeches by John W. Forney, Will A. Stokes and Geo F. Gilmore.

Very consistent—private thieves defending public robbers—This item don't mean anything. It is the madam kick of a "spavined horse," and might hit a team of jackasses, if they are in the way.

LIFE THOUGHTS OF HENRY WARD BEECHER. One vol. 12mo. 300 pages. Price: $1.

THE USUAL DISCOUNT TO THE TRADE. Few men in any age have the intellectual wealth to furnish such a collection of gemmas as is here presented.

THE AGENT. A correspondence, desiring information for himself and neighbors respecting the management of the Poor House, puts the following pertinent interrogatories, and says "any one, even the more honest of the Directors, may answer!"

THE AGENT. Was or was not K. L. Green of Clay township one of the Commissioners, authorized by Act of Assembly to purchase a poor house for Huntingdon county? If so, did he spend the last night previous to entering on said duty, at the house of Wm. B. Leas, at Shirelvsburg?

THE AGENT. Did not the said Wm. B. Leas sell his farm to said Commissioners for the county, at that time? Was Wm. B. Leas present with the Commissioners—or had he any agent; and who was that agent?

THE AGENT. Did not Wm. B. Leas get five hundred dollars ($500,) more for his farm than he had asked for it—and who got the advantage of the raise? If a man is honest as Commissioner, he will be honest as Director, and vice versa.

THE AGENT. Who put on the last $500? There is the rub.

THE AGENT. The April number of Sargent's School Monthly is on our table. This is a new Magazine commenced in January last by Epus Sargent containing Exercises in Reading and Declaration. Original Articles, Educational News &c.

THE AGENT. The old Standard Detector—Kennedy's Bank Note Review for April is on our table. It is one of the most reliable Counterfeit Detectors published. Price monthly per annum $1.

THE AGENT. Peterson's Counterfeit Detector, for April is here. This is a very neat and carefully got up Detector; you can get it monthly at $1 per annum, send for it gentlemen.

THE AGENT. IMMENSE GATHERING AT CITY HALL PITTSBURG. ANTILECOMPTON RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

THE AGENT. Speeches by John W. Forney, Will A. Stokes and Geo F. Gilmore.

THE AGENT. The above reward will be paid to any person who will give such information as will lead to the conviction of the low lived scoundrel or scoundrels who on last Saturday night feloniously stole from our coop ten chickens. Although very fat, some of them will seriously test the masculine powers of the dastardly villains.

THE AGENT. One of the Government Leecompton blood suckers bought up in the lower end of this county about one hundred mules destined for Utah. Several young men if this piece accompanies them on their long and tedious journey.

THE AGENT. Mr. Peter M. Bate is appointed Postmaster at Mapleton this county.

THE AGENT. The above reward will be paid to any person who will give such information as will lead to the conviction of the low lived scoundrel or scoundrels who on last Saturday night feloniously stole from our coop ten chickens.

THE AGENT. One of the Government Leecompton blood suckers bought up in the lower end of this county about one hundred mules destined for Utah. Several young men if this piece accompanies them on their long and tedious journey.

THE AGENT. Mr. Peter M. Bate is appointed Postmaster at Mapleton this county.

THE AGENT. The above reward will be paid to any person who will give such information as will lead to the conviction of the low lived scoundrel or scoundrels who on last Saturday night feloniously stole from our coop ten chickens.

THE AGENT. One of the Government Leecompton blood suckers bought up in the lower end of this county about one hundred mules destined for Utah. Several young men if this piece accompanies them on their long and tedious journey.

THE AGENT. Mr. Peter M. Bate is appointed Postmaster at Mapleton this county.

THE AGENT. The above reward will be paid to any person who will give such information as will lead to the conviction of the low lived scoundrel or scoundrels who on last Saturday night feloniously stole from our coop ten chickens.

THE AGENT. One of the Government Leecompton blood suckers bought up in the lower end of this county about one hundred mules destined for Utah. Several young men if this piece accompanies them on their long and tedious journey.

THE AGENT. Mr. Peter M. Bate is appointed Postmaster at Mapleton this county.

Very consistent—private thieves defending public robbers—This item don't mean anything. It is the madam kick of a "spavined horse," and might hit a team of jackasses, if they are in the way.

LIFE THOUGHTS OF HENRY WARD BEECHER. One vol. 12mo. 300 pages. Price: $1.

THE USUAL DISCOUNT TO THE TRADE. Few men in any age have the intellectual wealth to furnish such a collection of gemmas as is here presented.

