

Huntingdon Journal.

Wm. Brewster, Editor and Proprietor.

Wednesday Morning, December 1, 1858.

The Circulation of the Huntingdon Journal, is greater than the Globe and American combined.

CLUBBING WITH MAGAZINES.

The Huntingdon Journal for one year, and either of the Magazines for the same period will be sent to the address of any subscriber to be paid in advance as follows: The Journal and Godley's Lady's Book, for one year, $3 50; The Journal and Graham's Magazine, for one year, $3 50; The Journal and Emerson's Magazine and Putnam's Monthly, for one year, $3 50; The Journal and Frank Leslie's Family Magazine and Gazette of Fashion, for one year, $3 50; The Journal and Lady's Home Magazine, for one year, $2 75; The Journal and Peterson's Magazine, for one year, $2 75; The Journal and Atlantic Monthly, for one year, $3 50.

INJURED—Harry Swivel, one of the gentlemanly brakemen on the Pennsylvania Railroad, and resident of this place, had his thumb crushed or taken off, while coupling a car in the fast line, one afternoon last week, at Pittsburg.

Jonathan Foch, Colporteur of the American Tract Society in Blair and Huntingdon Counties, will commence on Monday, December 6th., to visit every family in the borough of Huntingdon and adjoining with the publications of the American Tract Society, which can not be surpassed by any other Publication Society in America—for beauty, strength and cheapness.

On Saturday night of last week snow commenced falling, and continued until the next day, the depth was about eight inches.

It will be observed that from thence forth the Express train going East will leave this place at 8.30, A. M., and the Fast Line going East will leave this place at 11.30, P. M.

The young colored girls of this place gave a series of theatrical performances during last week, which were said to be very entertaining.

To-day Thaddeus K. Simonton takes charge of the 'Exchange Hotel.' recently conducted by Col. A. Johnston. We have every reason to think that those who favor Mr. Simonton with a call will ever after give him their custom.

The congregation of the Presbyterian Church, of this place, has, without a dissenting voice, given their Pastor, the Rev. O. O. McClean, a leave of absence for six months or more, for the purpose of visiting the South, his salary to be continued and all expenses paid.

The Little Pilgrim for 1859.—A monthly Journal for Boys and Girls. Edited by Grace Greenwood. The sixth volume of this popular monthly will commence with a holiday number for January, in which will be commenced a story prepared expressly for the Little Pilgrim by Mary Howitt, called the Fairy God-mother. The January number, which we design to make a brilliant specimen, will also contain a beautiful story by Grace Greenwood, called Little Angelo and his Whim Mice.

The Printer.—This is a monthly, devoted to the "art preservative of all arts." Published in New York at $1 per annum, by Henry & Huntington.

Peterson's Counterfeit Detector for December is before us, and gives a history of sixty-six new counterfeits.

The Dental Reporter.—This is a periodical published in Cincinnati, Ohio, by John T. Toland, at 25 cents a year in advance, single copies 10 cents.

This Reporter is devoted to Dental progress, and improvement in the manufacture and use of instruments and materials. The Dental profession should subscribe for it.

The Atlantic Monthly.—A periodical devoted to Literature, Art, and Politics, is well known to us, and we have no hesitation in pronouncing it one of the best monthlies in the United States. Published in Boston, by Phillips, Sampson & Co., at $3 a year, or we will have the Atlantic and Huntingdon Journal sent to any address for $3.50 per annum in advance.

The 3d volume will commence with January, 1859. At that time the ever witty and popular AUTOCRAT OF THE BREAKFAST TABLE will commence a new series of articles, which cannot help but prove acceptable.

A gentleman recently inquired of Governor Harris, of Tennessee, when he intended to appoint a day for Thanksgiving.—"I'd like to know what the day—the Democrats have got to thank God for this year," was the melancholy response.

The Four Sisters.

The 'Saturday Evening Post' says of it:

"The Four Sisters, by Miss Bremer, is one of those novels, which have so pleasantly opened to us the doors of Swedish homes, warmed our hearts in their cheerful fireside glow, and made us familiar with the lights and shadows of Swedish life.—The subject of the story is woman's life and a woman's fate. The novel is full of rich humor, clever character painting, and felicitous descriptions of town life and country life, and in door and out-door scenery in Sweden. The translation has been made by Mary Howitt, who seems born to do two things remarkably well—write admirable stories of her own, and admirably translate the stories of Miss Bremer. We would advise all of our readers to obtain it and read it. It is published by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia, who will send a bound copy of it to any one, per mail, free of postage, on sending $1.25 in a letter to them."

