

Farmer's Column.

He that by the plough would thrive, Himself must either hold or drive.

A FEW WORDS ON THE CULTIVATION OF WHEAT.

Corn, oats, rye, and barley, are all more or less used as food for man—they are all eminently nutritious; but of all cereals, wheat is most preferred, and is most extensively used.

Though wheat is a native of the temperate zones, yet it is remarkably hardy, withstanding alike the hottest summers and the severest winters.

It is impossible to lay down specific directions for the cultivation of wheat, adapted to all sections where the Genesee Farmer circulates. We can but allude to general principles, and leave their application to the intelligence of the reader.

By far the greater portion of land in this section needs underdraining. Even intelligent farmers have the crudest and most erroneous views on this subject.

It is a fact that such land is often full of stagnant water. Dig a trench eight or ten feet long and three or four feet deep; let it remain open for a week or two, and see if in the mean time if water does not accumulate and remain in it.

Underdraining is a permanent improvement, and the increase obtained from it is net profit. We know of instances where the increase of the first crop of wheat after underdraining has paid the whole cost of constructing the drains.

ACARD

DR. JAMES M. JARRET, OF THE NEW YORK LUNG INFIRMARY.

My connection for the past eight years with the above Institution, as Chief Physician, and a two-years' course of steady devotion to the Cure of Pulmonary Consumption and its kindred diseases, together with my unrivaled opportunities of advantage of pathological research—aided not a little by a perfect system of Medical Inhalation—has enabled me to arrive at a decisive, direct, and successful course of treatment for the positive and radical cure of all disease of the Throat, Lungs, and Air-Passages.

By Inhalation, the vapor and curative properties of medicines are directly addressed to the diseased organs and the integument, do not advise the use of Medical Inhalation of any kind, to the exclusion of general treatment; and although I consider it a useful adjunct in the proper management of those fearful and often fatal diseases, yet I deem it very necessary that each patient should have the benefit of both general and local treatment.

The success of my treatment in the above diseases, and the high character of the Institution over which I have so long had the honor to preside, are too well known to need any eulogy or comment from me.

At the solicitation of many private and professional friends, through whose philanthropic aid the above charity has been long and liberally supported, and after due consideration, I have concluded to make such arrangements as will bring the benefits of my experience and treatment within the reach of all, and not confine myself, as heretofore, to those only who entered the Infirmary, or who were able to visit me at my office.

Hoping therefore that the arrangement will give entire satisfaction, both to my professional brethren and the public, I would respectfully announce in conclusion, that I can now be consulted personally or by letter, on all diseases as above, and that the medicines, the same as used in the Institution, prepared to suit each individual case, including Vapors, Medical Inhalation, &c. &c., will be forwarded by express to any part of the United States or the Canadian Provinces.

My terms of treatment by letter are as follows, viz: $12 per month for each patient, which will include medicine sufficient for one month's use; also, Inhalation Vapor, and an Inhalation Apparatus. Payments as follows: $6 to be paid to Express Agent on receipt of the box of Medicine, and the balance at the expiration of the month, if the patient be cured or so satisfied with the treatment.

Patients, by giving a full history of their case, and their symptoms in full, can be treated as well by letter as by personal examination. Patients availing themselves of Dr. Jarrett's treatment may rely upon immediate and permanent relief, as he seldom hesitates to treat a case over thirty days. Letters of advice promptly answered. For further particulars address

JAMES M. JARRETT, M.D., No. 229 Broadway, cor. Twelfth St., N. Y. P.S.—Physicians and others visiting the city are respectfully invited to call at the Infirmary, where many interesting cases can be witnessed, and where our improved apparatus for the inhalation of medicated vapor can be seen and inspected.

TOWN VS. COUNTRY.—We notice as the warm weather grows apace, the denizens of pent up cities seek the unbragging shades and eolian scenes of the rural portions of the country; per contra the inhabitants of the country and dwellers among the enchanting scenery of nature, having a little leisure time, after gathering in the fruits of the earth, turn their attention cityward, for recreation or business purposes.

To all such, perhaps no city in the union possesses so many charms as the City of Genoa, with its many objects of beauty and art. Its magnificent water-works, its Academy of Music, Academy of Natural Science, Art Unions, Picture Galleries, Parks, Centennials, etc., and last, though not least, that link between the present and glorious past, that revered relic of the "times that tried men's souls"—Old Independence Hall. All are objects of unusual interest to the intelligent visitor, after viewing which, a few minutes might be profitably spent in the Hair Dressing Saloons of George Thurgald, No. 29 South Sixth St., between Chestnut and Market, in admiring the light and beautiful "Gosamer Wig" and "Poupee" of his make. George has also a "Liquid Hair Dye" which is rapidly spreading all over in the market.
