Wednesday Morning, January 5, 1859

The Circulation of the Huntingdon Journal, is greater than the Globe and American combined.

CLUBBING WITH MAGAZINES.

The Huntingdon Journal for one year, and either of the Magazines for the same period will be sent to the address of any subscriber to be paid in advance as follows: The Journal and Godey's Lady's Book, for one year, $3 50. The Journal and Graham's Magazine, for one year, $3 50. The Journal and Emerson's Magazine and Putnam's Monthly, for one year, $3 50. The Journal and Frank Leslie's Family Magazine and Gazette of Fashion, for one year, $3 50. The Journal and Lady's Home Magazine, for one year, $2 75. The Journal and Peterson's Magazine, for one year, $2 75. The Journal and Atlantic Monthly, for one year, $3 50.

Agricultural Society.

As the annual election of officers of the Society is at hand, it is to be hoped that care will be exercised in the selection of capable, honest, and impartial men, who will redeem the character of the society; otherwise the notorious mismanagement of its affairs will continue to displease and disgust the thousands of country people who annually bring to our town, during fair time, at least a thousand dollars of hard earned cash, and spend nearly the same amount in valuable time in tending the fair. Hitherto "the Fair," we are inclined to believe, has been a swindling concern from beginning to end. We believe it was got up to benefit a few sharpers at the expense of the unsuspecting public. It will take something very convincing to change our opinion; and we look to the result of the next meeting for the signs of great improvement, or prompt destruction. Our course is taken. We are determined to use our utmost influence and efforts to put down the whole concern, if it fails to give ample evidence of a change in its treatment of us specially.

TIT FOR TAT.

Our ex-postmaster has not forgotten the indignity of being ousted from office by the unknown book peddler whose efficient services to the party commenced only a few weeks before the election, and he is now taking signal revenge of his rival by a formidable attack on his monopoly in the book trade. Whether the revenge will be as profitable as sweet, remains to be seen. Thus far, as we understand, the prospects are encouraging, and the new establishment bids fair to do a flourishing business. But be this as it may, one thing, at least, is certain—the book buying community will not be likely to lose by a little competition in the trade.

But the question will naturally suggest itself to the excited reader, The postmaster that is quietly submit to this invasion of his peculiar monopoly, by the postmaster that was? By no means. "His duob is up," and a fearful retribution awaits the founder of the rival Book Store in the shape of a New Locofoco Paper of super royal size and herculean power, with a magnificent Job office attached; a paper that shall "blow up" the book concern in a week, put down the Globe in a month, and send its meddlesome proprietor into the shades of forgetfulness "in less than no time!" We have not yet seen the prospectus of this portentous sheet, in print, but we learn from out-door report that it is to be a Semi-Weekly, called "THE BALD HORNET," and its platform of principles will probably be:

- 1. Devotion to the black Democracy and fresh oysters.
2. Hostility to the Huntingdon Globe and New Book-Store.
3. Stupendous demolition of both these nefarious concerns.
4. An elucidation of the Atlantic Cable, and a gastric analysis of Bologna Sausages and Limburger Cheese.
5. Foreign and Domestic News.
6. General Literature and Science; with, perhaps, an interesting department—original and unique—devoted specially to Orthography.
Some of the Plank in this platform will be subject to periodical changes to suit circumstances and the season; but mainly they will probably be found correct. We wish the editor abundant satisfaction in the new enterprise, and anxiously await the appearance of The Bald Hornet.

QUERY.—Why does John ape nash prate so much about woolly-heads? Is it because he fancies a certain resemblance between a woolly-head and a Snow Flake? or because his one time amorous, nocturnal tete a tete with a certain "woolly" was interrupted by a shower of brick-bats from her jealous, woolly admirer? For a satisfactory answer enquire at the business office of a semi-called German up street, who advertises in the American.

Skeleton of a Man Found. On the 22d ult. while Mr. John Heirner was out hunting deer on Terrace Mountain, in this county, after crossing to the east side of the mountain about fifty rods from the top, and twenty five rods from the road leading to Cassville, he observed in an excavation made by the falling of two trees something which attracted his attention, which when cleared of the rubbish proved to be a small trunk or box covered with lather in a dilapidated condition, it was found a box of matches, a small box containing a few shirt buttons and the frame of a pocket book. The taking up the trunk brought to view bones, and in clearing them of their covering of leaves and brush, proved to be the skeleton of a tall man, all in their natural position, the bones of the feet having the shoes on, and other clothing was found. Who he was, or how he came to his death, in the solitude of such a place is a mystery. It is supposed he was a jewelry peddler.

DR. W. BREWSTER. Dear Sir,—I will give you a statement of my labors as Colporteur of the American Tract Society, in the borough of Huntingdon: In the course of about three weeks I visited three hundred and eighty families, sold books to the amount of one hundred and ten dollars and four cents, and permit me through your excellent paper to tender my thanks for the hearty reception which they gave me. Yours &c., JONATHAN FOCHT, Colporteur. Williamsburg Jan. 1, 1859.

