

Huntingdon Journal.

W.M. BREWSTER, Editor and Proprietor.

Wednesday Morning June 2, 1858.

The Circulation of the Huntingdon Journal, is greater than the Globe and American combined.

CLUBBING WITH MAGAZINES.

The Huntingdon Journal for one year, and either of the Magazines for the same period will be sent to the address of any subscriber to be paid in advance as follows:

- The Journal and Godey's Lady's Book, for one year, $3 50
The Journal and Graham's Magazine, for one year, $3 50
The Journal and Emerson's Magazine and Putnam's Monthly, for one year, $3 50
The Journal and Frank Leslie's Family Magazine and Gazette of Fashion, for one year, $3 50
The Journal and Lady's Home Magazine, for one year, $2 75
The Journal and Peterson's Magazine, for one year, $2 75
The Journal and Atlantic Monthly, for one year, $3 50

INDEX TO ADVERTISEMENTS.

- The Golden Prize.
Hair Restorative.
Public Sale.
Notice.
A Prize for Everybody.
Foundry.—R. C. McGill.
Cloth-Cleaning.—Zachariah Johnson, List of Retailers.
Portable Fence.—H. Cornprobt.
Drugs.—McManigal & Smith.
Orphan's Court Sale.—G. H. Stewart
Wigs & Toupees.—Geo. Thurgaland.
Sewing Machine.—Grover & Baker.
To Contractors.—H. W. Miller.
Cook Stove.—Call at this Office.
Sale of Unseated Lands.
Burdens History of all Nations.
Dentist.—Dr. R. A. Miller.
Horse Taming.
Oil Paintings to be given away.
Catawba Brandy.
Liver Invigorator.
To Merchants and Farmers.
Saving Fund.
Stage Line.
Dr. Hardman.—To Invalids.
Gunsmithing.
Dr. John McCulloch.
Cassville Seminary.
Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills.
Burr Mill Stones.
H. Roman.—Clothing.
Dry Goods.—Fisher & McMurtrie.
Nicholas' Bank Note Reporter.
Hardware.—J. A. Brown.
Dentist.—Dr. J. R. Huyett.
Attorneys.—Scott & Brown.
Paper Hanging.—Howell & Bro's.
Letter Copier for sale.
Electric Oil.
Lindsey's Blood Searcher.
Dry Goods.—D. P. Gwin.
Antiphlogistic Salt.
Books.—W. Colon.
Huntingdon Mill.
Foundry.—Cunningham & Bro.
Dry Goods &—David Grove.
Attorney.—T. P. Campbell.
Consumption.—G. W. Graham.
Suffer not.—I. Summerville.
Lock Hospital.
Railroad Time.
Dr. H. K. Neff.
Attorneys.—Wilson & Petriken.
Duponce's Golden Pills.

STATE CONVENTION.

The Citizens of Philadelphia and of the several counties of the Commonwealth, opposed to the 'Locomotion Swindle,' and the despotic policy of the National Administration in forcing upon the people of Kansas a Constitution in defiance of their known wishes, and in subversion of the great right of self government...

OUR BOOK TABLE.

The June number of the American Agriculturist has made its appearance laden with every information requisite for the farmer.

Bank Note Review, and Counterfeit Detector for June, makes its appearance with a description of forty nine new Counterfeit and altered notes.

THE SHIRLEYSBURG HERALD.

The Shirleysburg Herald thinks strange that several of its exchanges did not give the Herald credit for the notice of the death of Simon Meloy, which occurred near Shade Gap.

CHIEF JUSTICE TANEY.

The Washington correspondent of the Press, says there is ground for the rumor that Chief Justice Taney is about to resign, and states that the names of Attorney General Black, Justice Ellis Lewis, Reverdy Johnson and James A. Bayard, are canvassed in connection with the position.

THE HARRISBURG CONVENTION.

