PROF. O. J. WOOD & CO.—Gents: Within a few days we have received so many orders and calls for Prof. J. H. Wood's Hair Restorative, that to-day we were compelled to send to Boston for a quantity, (the 6 dozen you forwarded all being sold,) while we might order a quantity from you. Every bottle we have sold seems to have produced three or four new customers, and the approbation, and patronage it receives from the most substantial and worthy citizens of our vicinity, fully convince us that it is a

MOST VALUABLE PREPARATION.

Send us as soon as you can one gross of $1 size; and one dozen of $2 size; and believe us your very respectfully, sir: I have used your Hair Restorative, and its effects were so wonderful, we feel it our perfectly covered with sores, and some called it

THE LIVER

INVIGORATOR!

PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD.

Compounded entirely of Gums.

Is one of the best purgative and liver medicines now before the public, that acts as a Cathartic, easier, milder, and more effectual than any medicine known. It is not only a Cathartic, but a Liver remedy, acting first on the Liver to eject its morbid, then on the stomach and bowels to carry off that matter, thus accomplishing two purposes effectually, without any of the painful feelings experienced in the operation of more than twenty. It strengthens the system at the same time that it purges it, and when taken daily in moderate doses, will strengthen and build it up with unusual rapidity.

The Liver is one of the principal regulators of the human body, and when it performs its functions well, the powers of the system are fully developed, and the liver is in condition to perform its duty. For the diseases of the Liver, having for the diseases of proprietors has made it a bottle and a card to the whole machine of the disease, and

One dose after eating the stomach and rising and souring.

Bilious attacks are better prevented, by the Liver Invigorator.

Only one dose in-tervents Nightmares.

Only one dose taken at night cures the bowels gently, and cures Costiveness.

One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsia.

One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always remove Sick Headache.

One bottle taken for female obstructions removes the canal of the disease, and makes a perfect cure.

Only one dose immediately relieves Cholera.

One dose often repeated is a sure cure for Cholera Morbus, and a preventive of Cholera.

Only one bottle is needed to throw out of the system the effects of medicine after a long sickness.

One bottle taken for Jaundice removes all sallowness or unnatural color from the skin.

One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite, and makes food digest well.

One dose often repeated cures Chronic Diarrhea in its worst forms, while Summer and Bowel complaints yield almost to the first dose.

One or two doses cures attacks caused by Worms in Children; there is no surer or speedier remedy in the world, as it never fails.

A few bottles cures dropsy, by exciting the absorbents.

We take pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventive for Exanthema, Acute Child-

MOUNTAINEER'S FAREWELL.

I have come from the mountains,

Of the old Granite State,

Where the hills are so lofty,

Magnificent and great;

I have left kindred spirits,

In the land of the blest,

When I bade them adieu

For the far distant West.

O, thy mountains—O, thy valleys

In my own native State.

O, thy hills and thy valleys,

Are sacred all to me,

No matter what in lands

Of others I may see.

I may view scenes as sunny,

As fair and as smooth;

Then I'll think of my cottage,

That stands in the grove.

O, my childhood—O, that homestead

In my own native State.

When I think of the fair ones

Who once was my pride,

As she roved among the mountains

So closely by my side;

Then I sigh for the days

That never will come back,

For she sleeps on the shore

Of the bold Merimac.

O, that loved one—O, that graveyard

In my own native State.

A mother dear I've lost,

She's gone to the grave,

She was the dearest blessing,

That God ever gave;

Now I go to the spot,

Where buried is the love,

And I seem to hear her singing,

With the angels above.

O, my mother, I bless her ashes,

In my own native State.

A mother dear I've lost,

She's gone to the grave,

She left her orphan weeping,

To go to God who gave.

Now I go to the spot,

Where buried is the love,

And I seem to hear her singing,

With the angels above.

O, my mother, I bless her ashes,

In my own native State.

MORAL MINIATURES—NO. 17.

IMAGINATION.

Imagination is that power of the mind which pre-supposes things before they take place, or which will never come to pass. A large part of happiness is so called, which people often enjoy is more the effect of imagination than reality. Hope being the vivifying principle of our nature endues us with elastic energy, and urges the most toilsome, arduous enterprises.

The mind, in gazing into futurity, decks every object with the brilliant rainbow hue of lasting felicity, and seldom notices the shadowed side of the picture of life.

It heightens the most attractive graces, adding new charms to each individual feature that claims our thought. In excursions natural bias of the mind, belongs to a large class of human beings. Others have a greater strength of intellect or inventive faculty, and thus we see that Providence has not unwisely planted the prolific seeds of taste and imagination in the minds of his children. Exposed as we are to afflictions, encompassed by dangers, and difficulties, we are apt to seek solace in whatever is within our reach, and in so doing, the poisoned chalice of criminal indulgence is too often seized upon. To draw humanity from these enticements, and lead toward the paths of peace a lively imagination is granted. It pictures vice, and shows its
