

WM. BREWSTER, Editor and Proprietor.

Wednesday Morning October 13, 1858

The Circulation of the Huntingdon Journal, is greater than the Globe and American combined.

We give our readers to-day the cheering result of the election in old Huntingdon. Victory has perched upon the banner of the People's ticket. The people of this county have risen in their strength, and by one "fell swoop" have rebuked the arrogance of the Slave power and spurned the authors of free-trade.

Gen. Simon Cameron has our thanks for three volumes of Patent Office Reports for 1857.

The victories in Pennsylvania have ceased computing their majorities on the State ticket, they being so large that a matter of Five or Ten Thousand more or less is no object. A table of official and reported returns from thirty six Counties, now before us, puts John M. Read, for Supreme Court, 35,335 ahead—Berks, Westmoreland, Northampton, Columbia, Luzerne, Montgomery, and nearly all the old Democratic strongholds, being included, as well as many of those of the Opposition, but not including Erie, Crawford, Warren, Mercer and Somerset. Judging from these, we infer that the majority for Read in the whole State is likely to reach as to fall below 40,000.

Our telegraphic dispatch yesterday announced the high handed attempt of his election by setting aside the votes of over seven hundred freemen, and the defeat of the villainous scheme by the indignant people of Reading. The Journal contains an article severely denunciatory of this attempted fraud from which we quote the closing paragraph.

The difficulty which a few men attempted to get up about the South-West Ward, was founded on the fact there were five more votes for the two members of Congress than there were names on the tally list—a circumstance which is accounted for by the fact that one or more of the clerks were slow and inefficient, and that votes of young men who voted on age were polled, whose names were not recorded. Trifling discrepancies of this kind often occur, and at this election happened in Tulpehocken district where Jones had a majority, yet this is the first attempt ever made to defraud honest voters of their votes, because a blunder or two had been made by the election officers.

Leaving Verango to hear from, which, two years ago, gave Gillis 2,157 to Myers (Rep.) 2,113. We guess Chapin Hall is the Member elect. If so, Pennsylvania is good for 21 Opposition to (at most) 4 Administration votes in organizing the next House. Good enough.

Lancaster Examiner & Herald for several years past edited by E. C. Darlington, Esq., as the leading Whig and opposition paper of the county, has been sold to John H. Heistand, Esq. The paper under the new arrangement will be strongly Republican, or opposition to the Administration in its politics.

GRAHAM'S MAGAZINE—We have received the October number of this excellent periodical. It is well worth the price $3. See our club list.

EMERSON'S MAGAZINE. The October number of this magazine is before us filled with its usual variety of interesting matter.

Political. "That same old Coon" is trotted out by the Lebanon Courier, and heads the election returns. The sight of the old fellow is suggestive and brings up reminiscences of the good old times when the venerable Harrison led the Whig army to victory, and of the campaign of 1844 when the magic voice of the gallant lamented Clay stirred like a trumpet blast the blood in every true Whig heart, and rallied around him the enthusiastic masses of the American people. Whilst contemplating the newly resurrected "Old Coon," and indulging in thoughts of times "lang syne," we found ourselves humming the once popular refrain:

"We'll give you a touch of the same old tune, We'll give you a sight of the same old Coon, You'll see him again by the light of the moon— Hurrah for the Farmer of Ashland."

Iowa Election. BURLINGTON, Saturday, Oct. 16, 1858. Returns, reported, and official, from ten counties in this District, show a Republican gain of 200 from last year. The indications are that Curtis (Rep.) is re-elected to Congress by 1,000 majority.

INTERESTING FROM WASHINGTON.—The Nicaragua question—General Jerez Dismissed by the Administration—Washington Oct. 16.—General Jerez has been informed by the Secretary of State that, not having power, as it was understood he had, to settle the Nicaragua difficulty, by accepting the Cass-Yrisarri treaty, it would be useless to hold further communication with him, and that this government, in the meantime, would not wait for any further useless negotiations, which only served to embarrass a plain question, but would pursue the decisive policy already explained to him.

The War Department has received a communication from Major Garnett, commanding a detachment of the Ninth Infantry in Washington Territory, dated Yakama Expedition, Nehatha river, August 13. After giving an account of the capture of some Indians, who it is believed had fled into the Blackfeet country in pursuit and alarm of others, and the death of Lieut. Allen, Major Garnett says it is his intention to move to the region of Okanagan to show his force there. The Indians state that the tribes at the north of Okanagan are friendly. They say the story of the massacre of twenty-five miners from Walla-Walla is untrue. Major Garnett finds it impossible for foot troops to traverse the country from the mouth of the Spokane river to Buckland Rapids, at Columbia river, for want of water on the trail. He intended to cross the Columbia at Okanagan, follow it on the east side to the Priests' Rapids, there recross it, and reach his post on the 20th of this month.

