Shade or fruit trees do much better set on the north side of a hedge or wall than of earlier in the spring, and the sap gins to circulate before the severe frosty nights are all gone; consequently the sap gets chilled and the growth of the tree is retarded if its life is not destroyed. On the north side the snow remains and all the functions of the tree lie dornent, nil they are warmed into life by the atmost phere, then they 'go ahead' rapidly. All manures tor fruit trees should be those termed cold—that is those that have be no composted with muck, and decompo-sed borce use. Frye, Jr., Andover Maine 1858.—[Moore's Rural New Toker Otto-ber 16. Nothing pays better for care and atter-tion than the apple. A single acre in this fruit, kept in good heart by manuring and cultivation, will yield more profit than ten-date very year; is in keeping the trees clean and in feeding them. Prairie Farmer Oct. 21. Keeping Winter Apples. A Dutchess county correspondent, Mr. S. T. Belding, of Dover Plains, writes to us: 'I have found by experience that the best way of saving winter apples is to pack them in layers with rye or wheat straw. Oat straw should never be used, as it is apt to collect dampness. Rye or wheat straw has this effect; that if an ap-le becomes rotten it absorbs the moisture, leaving the apple fit to remove without are very large and fine, and attest the fer-tility of the region in which they are pro-duced, as well as the care of cultivation...-New York Post.

B. MORSE, the inventor of MORSE'S IN DIAN ROOT PILLS, has spent the grea-ter part of his life in traveling, having visited Europe, Asia, and Africa, as well as North America-mass spent three years among the In-dians of our Western contrivy--it was 'in this correct. Dr. Morse was the first man to es-tablish the fact that all diseases arise from In-ternet of the Blod-that our strength, health and the depended upon this vital flaid. When the various passages become clogged, and do not act in perfect harmony with the dif-forest functions of the body, the Blod lases its action, becomes thick, corrupted and di-saneed; thus causing all pains sickness and distress of every name; our strength is exhaus-ter is not assisted in throwing of the stag-ant humory, the Blod will become choked and case to act, and thus our light of life will forver be blown out. How important then that we should keep the various passanges of us that we have it in our power to puts medi-tion in your erach, namely. Morse's Indian Root Pills, manufictured from plants and roots which grow around the montainous cills in Nature's garden, for the health and recovery of diseased man. One of the roots from which nch grow around the mountainous cliffs in ature's garden, for the health and recovery diseased man.