THE AGENT. A correspondence, desiring information for himself and neighbors respecting the management of the Poor House, puts the following pertinent interrogatories, and says "any one, even the more honest of the Directors, may answer!"

THE AGENT. Was or was not K. L. Green of Clay township one of the Commissioners, authorized by Act of Assembly to purchase a poor house for Huntingdon county? If so, did he spend the last night previous to entering on said duty, at the house of Wm. B. Leas, at Shirelvsburg?

THE AGENT. Did not the said Wm. B. Leas sell his farm to said Commissioners for the county, at that time? Was Wm. B. Leas present with the Commissioners—or had he any agent; and who was that agent?

THE AGENT. Did not Wm. B. Leas get five hundred dollars ($500,) more for his farm than he had asked for it—and who got the advantage of the raise? If a man is honest as Commissioner, he will be honest as Director, and vice versa.

THE AGENT. Who put on the last $500? There is the rub.

THE AGENT. The April number of Sargent's School Monthly is on our table. This is a new Magazine commenced in January last by Epus Sargent containing Exercises in Reading and Declaration. Original Articles, Educational News &c.

THE AGENT. The old Standard Detector—Kennedy's Bank Note Review for April is on our table. It is one of the most reliable Counterfeit Detectors published. Price monthly per annum $1.

THE AGENT. Peterson's Counterfeit Detector, for April is here. This is a very neat and carefully got up Detector; you can get it monthly at $1 per annum, send for it gentlemen.

THE AGENT. IMMENSE GATHERING AT CITY HALL PITTSBURG. ANTILECOMPTON RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

THE AGENT. Speeches by John W. Forney, Will A. Stokes and Geo F. Gilmore.

THE AGENT. The above reward will be paid to any person who will give such information as will lead to the conviction of the low lived scoundrel or scoundrels who on last Saturday night feloniously stole from our coop ten chickens.

THE AGENT. One of the Government Leecompton blood suckers bought up in the lower end of this county about one hundred mules destined for Utah. Several young men if this piece accompanies them on their long and tedious journey.

THE AGENT. Mr. Peter M. Bate is appointed Postmaster at Mapleton this county.

THE AGENT. The above reward will be paid to any person who will give such information as will lead to the conviction of the low lived scoundrel or scoundrels who on last Saturday night feloniously stole from our coop ten chickens.

THE AGENT. One of the Government Leecompton blood suckers bought up in the lower end of this county about one hundred mules destined for Utah. Several young men if this piece accompanies them on their long and tedious journey.

THE AGENT. Mr. Peter M. Bate is appointed Postmaster at Mapleton this county.

THE AGENT. The above reward will be paid to any person who will give such information as will lead to the conviction of the low lived scoundrel or scoundrels who on last Saturday night feloniously stole from our coop ten chickens.

THE AGENT. One of the Government Leecompton blood suckers bought up in the lower end of this county about one hundred mules destined for Utah. Several young men if this piece accompanies them on their long and tedious journey.

THE AGENT. Mr. Peter M. Bate is appointed Postmaster at Mapleton this county.

THE AGENT. The above reward will be paid to any person who will give such information as will lead to the conviction of the low lived scoundrel or scoundrels who on last Saturday night feloniously stole from our coop ten chickens.

THE AGENT. One of the Government Leecompton blood suckers bought up in the lower end of this county about one hundred mules destined for Utah. Several young men if this piece accompanies them on their long and tedious journey.

THE AGENT. Mr. Peter M. Bate is appointed Postmaster at Mapleton this county.

Very consistent—private thieves defending public robbers—This item don't mean anything. It is the madam kick of a "spavined horse," and might hit a team of jackasses, if they are in the way.

LIFE THOUGHTS OF HENRY WARD BEECHER. One vol. 12mo. 300 pages. Price: $1.

THE USUAL DISCOUNT TO THE TRADE. Few men in any age have the intellectual wealth to furnish such a collection of gemmas as is here presented.

THE AGENT. A correspondence, desiring information for himself and neighbors respecting the management of the Poor House, puts the following pertinent interrogatories, and says "any one, even the more honest of the Directors, may answer!"

THE AGENT. Was or was not K. L. Green of Clay township one of the Commissioners, authorized by Act of Assembly to purchase a poor house for Huntingdon county? If so, did he spend the last night previous to entering on said duty, at the house of Wm. B. Leas, at Shirelvsburg?

THE AGENT. Did not the said Wm. B. Leas sell his farm to said Commissioners for the county, at that time? Was Wm. B. Leas present with the Commissioners—or had he any agent; and who was that agent?

