INVERTED POSTS.—A correspondent of the Wisconsin Farmer says, that in 1802, his father set two bar posts, cut of swamps white oak, the stick being split into halves and one set inverted, the other not. The latter was decayed twenty years afterwards —the inverted one, when he last visited the place forty years after setting, was as cound as ever.

Why Doctor said a sick lady, you give me the same medicine as you are giving to my husband—how's that.

All right, replied the doctor; what is sauce for the the goose is sauce for the gander.
