LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

"One more unfortunate," erring creature, was committed to prison by Esquire...

We have been informed that a married lady living in the southern part of this county committed suicide, one day last week...

The dog law went into effect in Philadelphia, on Monday last. Animals found there without muzzles, are now manufactured into glue and oil in short order.

We observed that our ladies, imitating the trends, have put on their spring dresses, and what pleases us most, is that calico is more extensively used for dresses than formerly.

"If you want a companion for life, To comfort, enliven and bless, She is just the right sort of a wife— My girl with the calico dress."

How beautiful is the earth at present with its green herbage, and its trees just leafing out, the azure heavens above, the golden sunshine and the music of birds.

"Your voiceless lips, O flowers are living preachers. Each cup a pulpit, and each leaf a book, Supplying to my fancy numerous teachers From loneliest nook."

A "black yet comely" damsel was sent to Pike's Peak (the name given by "de cullud pussans" to our county jail) last week.

"The Reformers of our town have been as 'sheep without a shepherd' for some time, owing, I believe, to the expectation of getting Rev. Reid present pastor of the Huntingdon congregation."

We clip the above from a letter in the Shirley Argus, written from Alexandria, to which we, in common with our fellow citizens, beg leave to enter our protest.

The Classics of the German Returned Church met in this place on Friday last, and a considerable amount of important business has been transacted.

We had the pleasure of hearing the Rev. Dr. Schaff, Schenk, and Fisher, and Rosa Apple, Phillips, Hasler and Miller, preach during the week, and it is needless to say they all delivered eloquent sermons.

We have never seen a finer body of learned and good looking men together.

Our ears were greeted and our musical bump graciously touched on Saturday last by the soul-stirring "harmany" of the first Organist of the season; who made his appearance to the delight of exuberant urchins, and the edification of a few "dem foine fellas."

"Thou wilt come no more, gentle Annie, Like a flower thy spirit did depart, Thou art gone, alas, like the many, That have bloomed in the summer of my heart."

And then in rapturous music the good traits of Old Dog Tray were ground out: "He's gentle and he's kind, You'll never, never find, A better friend than old dog Tray."

Bless the poor Organ-grinders for the sake of the amusement they afford the juveniles and the aforesaid "dem foine fellas."

SEAN. Mac.—They have a Sickles affair over in Altoona, which is thus noticed by the Standard:—"It appears that a man named Lehr had in his employ a young lady, who loved her master not wisely but too well. This excited the jealousy of the lawful wife, who raised a rumpus in the house and kicked up a fuss generally as almost any other wife would have done under the same circumstances."

Two cases of selling liquor on Sunday and to minors, were continued.

Paul Long, for larceny, was sentenced to 10 days imprisonment and $1 fine and costs.

Four cases of assault and battery were disposed of by the usual sentences of fines and imprisonment.

Edward McCabe and A. J. McKee, convicted of larceny, were sentenced to pay a fine of $1 and costs, each, and the former undergo an imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary for the term of two years; the latter undergo a like imprisonment for the term of two years and six months.

As usual, numerous cases of fornication and bastardy were disposed of. The defendants generally agreeing to pay the usual charges; or only refused the usual arrangement, and he chooses rather to undergo three months imprisonment and then be discharged by the provisions of the insolvent laws. One other fellow gallantly married his girl.

[Correspondence of the Journal.] Waterstreet, May 12, 1859.

Mr. Editor:—Having read with interest accounts of many small villages, perhaps a account of our towns might not be uninteresting to some of the Journal's readers. Any one who has ever gone up the "blue Juniata" (and those who have not should go as soon as possible) may have noticed among the mountains the outskirts of a small village.