We have heretofore directed attention to the Call, by the Chairman of the Union State Committee, for a 'State Convention of all those who are opposed to the present national administration and the Lecompton swindle, to meet in Harrisburg on the 8th of July, to nominate State officers and transact such business as the exigencies may demand.'

Tornado At The West.

From the Chicago Tribune of May 15. The gale of Thursday evening was in some portions of the State unprecedented violence. It covered a large extent of territory, and every where its track is marked with painful damage to property, and perhaps, as further intelligence will show loss of life.

THE KANSAS ELECTION.

Information derived by us from private sources, of the late Kansas election, is to the effect, that the vote was very small, and that the opposition has very likely carried the Territory against the Lecompton Constitution.

Another American Vessel Fired Into.

New York, May 26.—The brig New Era arrived from Mantanzas reports that on the 24th of April, she was boarded by an officer from a British War Steamer, and on the 18th inst. had three shots fired at her by another British War Steamer.

THE USURY BILL SIGNED.

We learn from a special dispatch to the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin, that Gov. Packer has approved the 'Usury Bill,' or as it is entitled, 'the bill regulating the rate of interest,' passed by the last Legislature.

FROM KANSAS.

EXCITING NEWS.

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY.

Five Men Killed by a Gaug.

Legal Rats.

BEAUTIFUL HAIR.

GOLDEN PRIZE.

THE HUNTINGDON JOURNAL.

General News.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

HARRISBURG, May 21.—William Williams, convicted of the murder of John Hendricks, at the upper end of this county in May last, was executed to day in the prison yard.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

A large crowd was outside, and the roofs of the houses overlooking the prison yard were filled with people, anxious to witness the execution. Some of these positions were rented at fifty cents and a dollar each.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

The prisoner was attended by the Rev. Messrs. Bartine, Marty and Marquet. The wife, three children, and sister of the condemned visited the prisoner yesterday and this morning. He exhibited but little feeling, evincing a solid indifference.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

The prisoner was brought out of his cell and placed on the scaffold at ten minutes of twelve o'clock, dressed in a shroud of white flannel, and wearing a cap. He uttered not a word, except simply to reply 'Yes,' when asked whether the minister should pray for him.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

A brief prayer was then made by Dr. Bartrine, after which an appropriate hymn was sung. The drop then fell and the prisoner was launched into eternity.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

The drop then fell and the prisoner was launched into eternity. The Kansas Election. From the St. Louis Democrat.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

Information derived by us from private sources, of the late Kansas election, is to the effect, that the vote was very small, and that the opposition has very likely carried the Territory against the Lecompton Constitution.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

The following letter, however, from a correspondent at Quindaro, looks the other way: QUINDARO, May 18. A very small vote was polled here to day. The State ticket received only about sixty votes—the Constitution fifty three.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

Two or three Slave Democrats drummed up all the drunken Wyandotts they could, and by making some believe they were voting against Lecompton, and others that they were voting against negroes, succeeded in getting about seventy votes against the Constitution.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

There will also be considerable opposition in Jefferson, Johnson, Lynn and Franklin counties. In the Territory there will probably be fifteen hundred votes adverse to the Constitution, and perhaps six thousand in favor, making the vote about the same as that of Oregon.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

The English dodge is received with a right spirit in every portion of the Territory. It will be voted down with a vengeance. Kansas Land Sales. WASHINGTON, May 20.—Messrs. Morrow, Branscomb and Winchell. Commissioners appointed at the Settlers' Mass Convention in Kansas, to procure a postponement of the land sales, or procure a loan fund for the squatters, have had, in company with Mr. Parrott, Delegate from Kansas, an interview with the President, who intimated his willingness to postpone the sales till October if they thought best but desired them to call on the Secretary of the Interior.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

The latter stated that the policy of the Government would be to sell all the public lands possible during the present year for the purposes of revenue, but consented to defer the sales in Kansas until November first and fifteenth when they will take place. The Commissioners left for New York on Friday for the purpose of securing the loans needed.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

