

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

We listened to one of the most powerful and eloquent pulpits discourses, last Sabbath evening, in the Presbyterian church of this place...

The Hollidaysburg Standard announces the fact, that their bank on Friday last closed its doors and refused to redeem its notes...

Mr. Henry Houpt, one of the early pioneers of the southern part of our county, and a wealthy and respected citizen, was found lying dead in his corn-field...

Among the many remarkable hen stories which have been going the rounds of the papers, we offer one, which we think will expel the climax, and which has truth, at least to recommend it...

WARM SPRINGS.—This delightful summer resort, situated five miles north of Huntingdon, at the base of Warrior's Ridge, is now ready for the reception of the public...

The circus which visited this place on Thursday last, brought its usual number of fights, and other nice arrangements...

We have been informed by a breake-man or fireman on a coal train, named Black, that our item relative to the engine getting off the track at Stonerstown, was an error...

Local items for the past week have been very scarce. We have had the usual number of fights—man and dog—thefts, frosts, &c., but nothing of very great interest.

We believe, there were but a half dozen fights in town, last week. A remarkable fighting off, and a commendable change for the better.

For the "Journal." The Book of Chronicles of the Rulers of Uncle Samuel.

CHAPTER I. 1. And it came to pass that in the latter days there arose a mighty and great nation in the West, towards the going down of the Sun...

CHAPTER II. 1. On the 22d. inst. by E. Plummer, Esq., Mr. Christian Fisher to Miss Jennim Fisher, both of Todd township.

much dissension among the people for a long time concerning them; for some said the Ethiopians shall be servants unto us forever; their sons shall be for man servants...

CHAPTER II. 1. There arose among the Princes of the people, one Stephen, called the "Giant," who spoke in the ears of the Princes and of the people...

2. And the thing pleased the Princes and the people, and they hearkened to Stephen's words. 3. Then Stephen wrote an edict, and the Council made it a law, and Franklin the Chief Ruler signed it...

4. Now the servants of Franklin had permitted those who held bond servants, to oppress those of their brethren who would not keep slaves in Kansas, for the free-entrants said: No Free State man shall dwell in the Territory.

5. And the officers of Franklin persecuted them, and his soldiers oppressed them, and all free-entrants were sorely grieved, for he had been a supple toad in their hands, all the days of his reign. And the followers of Franklin assembled themselves together in the Parkopolis of the nation...

6. And it came to pass that Brigham the "Latter Day Saint," had gathered to him many followers, and he established himself in the mountains of Utah, so that he went to California and he rebelled against the laws of Uncle Sam and defied the authority of King James.

7. And Brigham had many wives and concubines, but King James had never one nor the other.

8. By the King gathered together a large army, and he went out with Brigham to fight against him, and to subdue him; and the King's servants bought wagons, and corn, and mules to send to Utah, and the army of the King encamped on the plains of Kansas to await the arrival of the mules which Ahl, the King's servant purchased in Pennsylvania.

9. And Brigham had many wives and concubines, but King James had never one nor the other.

10. ANTIPHLOGISTIC SALT;

For the LANCET, LEECHES and BLISTERS!!!

PERFECT SUBSTITUTE

For Blood-Letting, Leeches and Blisters, his mind was so agitated that he could not sleep for many nights. The cause of his agitation was the striking fact, that the manner of its operation like that of the virus in vaccination, could not be satisfactorily explained upon any known principle.

The discoverer has withheld it from the public till now, by the advice of a judicious physician and valuable friend whom he consulted—a gentleman known and felt in the medical world—and who desired to submit the matter to experiment. After witnessing under his own scrutinizing eye, its signal triumph over both acute and chronic inflammatory diseases, in repeated and re-repeated trials, he offered $25.00 to come to a special and equal partition of the recipe for its manufacture, but the proposal was rejected.

TESTIMONIALS.

"Having had one of Grover & Baker's Machines in my family for nearly a year and a half I take pleasure in commending it as every way reliable for the purposes for which it is designed."

"I have used a Grover & Baker Sewing Machine for two years, and have found it adapted to all kinds of family sewing, from Cambric to Broadcloth, and for all kinds of work that can be done without the giving way of a stitch. The Machine is easily kept in order, and is easily used."