THE AGENT. Did not Wm. B. Leas get five hundred dollars ($500,) more for his farm than he had asked for it—and who got the advantage of the raise? If a man is honest as Commissioner, he will be honest as Director, and vice versa.

THE AGENT. Who put on the last $500? There is the rub.

THE AGENT. The April number of Sargent's School Monthly is on our table. This is a new Magazine commenced in January last by Epus Sargent containing Exercises in Reading and Declaration. Original Articles, Educational News &c.

THE AGENT. The old Standard Detector—Kennedy's Bank Note Review for April is on our table. It is one of the most reliable Counterfeit Detectors published. Price monthly per annum $1.

THE AGENT. Peterson's Counterfeit Detector, for April is here. This is a very neat and carefully got up Detector; you can get it monthly at $1 per annum, send for it gentlemen.

THE AGENT. IMMENSE GATHERING AT CITY HALL PITTSBURG. ANTILECOMPTON RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

THE AGENT. Speeches by John W. Forney, Will A. Stokes and Geo F. Gilmore.

THE AGENT. The above reward will be paid to any person who will give such information as will lead to the conviction of the low lived scoundrel or scoundrels who on last Saturday night feloniously stole from our coop ten chickens.

THE AGENT. One of the Government Leecompton blood suckers bought up in the lower end of this county about one hundred mules destined for Utah. Several young men if this piece accompanies them on their long and tedious journey.

THE AGENT. Mr. Peter M. Bate is appointed Postmaster at Mapleton this county.

THE AGENT. The above reward will be paid to any person who will give such information as will lead to the conviction of the low lived scoundrel or scoundrels who on last Saturday night feloniously stole from our coop ten chickens.

THE AGENT. One of the Government Leecompton blood suckers bought up in the lower end of this county about one hundred mules destined for Utah. Several young men if this piece accompanies them on their long and tedious journey.

THE AGENT. Mr. Peter M. Bate is appointed Postmaster at Mapleton this county.

THE AGENT. The above reward will be paid to any person who will give such information as will lead to the conviction of the low lived scoundrel or scoundrels who on last Saturday night feloniously stole from our coop ten chickens.

THE AGENT. One of the Government Leecompton blood suckers bought up in the lower end of this county about one hundred mules destined for Utah. Several young men if this piece accompanies them on their long and tedious journey.

THE AGENT. Mr. Peter M. Bate is appointed Postmaster at Mapleton this county.

THE AGENT. The above reward will be paid to any person who will give such information as will lead to the conviction of the low lived scoundrel or scoundrels who on last Saturday night feloniously stole from our coop ten chickens.

THE AGENT. One of the Government Leecompton blood suckers bought up in the lower end of this county about one hundred mules destined for Utah. Several young men if this piece accompanies them on their long and tedious journey.

THE AGENT. Mr. Peter M. Bate is appointed Postmaster at Mapleton this county.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, March 26, 1858. The receipts of the Treasury for the past week were $4866,053 15, most of which was derived from deposits on account of subscriptions to the new Treasury Notes.

WASHINGTON, March 26, 1858. The Secretary of War will advertise immediately, putting Rock Island, Illinois, up for sale in forty acre lots, sealed bids for the same to be made to him, and opened in the presence of witnesses, to avoid unjust imputations.

WASHINGTON, March 26, 1858. The Anti-Leecompton forces to day are much fortified in confidence as regards carrying Mr. Crittenden's substitute, and there is some encouragement as to additional accessions.

WASHINGTON, March 26, 1858. The regular troops in Kansas and on the Western frontier will start for Utah between the 20th of April and 10th of May, mustering in all about 2,000 effective men.

WASHINGTON, March 26, 1858. The Administration party to-night admit that they must get five doubtful votes to carry Leecompton.

WASHINGTON, March 26, 1858. The Republicans have the power to reject Mr. Seiden as Marshal for this District as well as other nominations.

WASHINGTON, March 25, 1858. The Senate's Committee on Territories to-day reconsidered the bill establishing a Government in Arizona, which has been previously ordered to be reported, and unanimously rejected it.

WASHINGTON, March 25, 1858. Mr. Benton is much prostrated, but is still pursuing his work, although on his back in bed.

WASHINGTON, March 25, 1858. Mr. Harris is still too much enfeebled to be out, and is gaining very slowly.

WASHINGTON, March 25, 1858. Mr. Clancy Jones and other Pro-Slavery leaders proclaimed to-day full confidence in the success of Leecompton.

WASHINGTON, March 25, 1858. The Pennsylvania Bank Property met to-day, Mr. Campbell, the late Postmaster General, gave a clear statement of the whole negotiation for the purchase, showing conclusively that he could have had no knowledge.

