THE PEOPLE'S TICKET. It is a source of gratification and just pride to the unyielding, patriotic sentiment of this county, to find the hearty cordiality with which the county ticket is greeted in every district. Verbally, or by letter, we have reliable information from nearly all parts of the county, and so far as heard from, but one feeling animates the people. Their united voice is, "Let by-gones be by-gones; let local prejudices and personal preferences be forgotten; let past mere party distinctions be buried in the grave of oblivion, and let us rally to the rescue of our principles and our country's prosperity from the blighting influence of the pro-slavery, pro-popery, free-trade party, which, in the name of economy, is squandering our substance and paralyzing our industry, and, in the name of Democracy, is stifling the nation's in-born love of freedom, and disgracing our name before the civilized world." This is the voice of the People of Huntingdon county; of the honest masses who can neither be bribed into treason, nor betrayed into indifference to the coming election. They know the importance of the issues at stake. They remember, but too vividly, the treachery of the common enemy. They have full confidence in the integrity of our candidates. Every man on our County and State ticket is acknowledged to be honest and capable. They are all inflexibly opposed to the ruling party of the State and nation; and are all morally certain to receive the undivided support of every true Republican and of every American and Democrat who sincerely desires to see American institutions and labor protected against the ruinous competition of European pauper labor. We speak confidently on this point because we feel assured that intelligent voters cannot now be deceived on the question of Protection as they were in 1844, when "Polk, Dallas and the Tariff of '42" were inscribed on the lying banners of Locofoco free traders and hypocritically claimed as one of their measures, a part of the Democratic platform! By this most infamous fraud the sham Democracy—the guilty perpetrators of the fraud—deluded the voters of this State into the support of James K. Polk, who lent all the influence of his official position to break down that very tariff; and he succeeded by the aid of those same monsters of political iniquity who had betrayed the honest working men of Pennsylvania into his support by pledging him to be "a better tariff man than Henry Clay!" Though the attempt is being made, in the most unblushing manner, to repeat this fraud, we have no fears of its success. The people's recollection of the tariff fraud of 44 was refreshed, and their just indignation renewed by the stupendous Kansas fraud perpetrated only two years ago. They will not again confide in the platforms and promises of a party that yields obedience only to the trinity that upholds it—slavery, popery, and rum—denies its promises, ignores its platforms and breaks its most solemn pledges to all the other interests of the country, even to the jeopardy of the dearest rights of the people and the honor and safety of the Republic. No, No. Thousands in this state, scores in this county, who two years ago voted directly or indirectly for Buchanan, because miserable doughface orators and a venal party press, declared him as much the friend of Kansas, as much opposed to the extension of Slavery as either of the other candidates—thousands, we say, of these honest, but deceived voters will now and henceforth support the party that has always been true to American interests, always true to the interests of free, white labor, and opposed to the extension of human bondage, which degrades labor to the white as well as black, demoralizes society, and will ultimately bring down the righteous judgments of the Jehovah on our guilty nation, unless the shame and crime of its extension be at once and forever abandoned. The party called Democratic once deprecated Slavery as much as any other party in county.—Jefferson, the father of Democracy, abhorred slavery, and, in view of its enormous wickedness, "he trembled for his country when he remembered that God is just." Jefferson, it is well known, framed the first law to prohibit the extension of slavery into the territories, and had Jefferson Democracy prevailed to this day there would not now be a slave to curse the soil of the Republic; or at the worst, we should have but six instead of fifteen slave states in this FREE Union. Jefferson, Madison, Marshall, and all the great Democratic States men of their time, not only opposed the extension of Slavery, but favored its gradual extinction. This is history which every schoolboy knows and which the veriest Locofoco dare not deny. But, alas! in process of time the invention of the Cotton Gin and other circumstances increased the demand for slave labor, and made slave breeding a profitable business for those whose instincts were sufficiently brutal to engage in it. Soon the natural loathing attached to the business became greatly modified by the enormous profits it afforded. "Wealth makes friends." Monsters engaged in raising human beings, like cattle, for market, because rich. They purchased largely of our free-state merchants,