OGAWKA.—Two steam mills were ruined at Ogawka and ten houses unroofed, besides other damage done. Damages estimated at from $10 000 to 15,000. So far as ascertained no lives were lost. GALVA.—At this place a large two-story dwelling house was rendered a complete ruin; a portion of Mr. Babcock's dwelling was also blown down. Nearly all the out houses in the village were upset. The wind carried large boxes, lumber, barrels, &c. into the air as if they were paper. A large church was moved from its foundation about a foot.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

MENDOTA.—Here the storm was so furious, and while in progress the railroad engine house caught fire and was consumed, together with the locomotive Rocket. While this severe gale was raging the rain and hail poured down in a perfect sheet. It was terrific. We have not as yet heard of any disaster on the lakes.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

From one of our citizens who was in Peoria at the time we learn the hurricane struck the city at about five o'clock in the evening. In the twinkling of an eye fifteen or twenty houses were unroofed, every church spire in the city blown down, three canal boats loaded with lumber sank, and the steamer Olin, with twenty passengers on board, made a complete wreck, her cabin being entirely away. And what seems really miraculous is the fact that but one life was lost in all this furious disorganization of matter and utter demolition of structures.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

It is said that a little child was lost from off the wrecked steamer. The lumber in the yards was blown all over the city, the gas lamps were all blown down, and the signs were sent flying in every direction; windows and gable ends were smashed in, whole trains of were blown off the track, and the beautiful College building upon the bluff utterly demolished.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

Attorney General Black says: A lease of land for one year from the first of April does not expire until the first of April following. It would expire on the 31st of March, if the day on which the term began were not excluded. When a bill is payable ten days after sight, the day of presentation is not one of the ten. When the decree of the court requires an act to be done within four days, the party cannot be put in contempt until the expiration of four whole days after the day on which the decree is dated. When a policy of insurance stipulates for two days notice of a fire, the day of fire is not included. A right by statute to redeem lands sold for taxes within sixty days after the sale, does not include the day of sale. These are a few of the innumerable cases to which the American courts have applied the general principle, where time is to be computed from an act done, the day on which the act is done shall be excluded, unless it is apparent that a different computation was intended.—Chamb. Repository.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

HARRISBURG, May 21.—William Williams, convicted of the murder of John Hendricks, at the upper end of this county in May last, was executed to day in the prison yard. The occasion drew a large crowd of people to town, and about seventy obtained admission into the jail to witness the melancholy spectacle, among whom was William A. Crabb, of Philadelphia, who occupied a position close to the scaffold.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

A large crowd was outside, and the roofs of the houses overlooking the prison yard were filled with people, anxious to witness the execution. Some of these positions were rented at fifty cents and a dollar each.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

The prisoner was attended by the Rev. Messrs. Bartine, Marty and Marquet. The wife, three children, and sister of the condemned visited the prisoner yesterday and this morning. He exhibited but little feeling, evincing a solid indifference.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

The prisoner was brought out of his cell and placed on the scaffold at ten minutes of twelve o'clock, dressed in a shroud of white flannel, and wearing a cap. He uttered not a word, except simply to reply 'Yes,' when asked whether the minister should pray for him.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

A brief prayer was then made by Dr. Bartrine, after which an appropriate hymn was sung. The drop then fell and the prisoner was launched into eternity.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

The drop then fell and the prisoner was launched into eternity. The Kansas Election. From the St. Louis Democrat.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

Information derived by us from private sources, of the late Kansas election, is to the effect, that the vote was very small, and that the opposition has very likely carried the Territory against the Lecompton Constitution.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

The following letter, however, from a correspondent at Quindaro, looks the other way: QUINDARO, May 18. A very small vote was polled here to day. The State ticket received only about sixty votes—the Constitution fifty three.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

Two or three Slave Democrats drummed up all the drunken Wyandotts they could, and by making some believe they were voting against Lecompton, and others that they were voting against negroes, succeeded in getting about seventy votes against the Constitution.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