From the river, all that can be seen of this beautiful town, is the mill. If you follow up the road, however, leading along a beautiful sheet of water, known as Mytinger's dam, (where the fish are so plenty that they can hardly wear their tails) you will soon enter the village of Waterstreet—one of the most romantic villages in the State. If you wish to see a Paradise on a small scale, you can walk over the hill into Shadlersville. The first building you will notice, is the church; and every Sabbath morning you will see the ladies of the town and vicinity with their new calicos on, and their faces smoothed into a church-going cast, hurrying to the sanctuary. The men, with their patent-leather and swallow-tails on, and a huge piece of Sunday cavendish in their pockets, with a square inch of the same in their mouths, may be seen in small groups standing around the door, or seated on the fence surrounding the yard—all waiting for the hale old man on the white horse to arrive. There is also the school house, and the other institutions.

The inhabitants of these towns are courteous kind, generous, sociable, brave, hospitable honest, frugal, industrious, enterprising, honorable law-abiding, church-going, God-fearing men and women. No one, we think, with moderate sensible views of happiness, could help being happy in either of these towns. The men never swear nor go crazy; the women never scold, and always have warm dinners on washing days; the babies never cry, nor take the measles nor cholic; the dogs never go mad; the cats never fight at night, nor women in daylight; the boys never get the cholera, neither are the men choleric. The school master is well paid, (the widows well cared for)—especially the young ones. There are no old maids, no ugly women, no security of money, no flies in summer, no itch in winter; every good thing is plenty. Provisions are so cheap that men can work for nothing and grow rich.

We think our friends in the large towns should visit us during the summer, try the cooking at the hotel, the pure mountain air, and excellent water; for we have purer water, brighter sunshine, higher mountains, faster horses, bigger babies and prettier women than any other town of equal size. We had nearly forgotten to mention as a particular inducement for strangers, that we have also an excellent graveyard, so that if you should die—which is very improbable, as there is quite a number of persons living here now, and have lived here a long time, not one of whom has ever died once—you will not have to be thrown out in some fence corner but you will be laid up snug and dry as every honest man should. There has nothing of importance transpired here lately except a case of sheepslaughter not man slaugher, by a jury not of their own choosing, found worthy of death, and sentenced to be shot, one in the head, and the other in the back. There was also a fish scrape affray, but as fish stories are not believed, we will say nothing. If any thing of importance should occur, you shall be apprised of it. Ours of the NATIVES.

"Node" No. 2.—"To P. Punksin." "Tis all in vain, deny it as I will, Genius like mine, will not out and eat' his still; Like Banquo's ghost, it haunts no dream nor frown, E'en braying Punksin cannot keep it down: Since it is so, 'tis mine of Smith's, and sing, What 'greatest effects from little causes spring!'"

Had Mr. Balaam owned a knife or sword, To slay the ass that "backed" before the Lord, Squared Balaam's back had never taken a lyre, Balaam's ass was Peter Punksin's sire, So we see that little things are great, When viewed thro' nature, or the book of fate. A braying ass, a guard that sprang from sand, Has given the poet 'Punksin' to our land, Despair not then, the day of little things, You cannot tell the many joys it brings, Had cruel Balaam smote his speaking ass, Punksin had never lived an ass and fool. Nor weak by weak—like the familiar toad, Half-rook, half-venom spit himself abroad, In snout, in spite, in politics, in lies, In fuss and feathers, and in blasphemies; In language vile, in every tho't obscene, In billingsgate, in every jest unseemly base, No never failed the realms of fith for wit, Wallowed in ruts and miry pools—nor yet By such vile doings given a greater force, As oiled by magic juices for the course, Arose refreshed from the effluvia strong, With a new life, to scour and stink along, But vain my song; no horses' heads, no base, Drowsy snuff, or every jest unseemly base, No creature smart so little as a fool. Prove him an ass—ere down the pen you've laid The fool is at his dirty work again. But still we'll flap this bug of gilded wings, Beetle of dirt, that buzzes, stinks and sings: This monstrous thing, that lives on filth and pass, With Paris in head and all the rest an ass, Again read Peter we lift our hat, and with A bow profound subscribe ourself, JOHN SMITH.

JOY TO THE ADMIRERS OF RICH GLOSSY HAIR.

