

Courts of Justice, as Judge Thompson observes in the District Attorney case, "would do well to lose all confidence and respect."

The only difficulty which we have felt in this case, has been determining whether it is our duty to take other or further notice of it, than to record our judgment upon the merits of the complaint with regard to the election of county commissioner.

And now, having discussed this case in all its aspects, and given at length our reasons for our decision, we have only to record the judgment of the court upon the question presented in the petition, and complaint; which is, that Albej Lloyd, having as it is shown to the court, received a majority of the legal votes polled for the office of county commissioner at the general election held in and for the county of Cambria on the Second Tuesday of October, 1858, is duly elected to that office, and entitled to perform the duties, and enjoy the emoluments of the same during the term specified in the law.

Humorous.

"No Great Hand for Angels."—Last Monday, an old lady entered a well known book store, and inquired for a "Treatise of Angels." She made the inquiry of a boy, and was told they "hadn't got no such book."

"We're just out of the book you're in search of, ma'am, but we've got Fox's Book of Martyrs, crammed full of pictures—splendid book for a present."

"That gentleman there ma'am," explained the salesman, elucidating the picture, "is taking a melted lead sargare; and the other individual is about to be perforated in the intestines with a patent manure fork."

"Well now, that ere is a better book, I guess, than anything else. What mought the price of it be?"

"Twenty shillings, ma'am, very cheap book, that."

"Well, dew it up. My darter's just got married, and I calculate to make her a present. She wanted sunthin' about angels, but I never was no great hand for angels, no how."

The lady handed out four parcels, each containing fifty coppers, and completed the amount by adding three battered shillings and a dubious looking sixpence, the whole savoring powerfully of maccabey snuff.

"The sale completed, and the customer gone, the principal called up the boy, "Sonny," said he, "see here; when you're asked for a thing which you haven't got, always show the nearest article like it you have."

The urchin looked reflective, and was about to ask the resemblance between "Lives of the Angels" and "Fox's Book of Martyrs," but he didn't.

A Tough Story—Rather. A gentleman travelling down cast, overtook a farmer dragging a lean, wretched looking horned sheep along the road.

"Where are you going with that miserable animal?" asked the traveller.

"I am taking him to the mutton mill to have him ground over," said the farmer.

"The mutton mill? I never heard of such a thing. I will go with you and witness the process."

They arrived at the mill; the sheep was thrown alive into the hopper, and almost immediately after disappeared. They then descended into a lower apartment, and in a few moments there was ejected from a spout in a ceiling four quarters of excellent mutton, two sides of morocco leather, a wool hat of the finest quality, a sheep's head, (handsomely dressed) and two elegant carved powder horns.

Were it not for the fact that the abot e is in 'the papers' we should be disposed to dispute.

WHEN EASTER COMES.—It will be interesting to learn that Easter, which will be on the 24th of April this year, last fell on that day in 1791, and will not fall on the same date again till 2011. Since the introduction of the Gregorian Almanac this has only been the case in the years 1639 1707 and 1791. The period in which Easter can fall, reaches from the 22d of March (earliest date) to the 25th of April (latest date), leaving thirty-five different days for the celebration of this festival. In this century Easter will fall only once (1886) the latest date, the 25th of April.