There will also be considerable opposition in Jefferson, Johnson, Lynn and Franklin counties. In the Territory there will probably be fifteen hundred votes adverse to the Constitution, and perhaps six thousand in favor, making the vote about the same as that of Oregon.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

The English dodge is received with a right spirit in every portion of the Territory. It will be voted down with a vengeance. Kansas Land Sales. WASHINGTON, May 20.—Messrs. Morrow, Branscomb and Winchell. Commissioners appointed at the Settlers' Mass Convention in Kansas, to procure a postponement of the land sales, or procure a loan fund for the squatters, have had, in company with Mr. Parrott, Delegate from Kansas, an interview with the President, who intimated his willingness to postpone the sales till October if they thought best but desired them to call on the Secretary of the Interior.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

The latter stated that the policy of the Government would be to sell all the public lands possible during the present year for the purposes of revenue, but consented to defer the sales in Kansas until November first and fifteenth when they will take place. The Commissioners left for New York on Friday for the purpose of securing the loans needed.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

OGAWKA.—Two steam mills were ruined at Ogawka and ten houses unroofed, besides other damage done. Damages estimated at from $10 000 to 15,000. So far as ascertained no lives were lost. GALVA.—At this place a large two-story dwelling house was rendered a complete ruin; a portion of Mr. Babcock's dwelling was also blown down. Nearly all the out houses in the village were upset. The wind carried large boxes, lumber, barrels, &c. into the air as if they were paper. A large church was moved from its foundation about a foot.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

MENDOTA.—Here the storm was so furious, and while in progress the railroad engine house caught fire and was consumed, together with the locomotive Rocket. While this severe gale was raging the rain and hail poured down in a perfect sheet. It was terrific. We have not as yet heard of any disaster on the lakes.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

From one of our citizens who was in Peoria at the time we learn the hurricane struck the city at about five o'clock in the evening. In the twinkling of an eye fifteen or twenty houses were unroofed, every church spire in the city blown down, three canal boats loaded with lumber sank, and the steamer Olin, with twenty passengers on board, made a complete wreck, her cabin being entirely away. And what seems really miraculous is the fact that but one life was lost in all this furious disorganization of matter and utter demolition of structures.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

It is said that a little child was lost from off the wrecked steamer. The lumber in the yards was blown all over the city, the gas lamps were all blown down, and the signs were sent flying in every direction; windows and gable ends were smashed in, whole trains of were blown off the track, and the beautiful College building upon the bluff utterly demolished.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

Attorney General Black says: A lease of land for one year from the first of April does not expire until the first of April following. It would expire on the 31st of March, if the day on which the term began were not excluded. When a bill is payable ten days after sight, the day of presentation is not one of the ten. When the decree of the court requires an act to be done within four days, the party cannot be put in contempt until the expiration of four whole days after the day on which the decree is dated. When a policy of insurance stipulates for two days notice of a fire, the day of fire is not included. A right by statute to redeem lands sold for taxes within sixty days after the sale, does not include the day of sale. These are a few of the innumerable cases to which the American courts have applied the general principle, where time is to be computed from an act done, the day on which the act is done shall be excluded, unless it is apparent that a different computation was intended.—Chamb. Repository.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

HARRISBURG, May 21.—William Williams, convicted of the murder of John Hendricks, at the upper end of this county in May last, was executed to day in the prison yard. The occasion drew a large crowd of people to town, and about seventy obtained admission into the jail to witness the melancholy spectacle, among whom was William A. Crabb, of Philadelphia, who occupied a position close to the scaffold.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

A large crowd was outside, and the roofs of the houses overlooking the prison yard were filled with people, anxious to witness the execution. Some of these positions were rented at fifty cents and a dollar each.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

The prisoner was attended by the Rev. Messrs. Bartine, Marty and Marquet. The wife, three children, and sister of the condemned visited the prisoner yesterday and this morning. He exhibited but little feeling, evincing a solid indifference.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