Arthur's Home Magazine.—The publishers announce, for the coming year, a monger other leading attractions, a new novel from the charming pen of Miss Townsend, one of the Editors, entitled, "Wart and See." It will be commenced in January, and be continued through six or seven numbers of the Magazine. A rare treat is in store for its readers.

As heretofore, there will be a Mother's Department; a Boys' and Girls' Department; a Health Department; and a Fashion Department. Each will contain matters specially appropriate, and valuable to mothers and housekeepers. No other periodical attempts to meet the common want like this. It is the Home Magazine of the country.

The low price of this Magazine brings it within the reach of every household.—Only $2 a year; or two copies for $3. In clubs of four subscribers, which are furnished at the low price of $5, it costs but $1.25 per annum. Address T. S. Arthur & Co., 323 Walnut Street, Philadelphia.

Miscellaneous News.

HORRIBLE MURDER IN HARTFORD CONN.—Benjamin Roberts, a colored man, living at Freeman's Assembly Rooms, Hartford, killed his wife Mary, at about 2 o'clock, on Saturday morning, by stabbing her in the back.

and had quarreled frequently. Two colored men named Easton, living in the house, rushed into Robert's room on hearing the cry of "murder," and found Roberts with arm around his wife's neck holding her head back, while with the other hand he was stabbing her in the breast. They saw him stab her twice, plunging the knife to the hilt at each blow, and grasped with him. Roberts was secured and conveyed to the lock-up. As soon as the woman was freed from her husband's grasp, she staggered into the passage way between the two rooms, and seated herself upon the stairs. Here she merely groaned, being able only to articulate a few low cries and laments. She lived for some half an hour after the fatal blow had been dealt. She was a slightly built African, of rather a pleasant cast of features, and 31 years of age. The statement that Roberts was intoxicated at the time of the murder is denied, though it is said that he had a violent quarrel with his wife during the forenoon, and that hard words and recriminations had passed between them just previous to the murder. The murder is a very ugly character, half negro and half Indian, who has been in the State Prison and is known to the police. He is a desperate fellow, and in the struggle between him and the colored persons who broke into the room, one of them had one finger cut off. The Jury rendered a verdict in accordance with the above facts.

THE KANSAS GOLD MINES A REALITY.—The Leavenworth City Times says that all doubts in regard to the reality of the gold mines of that State are now dispelled. The dirt of the Kansas mines of that State are now dispelled. The dirt of the Kansas mines pays from ten to fifteen cents per pan, while in California diggings are considered rich which average from five to seven cents to the pan. The Herald says: "There will be no more arrivals from the gold mines before Spring. Those who are there at present have already gone into winter quarters, while those on the road will do the same as soon as they arrive. It is not possible that any operation will be carried on this winter, and we must wait patiently until spring for further account."

It is stated in many of the eastern papers that the Pike's Peak excitement has subsided. This is a mistake. True, the rush to the mines has ceased, but simply because it is impossible to make the trip at this season without hardship, suffering and possibly loss of life. But thousands are now on the frontier, preparing for an early start in the spring. At least five hundred men in this place will leave for the mines as soon as the winter breaks; and we hazard the assertion that the State of Missouri and Iowa, and the territories of Kansas and Nebraska will send an emigration of 10,000 to the mines before next summer."

Respecting the surviving members of the Gouldy family, in New York, so horribly butchered by a dissipated son, the Herald says:

We are pleased to record the rapid recovery of the surviving members of the late melancholy Gouldy tragedy. Mrs. Gouldy, the step-mother of the unfortunate young man is convalescent. The dangerous wounds upon her head, and the bruises upon her arm, has been skillfully healed. Her health has greatly improved so that she is able to walk about her chamber. Mr. Gouldy is also rapidly recovering; one of the wounds upon his head has been entirely healed; the other and most dangerous, is in a fair way for healing. The brain protrudes very slightly, but is daily going down. Dr. Van Buren, one of the attending physicians, expresses his conviction that he will recover although many weeks must pass before he can regain his former strength. Mr. Gouldy's side is still paralyzed but as soon as his wounds are well the galvanic battery is to be applied. Mr. Gouldy retains his faculties in a wonderful degree. He is able freely to converse on all topics. He has not yet been made acquainted with the suicide of his son, which melancholy information will not be broken to him until there is every reason to believe that he will fully recover. The girl Murphy still remains in the New York Hospital and her wounds indicate speedy recovery. Her physicians are very confident of saving her life. Young Nathaniel Gouldy is also convalescent—so much so as to be able to sit up in his bed. His brother Charles is getting along slowly, but by constant care and attention the physicians hope to restore him to health.