The Senate of the U. S. is opened daily by a Romish Priest in full canonicals. What do John ape nash and others who call themselves Americans and affect a holy horror of political popery, think of this? Will they again support a one-horse candidate for president: so as to secure the triumph of the Locofoco party and its robbed Priest hood? We shall see, what we shall see. We are rather inclined to think, however, that the Ape will soon lay aside the Know Nothing garment which fails to conceal his true character, and return the congenial embraces of his own party; He is beginning to find the position of private won't pay any longer, and he even now yearns to be once more a scullion in the Locofoco camp.

Why was one of the classical editors of the Ape's dirty, little paper, kicked out of the Standing Stone Literary Society? Was it because he has more hair than brain? or because the Society's motto, "No excuse for Ignorance!" Jerusalem! The longest lane must have an end.

The Pennsylvania Legislature met yesterday—100 late for us to give their proceedings in this issue, but will appear in our next.

Turned Know nothing. Judging from the recent acts of the Sheriff of this county, he has turned to be a Know-nothing, he has supported the Know nothing Press ever since he has been in office and it would appear that he has now entirely given up his once beloved Democracy. Until recently he supported the Globe and American, but he has now thrown his entire support to the American, and we are afraid the shallowness of his course will turn out to be greatly detrimental to the county. We think the law requires the Court Proclamation to be inserted in at least two newspapers of the county, and he has put it in only one.

The New York Herald says "the old Democratic party is virtually disbanded into a half dozen warring factions, each at the tail of some faction or sectional leader, and all intent, night and day, first and last, upon the spoils and plunder of the succession." Bannet is the confidential friend of the great chief and supreme law-giver of the Democracy, and ought to know what is its real condition. So this announcement may be considered semi-official.

A MAN SUDDENLY STRUCK DUMB.—We saw in the city on Saturday morning last Mr. Muchmore, a young farmer, of Butler county, who is the victim of a sudden and remarkable loss of speech. I seem that about a week ago, while in the full enjoyment of health, with no ailment what ever, he suddenly lost all power of speech. He could not utter a word. He had not suffered in the least with a disease of the throat, nor was he at any time, nor is he since, troubled with any sickness whatever. Indeed, with this single exception, he is enjoying perfect health.—The last day or two he has been able occasionally to utter a slight whisper which may be understood. He is in hopes that this is the forerunner of the restoration of his voice. It is a most singular case throughout.—Daily Cincinnati Times.

The Court of Quarter Sessions of this county will commence on Monday the 10th inst and continue two weeks.

The English Methodists are said to be pleased that lay representation is being agitated in America.

MORE THAN 500,000 Bottles SOLD IN THE NEW ENGLAND STATES IN ONE YEAR. THE RESTORATIVE OF O. J. WOOD. For restoring the hair perfectly and permanently has never yet had a rival, volume after volume might be given from all parts of the world and from the most intelligent to prove that it is a perfect Restorative; but read the circular and you cannot doubt; read also the following.

THE HAIR.—People have for centuries been afflicted with bald heads and the only remedy, heretofore known, has been those abominable wigs. By a recent discovery of Professor Wood these articles are being fast dispensed with, but a great many persons still patronize them, because they have been so often imposed upon. Their Tonic of different kinds. To all such persons we earnestly make the request, that they will try once again, for in Wood's Restorative there is no such thing as a wig. We know of a lady who was bald, who used the article a short time, and her head is now covered completely with the thickest and most beautiful curls imaginable. We know of numerous cases where hair was rapidly falling out, which it restored in greater perfection than it ever had before. It is also without doubt one of the best articles for keeping the hair in good condition, making it soft glossy, removing dandruff and has proved itself the greatest enemy to all the ills that hair is an heir to. It is the duty of every one to improve their personal appearance though some may differ in regard to the ways of doing it; but every one will admit that a beautiful head of hair, either in man or woman, is an object much to be desired, and there are no means that should be left untried to obtain such a consideration. —Woman's Advocate, Philadelphia.

Walden, Ohio, Nov. 18, 1856. O. J. WOOD & CO.—GENTS: As I have been engaged in selling your Hair Restorative the last season for one of your local agents, and having experienced the beneficial effects of it myself, I would like to obtain an agency for the State of Ohio or some State in the West, should you wish to make such an arrangement, as I am convinced there is nothing equal to it in the United States, for restoring the hair. I have been engaged in the drug business for several years, and have sold various preparations for the hair, but have found nothing that restores the sensitive organs or invigorates the scalp as well as yours, being fully convinced that your restorative is what I represent it to be, I would like to engage in the sale of it, for I am satisfied it must sell. Yours truly, S. T. STOCKMAN.

Walden, Mass., Feb. 5, 1857. PROF. O. J. WOOD & CO.—GENTS: Having realized the great effects of your Hair Restorative, I wish to state, that finding my hair growing thin, as well as gray, I was induced from what I read and heard, to try the articles prepared by you, to promote its growth and change its color as it was in youth, both of which it has effected completely. In the operation I have used nearly three bottles. Yours, &c. JAMES FRANCIS. O. J. WOOD & Co., Proprietors, 312 Broadway, New York. (in the great N. Y. Wire Railing Establishment,) and 114 Market St., St. Louis, Mo. John Read, Agent, Huntingdon, and sold by all good Druggists. Dec. 15, 58.—3t.
