LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

That invitation we received to a picnic up the country, on the 4th, came too late. We have made other arrangements, friend Mc.

CAMP MEETING.—The first Camp Meeting of the season will be held by the United Brethren in Christ, on the 25th of August, near Steffey's stand, on the land of Troutwine's heirs, Jackson township.

The Methodist Sabbath School of this place, intends celebrating the 4th of July at the Cottage Grove, on Saturday next.

The other Sabbath Schools will celebrate the anniversary, at the same place, we believe, on Monday. Addresses will be delivered on both occasions, by good speakers.

We notice many new buildings going up in town. Wm. E. McMurtrie, has had the old store room formerly occupied by Fisher & McMurtrie, torn down, to give place to a new brick building.

E. Bartol has erected a neat dwelling house on Washington street, and J. Reed's new brick building is almost completed. Besides these, there are other improvements.

It rose into importance in the flush time of the canal, and when that great trade declined, the town, having no local business of any moment, decayed with it.

The above flattering notice of our town appears in a letter to the Phila. Bal. etc., from Bedford. Should the writer be kind enough to make himself known, on his return, he will no doubt find "fidelity" enough to inure himself an extra coat and an uncomfortable ride, for his unwarranted slander.

Disturbing Public Meetings.—Public meetings have been frequently not a little annoyed in this community, by the misconduct of unruly boys and young men.