The little village of Warsaw, in the State of Mississippi, is a hard place. Twelve fatal affrays have occurred lately. The last one took place between one Dorsey, a merchant, and E. L. Magruder, a carpenter, on the 13th ultimo. An exchange says, from the fact that Dorsey, in the morning, at breakfast, observed that he "was eating breakfast here this morning, but would eat supper in—, this evening," and that Magruder, on the road to town, told some one to make his coffin, as he didn't intend to live that day out, it is evident that there was an old grudge between them. They subsequently met and settled it with knife and pistol.—Dorsey caught his enemy as he tried to run and plunged it into Magruder's back, just below the shoulder-blade, to the hilt, which from the force of the blow broke off. Magruder died, and Dorsey, who had received several pistol bullets, walked over to his house, replying "I'm shot plum through," to the question whether he was hurt. He survived about fifteen minutes.

THE PRUSSIAN FORGER. A letter from Paducah, Ky., dated on the 10th inst., says: "The Prussian forger, Desling, better known in your community as Mr. Formr, destroyed himself by blowing out his brains, a few days ago, at Memphis. His wife, a jolly danseuse, was in expectation of his return to Paducah; but as soon as she heard of his death she thought of a ready consolation, and got married the same day to a young fellow, one among her newest acquaintances."

Desling, it will be recollected, gave the Prussian Government a good deal of trouble on account of a scheme of forgery which he contrived and partially executed, on one of the Prussian banking houses. He fled to the United States, was pursued eluded his pursuers until his arrival at Chicago, played an engagement at a theater there, and there also met his wife proceeded to St. Louis, and thence to Paducah, where he was arrested. The sympathies of the people were excited in his favor. On an examination before the Court, it was decided that the papers did not present a case for the operation of the extradition treaty, and he was released.

Indiana. We have already chronicled a complete Anti-Lecompton triumph in the organization of the Indiana Legislature last Saturday. In the Senate, James H. Vawter, (Anti-Lecompton Dem.) of Jennings Co. was chosen Secretary by a unanimous vote, and James N. Tyner (Repub. Asst.) by 25 to 22. A. F. Shortridge of Marion was chosen Doorkeeper by 25 to 23, and B. F. Clark Assistant, by 25 to 21. In the House, J. Gordon of Marion (Repub.) was chosen Speaker by 50 votes to 43 for David Turpie of White—two scatered and 3 blanks. R. J. Ryan was then chosen Clerk by 54 to 45, Ellis Campbell Assistant by 51 to 45, and Robert Jennings Doorkeeper by 54 to 43. So, both Houses were completely organized by a union of Republicans and Anti-Lecompton Democrats. It is understood that the Lecomptonites offered the Anti-Lecompton Democrats all the offices if they would act with them, but they were declined.

The Legislature of Indiana, now in session, is about to elect two United States Senators, in place of the bogus ones, Bright and Fitch, and the opposition has agreed to elect one American Republican and one anti-Lecompton Democrat.

A Slave Code for the Territories. The Washington Union copies the articles from the Richmond Enquirer and endorses it. After showing that Douglas in his Illinois speeches repudiated the doctrine laid down by the Enquirer that it is the duty of Congress to frame a Slave Code for the Territories, it says: "It is possible, however, that Mr. Douglas die not mean what he said, or that he did not say what he is reported to have said. It is eminently proper, therefore, that there should be a clear understanding of his position on this subject by the whole country; and hence we say that the article of the Enquirer is most pertinent and important."

These papers are determined, it seems, to make Judge Douglas show his hand on this question and say whether he is, or not, in favor of Congressional intervention on behalf of Slavery; and no matter what his answer may be, the determination to make this plank in the Democratic platform is as plain as day. It is demanded by the South, as a fair and legitimate consequence of the Dred Scott doctrine, which makes all the Territories slave soil. It is viewed as being just as much of a necessity as the law for the reclamation of fugitives. It is regarded as essential to the complete overthrow of that "Squatter Sovereignty," which the North was assured was the true intent and meaning of the Kansas Nebraska Bill.