The General Land Office has decided that by the law relating to pre-emptions upon half breed tracts, a settler upon a technical quarter section is an occupant of the whole of it, and will take the whole, although improvements may cover a part only, with the view to holding in other quarter sections, must be clearly shown and intention notified, otherwise subsequent location of scrip will hold the subdivisions not improved on or not notified for pre-emption.—N. Y. Herald.

THE RESULT IN BERKS. Great Excitement.

High-handed Outrage—Exclusion of the Reporters and attempt to disfranchise over 700 Voters.

READING, Oct. 16, 9 1/2 A. M. Our telegraphic dispatch yesterday announced the high handed attempt of his election by setting aside the votes of over seven hundred freemen, and the defeat of the villainous scheme by the indignant people of Reading. The Journal contains an article severely denunciatory of this attempted fraud from which we quote the closing paragraph.

The difficulty which a few men attempted to get up about the South-West Ward, was founded on the fact there were five more votes for the two members of Congress than there were names on the tally list—a circumstance which is accounted for by the fact that one or more of the clerks were slow and inefficient, and that votes of young men who voted on age were polled, whose names were not recorded. Trifling discrepancies of this kind often occur, and at this election happened in Tulpehocken district where Jones had a majority, yet this is the first attempt ever made to defraud honest voters of their votes, because a blunder or two had been made by the election officers.

Emigration to Kansas. Over fifty wagons left here yesterday for different sections of South Kansas.

Among them were nineteen families from the States of Wisconsin, Iowa, Illinois and Ohio. The land emigration to Kansas during past two weeks has been larger than at any time this year. There seems to be a general exodus, not only from the older Western States, but also from the Eastern and Atlantic States, to the rich farming valleys of Southern Kansas. There is not probably in all our public domain a greater area of first class land for all branches of farming—stock farms, produce farms, dairy, orchard and vineyard farms, hemp, tobacco and cotton farms—and last but not least, farms for the raising of sheep—than is to be found among the counties of Southern Kansas. Our city is every day crowded with detachments of this immense emigration, and there is one feature among this moving multitude that we cannot fail to admire—it is an emigration of fathers, mothers, sons and daughters, with all their household effects and their stock and implements of agriculture, to provide for their maintenance through the cultivation and bounties of the soil.—Kan. Jour.

MINNESOTA ELECTION. Chicago, Saturday, Oct. 16, 1858. The returns from Minnesota came in slowly. The following only have been received: Hennepin county—The whole Republican ticket elected. Scott County—Two Democrats and two Republicans elected to the Legislature. Ramsey County—The entire Democratic ticket elected. Washington and Dakota Counties—Carried by the Republicans.

We had intended giving a list of the Premiums awarded at the late Agricultural Fair held at this place, but for want of room we are obliged to defer it till next week.

A Lager Beer Riot.

The Illinois Legislature in the act incorporating the "Northwestern University" at Evanston, introduced a clause prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors within a circuit of four miles around the University. A German shoemaker, named John Hahn, ignoring the law commenced the sale of lager beer at his house within the radius. Suits were brought against him, and judgments rendered, appeals from which were taken, and the matter is now before the Supreme Court.

On Thursday night last, a mob of sixteen persons, with blackened faces, broke into his apartment, tied him down, proceeded to his cellar and knocked in the heads of some beer and brandy casks, and destroyed about $150 worth of liquor. On Saturday James Ludlam, William H. Hill and J. W. Morse, residents of Evanston, were arrested for a riot on Thursday, at the above place.

Upon hearing of the case, the Justice held them in bonds at $500 each to stand trial in the upper Courts.

Horse Race at Boston.

Boston, Saturday, Oct. 16, 1858. The races here finished this afternoon with a trot, best three in five, to harness, for a purse of $300. The horses entered were Tom Carpenter, ridden by A. Carpenter; Trotting Childers, ridden by D. Mace; Ajax, ridden by his owner, H. H. Smith; and Romeo, ridden by D. Pfifer in the first heat, and by B. Thurston for the remainder. The race was won by Tom Carpenter in five heats, two of which were dead heats with Trotting Childers. The time made by Tom was 2:40, 2:39, 2:39, 2:41, and 2:39. It was a most exciting race.

Jones to be Rewarded.

The Reading Daily Times, of this morning, has the following announcement: "The Hon. J. Glancy Jones received on Saturday last a letter from the President of the United States, tendering him the appointment of Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to Austria. We have not learned whether Mr. Jones will accept the distinguished compliment offered or not."

