

Huntingdon Journal

Wednesday Morning, February 2, 1859

The Circulation of the Huntingdon Journal is greater than the Globe and American combined.

CLUBBING WITH MAGAZINES.

The Huntingdon Journal for one year, and either of the Magazines for the same period will be sent to the address of any subscriber...

Slippery.—We learned the other day that a certain man and his family came all the way from Illinois, in a small hand sled.

It appears that he came from Harrisburg to this place, and by some means, learned the name of a family living in the lower part of town.

On last Friday night, between the hours of eleven and twelve o'clock, Benjamin Fockler, of this place met with a sad accident that proved fatal.

We have no doubt, but that he is one of the "light fingered gentlemen."

Another Fight.—One day last week two colored rousties, in the back street, entertained the citizens of that part of town, by a demonstration of their pugilistic powers.

If they are still anxious to continue the above mentioned exercise, we kindly remind them of the punishment which some of their brethren received a short time since, for a like offence.

We are under obligation to Hon. Samuel Houston, Member of Congress, for a copy of a very useful book, called Pope or President's giving startling disclosures of Romanism as revealed by their own writers, published by R. S. Delisser, New York.

Goop.—The soul stirring music of the "Continents" on last Saturday night.

On the night in mention, we had the pleasure of listening to some of the beautiful pieces sung by them. May their shadows never grow less.

On Monday last, Powell Harvey and his son, were brought before Esquire Snare, upon a charge of larceny.

We see by the Boston papers that W. H. Prescott, the great American Historian is no more.

Counterfeit Detectors.—The following named Detectors has been received, giving the most recent information on money matters: Kennedy's Bank Note Review, published in Pittsburg, Pa. price $1 per year.

THE PAY OF CONGRESSMEN.—The present session gives to members a thousand dollars a month, besides mileage and perquisites.

A TURNED-OUT Douglas postmaster in Illinois, thus remembered the President, by telegraph, when Mr. Douglas was re-elected:

To his Excellency, James Buchanan, President of the United States, Washington City.

At the election of a United States Senator, this afternoon, our man (Douglas) got 54—your man (Lincoln) 46.

AUSTIN BHOOKS, Democratic State Senator and ex-Postmaster.

AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST.—This is a large, well got up standard publication on Agriculture, as well as every thing useful to the farmer.

The Atlantic Monthly.—This favorite monthly for this month is now on our table, it has not deteriorated.

The Rural and Horticultural Directory for 1859.—This is a book which cannot be too highly recommended.

Poverty.—Almost daily our eyes fall upon things to the following effect. Yesterday morning officer—hearing the plaintive cries of a child who seemed in great distress, went to the place from whence the cries seemed to proceed.

Such scenes of destitution and poverty, do not only occur in large and populous cities, but we might truly say, within the precincts of our own county.

But upon the other hand, we hear it said by the would be philanthropist: We have made ample provision for the poor.

It is a truth which cannot be denied, that our county has been magnanimous enough to provide for those who are unable to provide for themselves.