Talk of beauty, it cannot exist without a fine head of hair, then read the following, and if you ask more, see circular around each bottle, and no one can doubt.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We call the attention of all old and young, to this wonderful preparation, which turns back to its original color, gray hair—covers the head of the bald with a luxuriant growth—removes the dandruff, itching, and all eruptions—causes a continual flow of the natural fluid; and hence, if used as a regular dressing for the hair will preserve its color, and keep it from falling to extreme old age, in all its natural beauty. We call then upon the bald, the grey, or diseased in scalp, to use it, and surely the young will not, as they value the flowing locks, or the winking curl, ever be without it. Its praise is upon the tongue of thousands.

The Agent for Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative in New Haven, received the following letter in regard to the Hair Restorative, a few weeks since: DEEP RIVER, CONN., July 23, 1856.

Mr. Leavenworth—Sir: I have been troubled with dandruff or scurf on my head for more than a year, my hair began to come out, scurf and hair together. I saw in a New Haven paper about "Wood's Hair Restorative" as a cure. I called at your store on the 1st of April last, and purchased a bottle to try it, and I found to my satisfaction it was the thing, it removed the scurf and new hair began to grow, and in now two or three inches in length where it was all off. I have great faith in it. I wish you to send me two more bottles by Mr. Post, the bearer of this. I don't say any of the kind is used in this place, you may have a market for many bottles after it is known here. Yours with respect, RUFUS PRATT.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1856. PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE is proving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—in fact bald. I have used but two half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well supplied with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation I can induce many others to try it. Yours respectfully, D. R. THOMAS, M. D., No. 464 Vine St.

VINCENNES, IN., June 22, 1856. PROF. O. J. WOOD: As you are about to manufacture and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative, I will state, for whomsoever it may concern, that I have used it and know others to use it—I have, for several years, used the hair oil of using other hair restoratives, and that I find yours vastly superior to any other I know. It entirely cleanses the head of dandruff, and with one month's proper use will restore any person's hair to its original color and texture, giving it a healthy, soft and glossy appearance; and all this, without discoloring the hands that apply it, or the dress on which it drops. I would, therefore, recommend its use to every one desiring of having a fine color and texture to the hair. Respectfully yours, WILSON KING.

DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE AND LIVER PILLS.

WE beg leave to call the attention of the Trade, and more especially the Physicians of the country, to two of the most popular remedies now before the public. We refer to Dr. Chas M'Lane's Celebrated Vermifuge and Liver Pills.

We do not recommend them as universal Cure-alls, but simply for what their name purports, viz: THE VERMIFUGE, For expelling Worms from the human system. It has also been administered with the most satisfactory results to various Animals subject to Worms.

THE LIVER PILLS, For the cure of LIVER COMPLAINTS, all BILIOUS DERANGEMENTS, SICK HEAD-ACHE, &c. In cases of FEVER AND AGUE, preparatory to or after taking Quinine, they almost invariably make a speedy and permanent cure.

As specifics for the above mentioned diseases, they are Unrivalled, and never known to fail when administered in accordance with the directions.

Their unprecedented popularity has induced the proprietors, FLEMING BROTHERS, PITTSBURGH, PA.

to dispose of their Drug business, in which they have been successfully engaged for the last Twenty Years, and they will now give their undivided time and attention to their manufacture. And being determined that Dr. M'LANE'S Celebrated Vermifuge and Liver Pills shall continue to occupy the high position they now hold among the great remedies of the day, they will continue to spare neither time nor expense in procuring the Best and Purest material, and compound them in the most thorough manner. Address all orders to FLEMING BROS., Pittsburgh, Pa.

P. S. Dealers and Physicians ordering from others than Fleming Bros., will not write their orders distinctly, and take care not to be deceived by cheap imitations. To those wishing to give their trial, we will forward per mail, post paid, to any part of the United States, one box of Pills for two or three doses, accompanied by a circular containing full directions, and one of our Verifuge for fourteen three-cent stamps, or one dollar from Canada must be accompanied by twenty cents extra.

For sale in Huntingdon by John Read and S. S. Smith, and dealers generally through the country. [May 11, 1859.—1y.]