They patronized northern institutions of learning. They paid liberally of the price of blood and muscle into the treasury of the Lord. They ceased to be monsters and became Christian gentlemen! Traders began to court them; the church to wink at their peculiar institution, and politicians of the doughface type, wooed them with winning ways. As long as the old fathers of Democracy were on the stage of political action, party subservency to the slave power did not become open and shameless. But during the last thirty years the present ruling party have favored and fostered it; during the last fifteen years they have extended and strengthened it; and for the last five or six years they have made slavery the first person of their political trinity, and bowed down to and worshipped it—their chief idol—with insane devotion. They have granted every demand of the insatiate monster. Within the last fifteen years they have given it nearly three hundred thousand square miles of free soil absolutely, and opened up the way to the acquisition of millions of acres more, by repealing the Missouri Compromise. They have enacted for the Fugitive-Slave-Law, which forbids northern Christians, under severe penalties, to give shelter or even a cup of water to the Christian slave woman, faint and bleeding in her heroic flight from the lash and lust of her owner, who is perhaps, her father or brother! They have more or less crippled the industrial pursuits of the free States by supporting the free trade policy of the slave breeders. Of their desperate and bloody efforts to add Kansas to the long list of sacrificial offerings to their Moloch, we need not speak except to warn the young and unwary against the wiles of Locofocoism in this behalf. After justifying, for two years, all the fraud and violence employed to subjugate that devoted territory, and after endorsing, and endorsing all the atrocities perpetrated on its suffering people, they now pretend to sympathize with the victims of their recent hostility, and even affect to deprecate and condemn their own party and its Kansas policy! Yes, after Kansas has been wrenched from their grasp, and is irrevocably lost to the slave interest they serve, they can denounce the president! Why did they not denounce his course and that of their Senators and Representatives in Congress in time to influence their conduct? For five months all the Republicans, and a few patriotic Democrats and Americans, resisted the Locofoco party in Congress, backed by their president and his cabinet. In the midst of this conflict between Liberty and Slavery, the Locofoco legislature, of this State, and their 4th of March Convention, both, by overwhelming majorities, REFUSED to instruct Senators to support the right, REFUSED to censure Buchanan for his desperate and corrupt efforts to enslave Kansas, or keep it out of the Union! What success was possible, the President must not be censured, Congress must not be rebuked by the potent voice of Pennsylvania bogus Democracy. But as soon as Kansas is safe and the President and his party prostrate in inglorious defeat—as soon as it is discovered that federal patronage, federal bayonets and the federal treasure all have failed to crush the spirit of liberty, then Locofoco Conventions in the free states no longer hesitate; then the poor old, imbecile president is made the scape goat to bear the whole burden of the Kansas iniquity. Was ever hypocrisy more transparent? Will the voters of this county of this state or of the free North quietly submit to this gross insult to their intelligence? We think not. James Buchanan is not the chief sinner. He is only the instrument in the hands of a tyrannical oligarchy, supported by an unscrupulous party. He has done no more than he was pledged to do at, and before his nomination. He stood pledged to enslave Kansas if possible, just as Polk was pledged to repeal the tariff of '42. Polk succeeded in fulfilling his pledge, and was sustained by the Locofoco party. Buchanan has failed, and, like every other unsuccessful tyrant, he is abandoned by a large portion of his courtiers and former friends and flatterers. But no man in his senses will soon trust either him or them.

THE SCHOOL JOURNAL and Literary Society Reporter. The August number of the Journal is before us. This work treats of a great variety of interesting subjects, and it is published monthly, in quarto form of 16 pages, at 75 cents per annum. Published by Thomas N. Martin and Lukens, Philadelphia. Old Luck's Table. The monstrous expenditure of the Democratic party under the reign of Mr. Buchanan, can be properly seen and fully appreciated, by an examination of the following table. It spends. $90,000,000 a year! $7,500,000 a month! $1,875,000 a day!!! $267,850 a day!!!! $1,160 an hour!!!!!! $186 a minute!!!!!! $3.10 a second!!!!!!! Is it not this view of the case startling? The people's money is stilled out by the Slave Democratic administration, at the rate of three dollars and ten cents for every tick of the clock. No wonder the Nation is getting over head and ears in debt.