The ground is boldly and imperiously taken, that Congress must complete the work begun in the repeal of the Missouri Compromise and continued in the Dred Scott decision, by enacting a code which no territorial legislature shall have power to touch, protecting Slavery in the Territories. Another test—most monstrous and odious in its character, worse even than Lecompton—is its to be established by the National Democracy.

Further from Mexico—A Fight at Tengenopam. In the Presses, of Nov. 11th, we find a long account of an engagement between a body of forces under Gen. La Llave, at Tengenopam, and a body of Echegaray's troops, who were endeavoring to effect an advance towards Vera Cruz, by way of San Salvador. The column of Constitutional forces, under Comandante Camanche, who had been posted to meet them, very rapidly defeated them, killing and wounding several, who were abandoned. They retreated to a position about a quarter of eight o'clock this morning.

Indiana. The message of Governor Willard was delivered on Monday afternoon. It is very brief, and confined exclusively to the causes that render the extra session of the Legislature necessary. He announced to some length upon the failure of the last Legislature to make appropriations for the maintenance of the State officers, the State institutions, and for the payment of the interest of the State debt. He urged the immediate action of the present Assembly upon these important subjects. He further recommends the erection of another State Prison in the northern part of the State, and concluded by expressing the hope "that wisdom and patriotism would guide the action" of those he addressed.

A young man named B. B. Ball-Cypress, Miss., was ordered by his father to leave home, under the penalty of being cowhided.—The father attempted to fulfil his threat, when the young man's mother interceded in his behalf, and was struck upon the head several times by the father which the son seeing, he resolved to die by self-destruction, rather than live and see his mother and himself imposed upon. He then took his gun, receded a few steps from the house, hauled off his shoes, and looked at his watch, giving himself half an hour for repentance. On the expiration of the half hour, he blew his brains out, by pulling the trigger with his toe. The young man's untimely fate is deeply mourned by his surviving friends.

Interesting agricultural statistics of Ohio have been published by the State Agricultural Society. There are 7,000,000 worth of hogs in the State; $5,000,000 worth of sheep; $21,000,000 worth of cattle; $485,000 worth of mules and asses, and 750,000 horses worth $45,000,000. The total value of Agricultural products reaches $153,000,000.

DEATH OF THE HON. T. L. HARRIS.—Chicago, Ill., Wednesday, Nov. 24th '58.—The Hon. T. L. Harris, Member of Congress elect from the 11th district of this State, died of consumption, at 6 o'clock this morning.

THE INDIANA LEGISLATURE.—Indianapolis, Ia., Wednesday, Nov. 24, 1858.—The senate has passed a resolution, by a vote of 26 to 22, declaring the election of Messrs. Bright and Fitch to the U. S. Senate, illegal, unconstitutional and void. The same resolution is pending in the House.

In speaking of the American party the New York Tribune says:

Before the election we were by a City journal of Republican professions with wantonly throwing away an opportunity of electing to Congress an undoubted Republican, by our support of Mr. Haskin for re-election. "The Republicans and Americans," it was urged, "have Four to Five Thousand majority in the District, and only the obstinacy of the Tribune prevents their combining to elect one of their number to Congress."

We knew the facts were otherwise—knew it for having tried unsuccessfully to elect an American of Republican proclivities to the State Senate last year. The plan did not work, mainly because the American party of 1856 has stepped out—gone up—vanished—passed away. Their Fillmore Elector is now, and has for months been, an active Lecompton Democrat; their last Member of Assembly has taken the same shoot—in short, there is nothing left. Yonkers, which gave Fillmore some two hundred votes, hasn't for a year or more had Americans enough to form a platoon—and so it is almost everywhere. In short, so many Americans have gone over to the Sham Democracy that there are not enough left to help the Republicans elect a Member of Congress, if they were all combined on one candidate, as all would not be.

Fleeced in a Gambling House in New York.—A drover hailing from Kentucky, appeared before Justice Welsh on Saturday morning last, and complained that he had been fleeced out of between $2,000 and $3,000 at a gambling establishment, No. 375 Broadway. On entering the place which he had been induced to visit, he found the game of faro going on, and a man by the name of Johnson dealing the cards. He was induced to play, and lost about $800 there; he was next induced by two men named Hanley and Riley, to go to another place in Walker street, where at the same game, he lost $600 more. He subsequently visited other gambling houses in the city, at which he lost about $1,000 more. Warrants were issued and placed in the hands of Sergeant Croft, who, with officer Fowler of the Mayor's squad, arrested William Johnson, Wm. H. Riley, William Hanley and John Huestess, at No. 575 Broadway, all of whom were identified by the drover as the parties who had relieved him of his funds. They were respectively held to bail in the sum of $1,000 each, to appear before Justice Welsh at 10 o'clock this morning.