DR. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, AND DR. HOOFLAND'S BALSAMIC CORDIAL.

The great standard medicines of the present age, have acquired their great popularity only through years of trial. Unbounded satisfaction is rendered by them in all cases; and the people have pronounced them worthy.

Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Debility of the Nervous System, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered liver or weakness of the stomach and digestive organs, are speedily and permanently cured by the GERMAN BITTERS.

The Balsamic Cordial has acquired a reputation surpassing that of any similar preparation extant; it acts as a tonic, without fail, the most severe and long-standing Cough, Cold, or Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Influenza, Croup, Pneumonia, Incipient Consumption, and has performed the most astonishing cures ever known of

GROVER & BAKER'S MACHINES.

NEW STYLE—PRICES FROM $50 TO $125 EXTRA CHARGE OF $5 FOR REMIERS.

495 Broadway, N. Y. 730 Chestnut St., Phila.

These Machines sew from two spools, as purchased from the store, requiring no winding of thread; they Hem, Fell, Gather and Stitch in a superior style, finishing each seam by their own operation, without recourse to the handneedle, as is required by other machines. They will do better and cheaper sewing than a seamstress can, even if she works for one cent an hour, and are, unquestionably, the best Machines in the market for family sewing, on account of their simplicity, durability, ease of management, and adaptation to all varieties of family sewing—executing either heavy or fine work with equal facility, and without special adjustment.

As evidence of the unquestioned superiority of their Machines, the GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE COMPANY beg leave to respectfully refer to the following TESTIMONIALS.

"Having had one of Grover & Baker's Machines in my family for nearly a year and a half I take pleasure in commending it as every way reliable for the purpose for which it is designed.—Family Sewing."—Mrs. John Leavitt, wife of Rev. Dr. Leavitt, of N. Y. Independent.

"I confess myself delighted with your Sewing Machine, which has been in my family for many months. It has always been ready for duty, requiring no adjustment, and is easily adapted to every variety of family sewing, by simply changing the spools of thread."—Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, wife of Rev. Dr. Smith, of N. Y. Christian Advocate.

"After trying several different good machines, I preferred yours, on account of its simplicity, and the perfect ease with which it is managed, as well as the strength and durability of the work. After long experience, I feel competent to speak in this manner, and to confidently recommend it for every variety of family sewing."—Mrs. E. B. Spomer, wife of the Editor of the Brooklyn Star.

"I have used a Grover & Baker Sewing Machine for two years, and have found it adapted to all sorts of work, from Cambric to Broadcloth. It has been worn out without the giving way of a stitch. The Machine is easily kept in order, and is easily used."—Mrs. A. H. Whipple, wife of Rev. Geo. Whipple, of N. Y. Independent.

"Your Sewing Machine has been in use in my family the past two years, and the ladies request me to give you their testimonials to its perfect adaptability, as well as labor-saving qualities in the performance of family and household sewing."—Robert Johnson, N. Y.

"For several months we have Grover & Baker's Sewing Machine, and have come to the conclusion that every lady who desires her sewing beautifully and quickly done, would be most fortunate in possessing one of these. Reliable and household sewing, from needle-women, whose combined qualities of being strong and simple, are invaluable."—J. W. Morris, daughter of Gen. Geo. P. Morris, Editor of the Morning Star.

Extract of a letter from Thos. R. Leavitt, an American gentleman, now resident in Sydney, New South Wales, dated January 12, 1858: "I had a tent made in Melbourne, in 1855, in which there were over three thousand yards of sewing done with one of Grover & Baker's Machines, and a single seam of that has stood out all the double seams sewed by sailors with a needle and twine."

"If Homer could be called up from his murky shades, he would sing the advent of Grover & Baker as a more benignant miracle of art than was ever Valerian's smith. He would deprecate midnight shirt-making as 'the dreadful spring of woes unnumbered.'"—Prof. North.

"I take pleasure in saying, that the Grover & Baker Sewing Machines have more than sustained my expectation. After trying and returning others, I have three of them in operation in my different places, and after twenty years' trial, have no fault to find."—J. H. Hammond, Senator of South Carolina.

