By Inhilation, the vapor and cura-tive properties of medicines are directly addea-sed to the diseance organs and the integument. do not advise the use of Medical Inhalation of any kind, to the exclusion of general treat-ment; and although I consider it a useful ad-ipvant in the proper management of those fear-ful and often fatal diseases, yet I deem it very necessary that each patient should have the benefit of both general and local treatment. The success of my treatment in the above di-sease, and the high character of the Institution over which I have so long had the honor to proside, are too well known to need any sulogy or comment from me. At the solicitation of may private and professional friends, through whose philanthropic all the above charity has been long and liberally supported, and after due consideration, I have concluded to unake such arrangements as will bring the benefits of my experience and treatment within the reach of all, and uot confine myself, as heretofore, to those only effect, on all diseases as above and that the medicines, the same as used in my experience and treatment within the reach of all, and uot confine myself, as heretofore, to those only effect, on all diseases as above and that the medicines, the same as used in the Institution, prepared to suit cach, individu al case, Inhaling Yapors, Medical Inhaling, &. & & Wetthe or the curated by express to any part of the United States or the Canadas-rase Medicine, and the balances? at he explayers of D. When the various passages become clogged, and do not act in perfect harmony with the dif-ferent functions of the body, the blood loses its action, becomes thick, corrupted and it assated; thus causing all pains sickness and distress of every name; our strength is exhaus-ted, our health we are deprived of, and if na-ture is not assisted in throwing of the stag-nant humors, the blood will become cholced and cease to act, and thus our light of life will forever be blown out. How important then that we ahould keep the various passages of the body free and open. And how pleasant to us that we have it in our power to put a medi-cine in your reach, namely.