The prisoner was brought out of his cell and placed on the scaffold at ten minutes of twelve o'clock, dressed in a shroud of white flannel, and wearing a cap. He uttered not a word, except simply to reply 'Yes,' when asked whether the minister should pray for him.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

A brief prayer was then made by Dr. Bartrine, after which an appropriate hymn was sung. The drop then fell and the prisoner was launched into eternity.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

The drop then fell and the prisoner was launched into eternity. The Kansas Election. From the St. Louis Democrat.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

Information derived by us from private sources, of the late Kansas election, is to the effect, that the vote was very small, and that the opposition has very likely carried the Territory against the Lecompton Constitution.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

The following letter, however, from a correspondent at Quindaro, looks the other way: QUINDARO, May 18. A very small vote was polled here to day. The State ticket received only about sixty votes—the Constitution fifty three.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

Two or three Slave Democrats drummed up all the drunken Wyandotts they could, and by making some believe they were voting against Lecompton, and others that they were voting against negroes, succeeded in getting about seventy votes against the Constitution.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

There will also be considerable opposition in Jefferson, Johnson, Lynn and Franklin counties. In the Territory there will probably be fifteen hundred votes adverse to the Constitution, and perhaps six thousand in favor, making the vote about the same as that of Oregon.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

The English dodge is received with a right spirit in every portion of the Territory. It will be voted down with a vengeance. Kansas Land Sales. WASHINGTON, May 20.—Messrs. Morrow, Branscomb and Winchell. Commissioners appointed at the Settlers' Mass Convention in Kansas, to procure a postponement of the land sales, or procure a loan fund for the squatters, have had, in company with Mr. Parrott, Delegate from Kansas, an interview with the President, who intimated his willingness to postpone the sales till October if they thought best but desired them to call on the Secretary of the Interior.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

The latter stated that the policy of the Government would be to sell all the public lands possible during the present year for the purposes of revenue, but consented to defer the sales in Kansas until November first and fifteenth when they will take place. The Commissioners left for New York on Friday for the purpose of securing the loans needed.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

OGAWKA.—Two steam mills were ruined at Ogawka and ten houses unroofed, besides other damage done. Damages estimated at from $10 000 to 15,000. So far as ascertained no lives were lost. GALVA.—At this place a large two-story dwelling house was rendered a complete ruin; a portion of Mr. Babcock's dwelling was also blown down. Nearly all the out houses in the village were upset. The wind carried large boxes, lumber, barrels, &c. into the air as if they were paper. A large church was moved from its foundation about a foot.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

MENDOTA.—Here the storm was so furious, and while in progress the railroad engine house caught fire and was consumed, together with the locomotive Rocket. While this severe gale was raging the rain and hail poured down in a perfect sheet. It was terrific. We have not as yet heard of any disaster on the lakes.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

From one of our citizens who was in Peoria at the time we learn the hurricane struck the city at about five o'clock in the evening. In the twinkling of an eye fifteen or twenty houses were unroofed, every church spire in the city blown down, three canal boats loaded with lumber sank, and the steamer Olin, with twenty passengers on board, made a complete wreck, her cabin being entirely away. And what seems really miraculous is the fact that but one life was lost in all this furious disorganization of matter and utter demolition of structures.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

It is said that a little child was lost from off the wrecked steamer. The lumber in the yards was blown all over the city, the gas lamps were all blown down, and the signs were sent flying in every direction; windows and gable ends were smashed in, whole trains of were blown off the track, and the beautiful College building upon the bluff utterly demolished.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

Attorney General Black says: A lease of land for one year from the first of April does not expire until the first of April following. It would expire on the 31st of March, if the day on which the term began were not excluded. When a bill is payable ten days after sight, the day of presentation is not one of the ten. When the decree of the court requires an act to be done within four days, the party cannot be put in contempt until the expiration of four whole days after the day on which the decree is dated. When a policy of insurance stipulates for two days notice of a fire, the day of fire is not included. A right by statute to redeem lands sold for taxes within sixty days after the sale, does not include the day of sale. These are a few of the innumerable cases to which the American courts have applied the general principle, where time is to be computed from an act done, the day on which the act is done shall be excluded, unless it is apparent that a different computation was intended.—Chamb. Repository.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