"My wife has had one of Grover & Baker's Family Sewing Machines for some time, and I am satisfied it is one of the best labor-saving machines that has ever been invented. I am recommending it to the public."—J. G. Harris, Governor of Tennessee.

"It is a beautiful thing, and puts everybody into an excitement of good humor. Were I a Catholic I should insist upon Saints Grover & Baker having an eternal holiday in consequence of their good deeds for humanity."—Cassius M. Clay.

"I think it by far the best patent in use. This Machine can be adapted from the finest cambric to the heaviest cassimer. It sews stronger, faster and more beautifully than 'no can imagine. It mends cloth not replaced, money could not buy it."—Mrs. J. G. Brown, Nashville, Tenn.

"It is speedy, very neat, and durable in its work; is easily understood and kept in repair. I earnestly recommend this Machine to all my acquaintances and others."—Mrs. M. J. Forrest, Memphis, Tenn.

"We find this machine to work to our satisfaction, and with pleasure recommend it to the public, as we believe Grover & Baker to be the best Sewing Machine in use."—Deary Brothers, Allenton, Tenn.

"If used exclusively for family purposes, with ordinary care, I will wager they will last one, three, five, ten, and twenty years, and never get out of use."—John Erskine, Nashville, Tenn.

"I have had my machine for several weeks, and an perfectly satisfied that the work it does is the best and most beautiful that ever was."—Maggie Amison, Nashville, Tenn.

"I use my Machine upon coats, dressmaking, and fine linen stitching, and the work is admirable—far better than the best hand-sewing, or any other machine I have ever used."—Lucy B. Thompson, Nashville, Tenn.

"I find the work the strongest and most beautiful I have ever seen, made either by hand or machine. As regards the Grover & Baker machine as one of the greatest blessings to our sex."—Mrs. Taylor, Nashville, Tenn.

"I have one of Grover & Baker's Sewing Machines in use in my family, and find it invaluable. I can confidently recommend it to all persons in want of a machine."—G. T. Thompson, Nashville, Tenn.

"I take pleasure in certifying to the utility of the Grover & Baker Sewing Machines. I have used one on almost every description of work for months, and find it much stronger than work done by hand."—Mrs. D. W. Wheeler, Nashville, Tenn.

"I would be unwilling to dispose of my Grover & Baker Machine for a large amount, could I not replace it again at pleasure."—Mrs. H. C. Scott, Nashville, Tenn.

"Our two Machines, purchased from you, do the work of twenty young ladies. We with pleasure recommend the Grover & Baker machine to be the best in use."—N. Stillman & Co. Tenn.

Yours truly, H. LEHER.

ANTIPLAGIOLISTIC SALT; A Perfect Substitute For the Lancel, Leeches and Blisters!!!

When the undersigned, after a long series of laborious and costly experiments, became fully convinced in his conviction, that the Salt, which he now has the happiness to present to the American public, was a PERFECT SUBSTITUTE for Blood-letting, Leeches and Blisters, his mind was so agitated that he could not sleep for many nights. The cause of his agitation was the striking fact, that the same operation, like that of the virus in vaccination, could not be satisfactorily explained upon any known principle. How, in what way, it so effectually subdued Inflammatory Disease and no others, was at first a mystery, but on a further experiment, it was proved that it equalizes the fluids of the body, the want of an equilibrium in which, is the sole cause of inflammation. Such is its potency, that like the vaccine matter, it requires merely to be adhered to the point of the lancet in order to effect the entire system—but must be instantly used to prevent decomposition and secure its full virtue. Three quills in acute, and two in chronic diseases, over 24 hours, fill the system with blood, which has subsided, and a perfect cure effected. When it takes the place of blisters, ointment and leeches in local affections, as Brain Fever, Croup, Toothache, Headache, &c., its mode of administration is two-fold. (See directions of directions.)

The discoverer has withheld it from the public till now, by the advice of a judicious physician and valuable friend whom he consulted—a gentleman known and felt in the highest degree—and who desired