OHIO ELECTION.

CLEVELAND, Saturday, Oct. 16, 1858. The Republican majority on the State ticket is about 15,000. Fifteen Republican and six Democratic Congressmen are elected.

CINCINNATI, Saturday, Oct. 16, 1858.

The official count of the XVIIth Congressional District, gives Theaker (Rep.) 105 majority.

Indiana Election.

INDIANAPOLIS, Saturday, Oct. 16, 1858. The returns come in but slowly, and the result on the State ticket is doubtful. Three Democratic Judges are probably elected, and the Democrats have a majority of the Senate. The house is close and doubtful.

KANSAS AFFAIRS.

Free State Convention Called. St. Louis, Oct. 16. The Central committee of Kansas has called for a Free State delegate Convention to be held at Lawrence, November 10th, for the purpose of discussing various questions connected with the present organization of Territory and to determine the true policy of the party as to the question of obtaining a speedy admission into the Union as a free State.

ELK COUNTY, O. K.

Gillis Rebuked at Home!! Elk County.—Oct. 14.—We have just received returns from Elk County, and James Lecompton Gillis's majority in his own county is less than 50. In 1856 it was 248. The township of Ridgway, his home, gave Hall 8 majority. McKean County gives Hall nearly 400 majority!—What a rebuke to the man who "flew to the horns of old Buck."

From Kansas.

St. Louis, Saturday Oct. 16, 1858. The Central Committee of Kansas have called a Free State Delegate Convention, to be held at Lawrence, Nov. 10, for the purpose of discussing the various questions connected with the present political organizations in the Territory, of determining the true policy of the party, and considering the question of the speedy admission of Kansas into the Union as a Free State.

John Chinaman—the way he Fights.

A correspondent writes:—I have seen the arms used by the Chinese, in the fight at the storming of the forts at the mouth of the Pei Ho. The first sight of them shows the utter hopelessness of this vast Empire of 350,000,000 of population, when it comes in contact with European science and arms, and discipline, on the battle field. They remind me of the scenes of my boyhood, when all the lads of my country village were armed with wooden guns, furnished with wooden locks and flints, which could snap if they could not fire.—They are ignorant of the rifle, the percussion cap, and even of the flint, once used in its place. The gun is a match lock and of formidable dimensions and weight, as to need wheels to carry it, instead of their own shoulders. It is almost impossible to raise and level it, such is its weight; and often another man kneeling before who loads and fires, bears the end of the gun upon his shoulder, in the happy consciousness that if the enemy chooses to kill him instead of the soldier at the other end of the gun, he is innocent of any man's blood and could not but be. And there matchlocks! they are worthy of a place in any antiquarian museum.

Almost would the old knights Templar of Malta start up again, should these matchlock guns be placed in the gallery beside their armor. The match-lock incubus-someness is fairly in keeping with the large and stock, some inflammable material which is kept burning, taking the place of a flint in a common gun, and coming down like the tail of a comet when the tedious process of loading is completed. Then there is the spear, not to be used by the hand in fight, but slender and armed with an iron point, and fired with rockets. Then comes the battle axe, not heavy, and easily wielded by the hand, but unless, except in close contact, and then powerless compared with sword and the bayonet. Their cannon are either sunk in the earth and permanently leveled, or else mounted on carriages which provide for no elevation or depression of the guns, or else make it so slow and difficult that after all the carriage is useless. In the attack on the forts one of the steam gun boats came within range of the guns, and received several shots. Very strangely and unlike a soldier and a gentleman, as John Chinaman thought, the Englishman did not choose to remain in range and presto! with a puff of steam was out of the reach of their guns, though almost touching their nozzles.

A man in the North recently collected a large audience to see him crawl into a bottle. After setting his cash, he apologized to the audience for disappointing them, but said it was impossible to perform the feat, as he could not find a bottle large enough.

In an Irish provincial journal there is an advertisement running thus:—"Wanted, a handy laborer, who can plough a married man and Protestant, with a son or daughter."

Jerrold said to an ardent young gentleman who burned to see himself in print. "Be advised by me young man; don't take down the shutters before there is something in the window."

Do you suppose that the grown up child does not want amusement, when you see how greedy children are of it? Do not imagine we grow out of that; we disguise ourselves by various solemnities, but we have none of us lost the child nature yet.

In a case recently tried in Philadelphia, the Court decided that a child placed at school is under the control of the teacher, and can be properly punished by him when necessary, and that no one has a right to interfere with him in the discharge of his duties.
