$788,00 A XEAR.

For the special benefit of a few simon pure Locofocos who will, as a matter of habit vote the whole Loco icket, Doctor Houtz included—we print the following extracts from the Journal of the last House of Representatives, page 990. The Record reads thus:

Doctor Daniel Houtz, No. of miles circular 400. Amount of milesg 860,00. Salary $300,00. EXTRA COMPENSATION $200.

Stationary $28,00.—Total $788,00.

Though we give the above for the expeint benefit of those whose party relations compet them to support Dr. Houtz, we would advise all voters who pay more than twenty-five cents tares to keep a copy of it, and remember that the Doctor voted the extra compensation into his own pocket out of theirs. Wonder if he'd vote another $200,00 extra pay," if sent back to Harrisburg this winter! But that's a piece of curiosity that will not be gratified.

We have said but little about our candidates for Commissioner and Auditor, for the simpless of the country and both better qualified than candidates for the simple state of the country and both better qualified than candidates for these offices generally are. Indeed Mr. Graffius is so popular with the people that the Locos have had great trouble to find a man in their ranks willing to run against him. We have received several spicy communications repelling the unjust attack made on Mr. Clarkson by John Lutz, the venerable editor of the Shirleysburg Herald—Our correspondents are not politicians, but truth-loving men who know Mr. Clarkson and his assailant well. shame! Where is thy blush!

Mr. Editor:—
Permit me to register the fact in your columns that the "Lower end" of the county heartily endorses the nomination of the People's County Convention in August last. Having lately mixed with the community in a number of townships in this end of the county conversed freely with men of all parties. I feel justified in making the assertion that the People's Ticket gives satisfaction to the public and will be ansatianed here by a very "unusual strength. There is not a man on the tidket that is considered objectionable, and those at the head of it as Messes; Hair and Wigton, are deemed first rate selections with an emphasis. Mr. Blair's regulation as a man of integrity equalifications commends him to our best judge ""..." as a candidate who would do honor to the district in Washington.

Mr. Wigton has been long favorably known here as a first-class business man of unimpeachable uprightness, high honor, good mental capacity and liberal view. He has always been popular among the people, sand they are glad to have opportunity to declare their appreciation of his many fine qualities, as they now do at the election, by a majority in his favorantic services.

our own, are just as overwhelming none as them.

We agreed to make one war upon the National Administratron, at the sacrifice of all trifling or party issues. In the organization for that contest, we are led to believe that some of the enemles of Americanism were striving to take advantage of the truce to stab our men and one principles, but we soon saw that it was but the fire-brands of madmen or fools, that were impotent for harm, who would thus violate the peace of the alliance.

The organization is complete—the Ticket is in the field—and the Union undivided. We cannot and we will not, be in the least measure instrumental in exciting distrust and bringing about defeat. The People are right on the issues before the people, and we are not mistaken when we way the People are right on the American question, when it is, as it necessarily will be, the issue before them. Now, what is the duty of every American? We boldly after their force—American.

In April, 1856, as near as I can rememember a small pimple made its appearance on my upper lip, which soon became enlarged and sore. I used poultives or sorrel, and a wash of blue virrel, without effect. Finding the sore extending I called on Dr. Ely, of Schelishurg, who pronounced it OANCER, and prescribed a wash of sugar of lead and bread poultices. Finding these remedies of no avail.