HARRISBURG, May 21.—William Williams, convicted of the murder of John Hendricks, at the upper end of this county in May last, was executed to day in the prison yard. The occasion drew a large crowd of people to town, and about seventy obtained admission into the jail to witness the melancholy spectacle, among whom was William A. Crabb, of Philadelphia, who occupied a position close to the scaffold.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

A large crowd was outside, and the roofs of the houses overlooking the prison yard were filled with people, anxious to witness the execution. Some of these positions were rented at fifty cents and a dollar each.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

The prisoner was attended by the Rev. Messrs. Bartine, Marty and Marquet. The wife, three children, and sister of the condemned visited the prisoner yesterday and this morning. He exhibited but little feeling, evincing a solid indifference.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

The prisoner was brought out of his cell and placed on the scaffold at ten minutes of twelve o'clock, dressed in a shroud of white flannel, and wearing a cap. He uttered not a word, except simply to reply 'Yes,' when asked whether the minister should pray for him.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

A brief prayer was then made by Dr. Bartrine, after which an appropriate hymn was sung. The drop then fell and the prisoner was launched into eternity.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

The drop then fell and the prisoner was launched into eternity. The Kansas Election. From the St. Louis Democrat.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

Information derived by us from private sources, of the late Kansas election, is to the effect, that the vote was very small, and that the opposition has very likely carried the Territory against the Lecompton Constitution.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

The following letter, however, from a correspondent at Quindaro, looks the other way: QUINDARO, May 18. A very small vote was polled here to day. The State ticket received only about sixty votes—the Constitution fifty three.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

Two or three Slave Democrats drummed up all the drunken Wyandotts they could, and by making some believe they were voting against Lecompton, and others that they were voting against negroes, succeeded in getting about seventy votes against the Constitution.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

There will also be considerable opposition in Jefferson, Johnson, Lynn and Franklin counties. In the Territory there will probably be fifteen hundred votes adverse to the Constitution, and perhaps six thousand in favor, making the vote about the same as that of Oregon.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

The English dodge is received with a right spirit in every portion of the Territory. It will be voted down with a vengeance. Kansas Land Sales. WASHINGTON, May 20.—Messrs. Morrow, Branscomb and Winchell. Commissioners appointed at the Settlers' Mass Convention in Kansas, to procure a postponement of the land sales, or procure a loan fund for the squatters, have had, in company with Mr. Parrott, Delegate from Kansas, an interview with the President, who intimated his willingness to postpone the sales till October if they thought best but desired them to call on the Secretary of the Interior.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

The latter stated that the policy of the Government would be to sell all the public lands possible during the present year for the purposes of revenue, but consented to defer the sales in Kansas until November first and fifteenth when they will take place. The Commissioners left for New York on Friday for the purpose of securing the loans needed.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

OGAWKA.—Two steam mills were ruined at Ogawka and ten houses unroofed, besides other damage done. Damages estimated at from $10 000 to 15,000. So far as ascertained no lives were lost. GALVA.—At this place a large two-story dwelling house was rendered a complete ruin; a portion of Mr. Babcock's dwelling was also blown down. Nearly all the out houses in the village were upset. The wind carried large boxes, lumber, barrels, &c. into the air as if they were paper. A large church was moved from its foundation about a foot.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.

MENDOTA.—Here the storm was so furious, and while in progress the railroad engine house caught fire and was consumed, together with the locomotive Rocket. While this severe gale was raging the rain and hail poured down in a perfect sheet. It was terrific. We have not as yet heard of any disaster on the lakes.

Execution of a Murderer at Harrisburg.