W. M. BREWSTER, Editor and Proprietor. Wednesday Morning, April 27, 1859.

Philosophers tell us that there are certain necessary evils in the world; but they have neglected to enumerate them.

A professed Doctor Normand, by name, his wife a fortune-teller, and his son a curer of stammering, visited our town last week and remained some days.

The Home Magazine for May is on our table, filled as usual with its interesting matter. The steel engraving "He's Coming" is good, as is also the plate of Fashion, the Flower Slipper, in beads and Berlin wool is beautiful.

The Atlantic Monthly.—The May number is before us. The fashion plate and other engravings are excellent, and cannot be surpassed. The reading matter is of the most interesting kind.

THE next term of the Cassville Seminary opens Monday, May 2nd.

Mr. Editor: Will you be so good as to allow me a small space in your paper, for the purpose of refuting a report put in circulation for the purpose of placing me in a false position before the people of the county at this time, to the effect that I charged and received pay from the county, for every day during my term of office in '52 and '53, which, if that were so, would be 626 days.

On the 21st inst., MARY, wife of James Bryan, aged 58 years.

On the 24th inst., of Scarlat fever, Sallie Erie, daughter of Thomas P. and Jane Love of this place, aged 3 years 6 months and 12 days.

On the 21st inst., MARY, wife of James Bryan, aged 58 years.