WASHINGTON, March 25, 1858. The Rev. Mr. Reed, a Presbyterian minister, on the 15th inst., started from Holland to attend a meeting of the Presbytery some twenty miles from that place.

WASHINGTON, March 25, 1858. The Rev. Mr. Reed was taken with a fit in the night and it was supposed he had died. The other minister being in a hurry to get to the meeting in season had him buried the next day.

WASHINGTON, March 25, 1858. The wagon manufactory of John Cook and several adjacent buildings, in this city, were destroyed by fire last night.

WASHINGTON, March 25, 1858. The wagon manufactory of John Cook and several adjacent buildings, in this city, were destroyed by fire last night.

WASHINGTON, March 25, 1858. The wagon manufactory of John Cook and several adjacent buildings, in this city, were destroyed by fire last night.

WASHINGTON, March 25, 1858. The wagon manufactory of John Cook and several adjacent buildings, in this city, were destroyed by fire last night.

WASHINGTON, March 25, 1858. The wagon manufactory of John Cook and several adjacent buildings, in this city, were destroyed by fire last night.

WASHINGTON, March 25, 1858. The wagon manufactory of John Cook and several adjacent buildings, in this city, were destroyed by fire last night.

WASHINGTON, March 25, 1858. The wagon manufactory of John Cook and several adjacent buildings, in this city, were destroyed by fire last night.

WASHINGTON, March 25, 1858. The wagon manufactory of John Cook and several adjacent buildings, in this city, were destroyed by fire last night.

WASHINGTON, March 25, 1858. The wagon manufactory of John Cook and several adjacent buildings, in this city, were destroyed by fire last night.

College Students in Trouble.

COLUMBIA, S. C., March 27. One hundred of the students belonging to the college here have been suspended until October next for insubordination.

LOW WAGES.—The Miner's Journal says: There are scores of miners, laborers and workmen in this region, who during the past four months have not averaged in wages more than three cents a day.

THE CAMBRIA IRON COMPANY have resumed operations at their ore banks, near Hollidaysburg. Some twenty or twenty-five holders are at present engaged in raising ore and the force will soon be increased to seventy or eighty.

ATTENTION TO THE TURK.—Mohammed Pasha, the Turkish emissary, had not been at Willard's Hotel, in Washington, more than twenty minutes, before his room was broken into, his trunks ransacked, their contents strewn about, and his carpet bag cut fairly in two.

By the fall of the floor of an auction store at Bangor, Me., two hundred persons were precipitated into the cellar, on Saturday afternoon, but none hurt.

On Friday last, an Irish laborer, in Shummeffe's coal bank, near Orle's station, St. Clair county, Illinois, was blasting rocks at the bottom of a shaft.

On Friday last, an Irish laborer, in Shummeffe's coal bank, near Orle's station, St. Clair county, Illinois, was blasting rocks at the bottom of a shaft.

The Legislature of Massachusetts adjourned on the 27th, having passed one hundred and seventy seven acts and forty-four resolutions.

UNDETECTABLE WIGS AND TOUPEES. In spite of the washes and nostrums which are pulled upon a credulous public, baldness, especially in this country, appears to be one of the evils which flesh is heir to.

Married. On Tuesday, the 16th inst., by Simeon Wright, Esq., MR. KENNEDY M. KING, to MISS JENNIE KENEDY, of Calvia.

On the 25th inst., by Rev. A. B. Still, Mr. Ephraim Morrison to Miss Eliza Jane Slack, both of Huntingdon county.

On the 25th inst., by the same, Mr. Peter Sanders, of Mill Creek to Miss Lucretia Corbin, of Huntingdon.

At the residence of the bride's father in Broad Top City, by Rev. Lemuel Evans, Mr. Isaac Newton Sheets, of Fulton county, to Miss Jane Cook, of the former place.

PHILADELPHIA MARKETS. FLOUR.—There is no change to notice in the Flour market; $1 50.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. GROVER & BAKER'S CELEBRATED FAMILY SEWING MACHINES. 435 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

NOTICE TO SCHOOL TEACHERS. The School Directors of Huntingdon Borough District, will meet at the Public School House, on Saturday April 10th, at one o'clock.

Wm. Rothrock, Pres. A. W. Benedict, Secy.

MILNWOOD ACADEMY. The next session of this Institution, will open the first Wednesday of May.

For board, tuition &c. Double Entry Book keeping $8.00 Single Entry Book keeping 20.00

Students have the privilege of boarding in the Institution, or in private families as they may prefer.

March 31st.—67. Pa.