Mexican Affairs. Washington, Nov. 28, 1858. The Administration is still occupied with Mexican affairs. The Cabinet was in session almost all day on Saturday. A Senior Magann has arrived here, who is said to be an accredited agent of President Juarez, empowered to negotiate a loan of five or ten millions, and to pledge the State of Sonora as security or sell it as an equivalent to the ready cash desired. If such be his errand, he will meet with little encouragement, for the President looks to more than the acquisition of Sonora in view of the present complication of affairs in distracted Mexico.

A MAMMOTH ESTABLISHMENT.—The Cambria Ironworks is stated to be among the largest, if not the largest in the United States. The rolling mill embraces sixty puddling and twelve heating furnaces, fourteen pair rolls and fourteen steam engines, equal to one thousand horse power and the capacity of one hundred tons per day, or thirty thousand tons of rails per annum, allowing one month in the year for necessary repairs.

FROM WASHINGTON.—Washington Nov. 27.—There is no truth in the report circulated throughout the South, that Secretary Cobb has accepted the position of Minister to France.

The Cabin was in extraordinary session to-day, on matters to be presented to Congress, on the opening of the session. A Kansas letter, from an authentic source, mentions that Montgomery and his associates have been indicted, but are evading the process of the law.

NEW SETTLEMENT.—A new settlement has been started at Hamonton, New Jersey, which for success and progress rivals anything we have heard of in the West. There is a large emigration having objection to the West on account of unwholesome climate, distance and association, which embraces this new enterprise. The land is in a general climate, and the soil is said to be amongst the best Jersey soil. Jersey, as will be seen by the agricultural statistics at the Patent Office, is the first agricultural State in the Union for the value of its products. Hamonton is within thirty miles of Philadelphia by railroad, and enjoys over twenty-five miles being improved, a new railroad station, and all the elements of an old place. We are satisfied that this place must possess merit from its unparalleled progress.

A late Tennessee paper says:—

OPPOSITION IN TENNESSEE.—We notice in some of the newspaper speculations on the probable complexion of the next House of Representatives in Congress, that it is intimated that in Tennessee the opposition element will be absorbed by the democracy. This is a mistake. The opposition of Tennessee will fight democracy to the last gasp. They were never more thoroughly united than they are now. The divisions gouted out of the Kansas Nebraska bill have been healed, and whatever position may have been occupied by any member of the opposition party on that subject, it cannot now make any difference between him and other members. Thus united, the opposition will, in the next campaign enter into the contest with earnestness and zeal, and with a flattering prospect of success.

The sheriff of New castle county Delaware, or his deputy, will shortly have an extensive job of whipping to perform. At the late court in that county, no less than seven persons were convicted of criminal offences, and in addition to the fines and imprisonment imposed, some of them are to be sold, and receive from eight to twenty lashes each. One of the convicted—a woman—found guilty of stealing a small sum of money and a few articles of wearing apparel, from a person with whom she tarried all night, is to receive ten lashes, and to be sold, within the State, for a period not exceeding seven years.

The City of Jeddo, the Capital of Japan. The city of Jeddo is said to be without exception, the largest city in the world. It contains 1,500,000 dwellings, and the unparalleled number of 5,000,000 of people. Some of the streets are nineteen Japanese miles in length, which is equal to 32 English miles.

The Legislature of Indiana has decided, by conclusive majorities in either House, that the pretended election, two years ago, of Messrs. Bright and Fitch to U. S. Senate, was a fraud and a nullity, and that those gentlemen are not Senators from Indiana. An election is of course to follow immediately. We understand that the Hon. Henry S. Lane (Republican) and the Hon. John G. Davis (Anti-Lecompton Democrat) will be chosen. Mr. Lane was in Congress (the House) several years ago, and held a high rank there. Mr. Davis is the present Member from the Tenth Haute District, re-elected to the next House by a very large majority. We do not think it probable that either of these gentlemen will do in the premises, but presume they will try to hold on. In that case, an exciting contest is inevitable.
